An Appreciation

The following resolution, unanimously adopted by the Highland Park Presbyterian Church and congregation at a meeting held in the church on Wednesday evening, January 9, 1907, is a deserved expression of appreciation and regard for Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pfanstiehl, and evidences the universal esteem in which they have been held during Mr. Pfanstiehl's ten years pastorate in this city. The resolution is as follows.

Realizing that the action taken by our Pastor, the Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl, in resigning the pastorate of this church of our Lord—the Highland Park Presbyterian church—will in all probability result in severing a tie of long standing, and which has proved a most tender and agreeable relation;

And, further, having taken on the part of the church and congregation the suggested action of acquiescence, by formally accepting such resignation, and furthering its intent by added appropriate action;

And, desiring to make record of the affectionate regard and kindly feeling in which Mr. Pfanstiehl and his most helpful and tactful wife are held, and have been held, by their church and congregation for a long period of years,

BE IT RESOLVED, As a fitting and sincere expression of our love and reverence for them both, as Pastor and Pastor's wife, that we hereby express our deep and lasting sense of obligation for their earnest work and unflagging zeal in the Master's service; for the teaching, counsel, and exhortation given us, coming from the lips of an Ambassador of Christ, in his service and name, and for the furtherance of the cause of Christ and the up-building of His church.

We express our deep conviction that his ministry has been blessed of God, and that his hearers have been edified and uplifted.

We recount the deep satisfaction that through a ten year's ministry there has been no unkindly feeling or differences between Pastor and people; that the church has steadily grown in numbers, and in all that makes for righteousness.

We, therefore, both as adults and children,—all of us children in the highest attainments and before our Maker,—desire to most feelingly wish our Pastor and his good wife, that Heaven's choicest blessings may be bestowed upon them, where ever God in His Providence may lead them; and assuring them that their work will not be forgotten, and praying that such work may go on—blessed of God—and that it may still continue to bear fruit.

We earnestly hope and look for, during the remaining life of our dear friends, a mature and consecrated devotion to the cause of our common Master, which may perhaps result in the choicest of the harvest of twenty-eight year's of service.

And we assure them that our affection, our love, and our prayers shall go with them, howsoever and wheresoever they may be led.

RESOLVED, that this expression be made a part of the records of this church, and that the clerk be requested to give a copy of the same to Mr. and Mrs. Pfanstiehl.

Unanimously adopted by the Highland Park church and congregation at a meeting held in the church January 9th, 1907.

ROBERT W. PATTON, Clerk.
