

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. Mildred Mihills who has almost completed her course of training at the St. Luke's Training school for nurses has been honored with the offer of the position of assistant surgical nurse at St. Luke's hospital, which offer she has accepted. She will begin her duties on Jan. 1st.

Mr. James H. Shields and Miss Viola Shields have issued invitations for a large dance to be given at the Highland Park Club on the evening of Thursday Dec. 27th in honor of Miss Louderback of San Francisco.

On Saturday evening December 8th, the cadet officers of the Northwestern Military Academy gave a large dance in the drill hall. The hop is an annual affair and this was one of the prettiest ever given. Captain Phillip Heege and Miss Florence Large led the grand march. The decorations were principally Japanese in design with just enough red, white and blue bunting to make it military. At the end of the evening tri-colored serpentines were thrown over the rafters and a shower of gilt stars and confetti sifted down upon the dancers. The effect was very pretty.

The "Toy Shop" is being rehearsed by a large number of children and will be given at Ravinia Theatre on the afternoon and evening of December 29th, under the auspices of Trinity Guild.

Those who have seen this play given before will welcome its arrival as well as those to whom it will be a novelty. It is a very pretty little thing and will be well worth going to see.

WANTED:—Two rooms for light housekeeping, Address Mrs. E. L., Highland Park. General delivery.

The Ladies Bazaar presents a very attractive appearance and is well stocked with good substantial Christmas gifts, every thing useful (nothing frivolous) everything fresh. A splendid assortment of pretty stationary, Dennison's handy boxes, lunch sets, doll sets, sticking seals, and Christmas tags. A large selection of genuine Japanese china, pretty handkerchiefs, sweaters, gloves, silk umbrellas, Battenburg pieces, pillows, toys, perfumes, beauty pins and many other articles to numerous to mention. Pay me a visit and be convinced that my goods are the best at the price. Mrs. Bohl's Store, Highland Park, Ill.

A box of Zion's pure candy, or Gibson's "English" Fruit Tablets would make a very acceptable Christmas gift. For sale at Mrs. Bohl's store.

Mr. "Arthur Pendeny's" has sent an amusing Belinda letter to the November Critic, in which he speaks with especial delight of the hero of Saki's late novel "Reginald," who on becoming a poet, writes:

"Cackle, cackle, little hen,
How I wonder if and when
Once you laid the egg that I Met, alas! too late. Amen."

The Chicago Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has issued invitations for a reception to be held in the assembly hall at the Fine Arts building on the afternoon of Dec. 18th, in honor of Mrs. Benjamin Fessenden, Illinois State Regent, and the various chapter regents of the State. Mrs. Valentine Smith will lecture on "Historic Places in Illinois under the French and English Kings and during the Revolutionary War Period."

WANTED:—Laundry work, by Mrs. C. C. Crum, Ravinia Station.

Miss Mable Harlow has been visiting in Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Larson were made happy on Monday evening by the arrival of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fraiser of Chicago were guests at the home of Mrs. J. L. Miller on Sunday.

Mr. Alfred Bergen will give a concert on Monday evening, December 17th, at Mrs. Jone's studio. Mr. Bergen's old admirers will then have a chance of again hearing him sing. The tickets will be one dollar and it is hoped that he will have a good audience.

WANTED:—Work by the day, by experienced woman. Telephone 1519

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Francis Mellin.

A book for a Christmas present. A good assortment at Albert Larson's, newsdealer, bookseller and stationer.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First United Evangelical church met in the lecture room of the church on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Fred Page gave a dance last evening at the Highland Park Club in honor of Miss Bessie Smith.

Mr. Ambrose Haungs of Chicago was the guest of his daughter Mrs. John S. Reesman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Bahr had as their guests last week two of Mrs. Bahr's brother-in-laws from Oshkosh, who were at the stock show.

A nice assortment of watches, clocks and jewelry at Levin's, the Jeweler.

Mr. Eugene Lurvey of Oakfield, Wis., visited his sister, Mrs. D. P. Sheahan, for several days last week.

The Lady Foresters were so pleased with the success of their last card party that they have decided to give another on next Wednesday evening December 19th. There will be a reception followed by cards. Prizes will be given and refreshments served and the admission will be the same as before, twenty-five cents.

A book for a Christmas present. A good assortment at Albert Larson's, newsdealer, bookseller and stationer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grover and family left on Wednesday for Oberlin, Ohio, to spend the holidays. They will be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. J. J. Hesler and two children of Carbonale, Illinois, visited Mrs. Dan Sheahan last Saturday.

The Choir of the Evangelical church will give a Cantata on Sunday evening, December 23, at the church. The Cantata is called the "Holy Child" and some very good singing is promised.

Miss Bessie Hall who has been a student in our High School for some time past, left last week for Chicago, for the winter. She will attend the Lewis Institute during her stay in town.

Mr. Pere L. Nickes was hostess at a large bridge party on Thursday afternoon at her home on Sheridan Road.

Gold and silver novelties of all descriptions, fountain and other pens at Levin's, the Jeweler.

On Tuesday evening the second of the winter concerts at Ravinia Park was held by the Thomas Orchestra. The program was an exceptionally good one, the first was an overture by Beethoven and Mozarts Symphony "Jupiter." After the intermission the Evanston Musical Club gave selections from Handels "Messiah" with the orchestra. Mabel Sharpe Herdien, Soprano and Elaine de Selem, Contralto took the solo parts, both artists sang beautifully. The next Thomas concert will take place on the evening of Jan 1st.

On January 6th, the Park management announces a Damrosch concert. The New York Orchestra will give a concert in Chicago in the afternoon and will be at the Ravinia Theatre with all the solists. North Shore people are looking forward to that evening with great pleasure.

A number of Highland Park people attended the dance given on Thursday evening at Lincoln Hall, Chicago, by the Misses Williams for their niece, Miss Cornelia Williams.

On Thursday evening the young ladies of Highland Park Club gave a vaudeville in which they caricatured the different "stunts" given by the young men in their show of a few weeks ago. Miss Francis Everett, Miss Esther Schwartz, Miss Marion Mason, Miss Ethel Turnley, Miss Jean Truxel and Miss Saidee Buckley were among the principal performers.

The third of the course of lectures given by the Highland Park Lecture Association, was held in the Grammar School Auditorium on Monday evening, December 10th. Mr. Bolton Hall was the lecturer and his subject was, "Civic Righteousness." He asked that those who cared to question him do so and he would be glad to answer to the best of his ability. There were a perfect deluge of questions which Mr. Hall answered almost instantly. Most of these were in regard to the single tax and not once did Mr. Hall hesitate for a moment. His talk was clear and concise and very interesting. The fourth lecture will be held on December 31st.

Everything comes to the man who waits—and the bill collector heads the procession.

The Time The Place and The Girl

THE TIME to buy Christmas
presents is now

THE PLACE is at Levin's, the Jeweler.

THE GIRL will appreciate presents bought at Levin's.