

What People Are Doing in Highwood

Special work for the winter along Historical and Geographical lines is being planned by Mr. Hodge for the pupils of the Highwood schools. Mr. Hodge has been fortunate in securing Mr. J. L. Smith, the city superintendent of schools of Highland Park to give several talks illustrated with stereopticon views.

Julius Laegler has on display this season a full line of The Canterbury Company's holiday novelties consisting of Post Cards, Folders, Calendars and other things. Ask to see them.

Special Thanksgiving exercises were held in all the rooms of the Highwood school on Wednesday afternoon. The exercises were public, and a number of visitors enjoyed the songs and recitations of the pupils.

Mr. Hodge, the principal of the Highwood schools, is preparing a new course of study to be used in the schools, and one which will conform more nearly with the local conditions. Under the new course it is planned to give the pupil a better preparation for the requirements of a high school course.

The Shamrock Club will hold an invitation dance in Odd Fellows' hall next Tuesday evening. The Highwood Orchestra will furnish music.

There was a regular meeting of the city council last Tuesday evening. Only the regular business was transacted.

The masquerade ball given by the Eagles in Odd Fellow's hall on Wednesday evening was a grand success, both socially and financially. Prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Bessie McTamney and Richard Steensohn, for best representation of characters; Miss Maude May of Wilmette, most comical costume; and Mrs. H. L. Steensohn and Mr. Alex Rafferty, for the best costume.

Sheridan Lodge, I.O.O.F., has commenced the winter's work in degrees, and several applicants are on the waiting list.

You will find almost everything in the line of Christmas novelties and toys at Julius Laegeler's this season. Call on him and look over the display.

"Did You Know Snyder?" or, "The Majesty of the Individual" is the subject of the lecture by Rev. John A. J. Whipple, at the Swedish M. E. Church on Friday evening, Dec. 7, for benefit of School Library fund. Come out and have a good laugh.

Mrs. Rose Foster of Pontiac, Illinois, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. H. S. Gail.

Mr. Leo Kretz, who has been spending the summer in Switzerland at Eschenbach and Luzern visiting relatives, has returned to this country, and spent last Sunday with old comrades and friends at this place. He is on his way to San Antonio, where he expects to spend the winter.

Mr. Peter Rectenwald left recently to spend the winter in the milder climate of California.

Mayor M. J. Gibbs went to Long Grove on Friday to attend a meeting of the Bridge Committee of the County Board of Supervisors.

Julius Laegeler has received his usual full line of holiday goods, and placed them on display this week.

Letters from Mr. and Mrs. Lehman, who left this city recently, report a very pleasant trip and safe arrival at Madison Barracks, N. Y., where Sergeant Lehman has been assigned as commissary sergeant.

Don't forget the bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Highwood M. E. church next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. It is to be held in the City Hall, and there will be all kinds of fancy work, children's clothing, and artistic articles for Christmas gifts. A well-filled purse would be a good thing to take along, as the ladies need the money for church work.

Death of Mrs. Harlow.

Mrs. Margaret W. Harlow died on Thursday morning, Nov. 22, at the home of her sister, Mrs. George H. Campbell. She was born in London Sept. 24th, 1848, and married Mr. George H. Harlow in Rochester, Mass. She moved to Highland Park six years ago and purchased the property at 108 Dale Ave. which place was rented for the winter. Mrs. Harlow lived with her sister, Mrs. Campbell, who is now the only survivor of the DeValle family. She leaves one daughter, Miss Mabel E. Harlow, who at the time of her mother's death was in Dallas, Texas. She arrived here on Saturday and will make her home with Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Harlow has been in poor health for some time past and has had two operations for dropsy during the past six months.

The funeral was held at Mrs. Campbell's home on Monday at one o'clock and the burial was at Rosehill.

Letter to Mr. F. L. Hill

Highland Park, Ill.

Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on as to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs as much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or a quarter as well as good.

Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any poor? Why the market is full of it!

Of non-committal men there are two classes—the weak and the wicked. Weak men never express an opinion until other speak, because they never have any of their own. There are others who never express an opinion, no matter what they think, until they find out which is going to be the stronger side. The first class is to be pitied, the second despised.—J. W. P.
