

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mr. C. T. Ford, of the Chicago Telephone Company is to be the proud possessor of a fine horse and wagon very soon. We all wish him well.

Owing to the moderate weather I still have on hand a good line of winter goods which must be closed out to make room for my spring purchases, which will soon be coming in. This means that can save you money and give you satisfaction. It will pay to buy now for next year. You can depend on every article you buy, in

MRS. BOHL'S STORE,
Highland Park

Miss Francis Everett entertained a few of the young people very informally on Sunday afternoon to meet Miss Hills who was the guest of Miss Schwarz.

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Ingalls are the proud parents of a new baby girl, born January 11.

Miss Mason of Chicago, is spending the week with her brother, Mr. George Allan Mason.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl, was called away Monday to Shelbyville, Indiana, to preach the funeral sermon there of one of the prominent citizens.

Mr. Arthur Evans of Chicago, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans.

Mrs. Jennie L. Miller was the guest on Tuesday of Mrs. Fred Frasier, of Chicago.

Miss Esther Schwarz gave a masquerade party on Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Hills of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Miss Hills was the guest of Mrs. Herbert Schwarz, of Chicago.

FOUND:—Yellow and white dog. Call this office.

WANTED:—Girl for general house work, where nursing kept. Must be good cook and laundress. Family of four. Reference required. Apply Saturday afternoon, January 26th, at 265 Central Avenue.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl gave his lecture on "Holland, last week at Hillsdale, Michigan.

Miss Jean Louderback, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ritter, left on Wednesday evening for her home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parliament, Miss Alice Parliament and Master Clarence Parliament accompanied by Mrs. John Brady and her two sons, expect to leave soon for a six week's trip through Southern California.

Mrs. William Louderback was the hostess on Tuesday at a bridge-luncheon in honor of her sister, Miss Kathaleen Darrogh, who is visiting her for several weeks.

Miss Marjorie Mihills has been ill for several days with a severe cold.

Mrs. W. R. Cassiger and son Billy, left for the south this week, accompanied by Mr. G. E. Wilcox's mother and his sister, Mrs. Morgan. They will be at Pensacola, Florida.

FOR RENT:—A cottage near Maple Electric Factory for an Apple to Mrs. W. A. Dushig, Highland Park State Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher and family, who have been visiting in Northern Minnesota for about a month, returned to Highland Park this week.

FOR SALE:—Three Irish setter pups, whelped Sept. 6. One female, two males. Seven week old. Pions perfect. Price $15, $20 and $25. J. R. Mear, Libertyville Ill.

At the wedding of Miss Lillian Winifred Case of Chicago and Mr. Carleton McCulloch Vail, on the twenty-second the attendants will be Miss Emma Louise Case, the bride's sister who will act as maid of honor and the Misses Edith L. Case, Helen B. Aldrich, Cecile Vail and Margaret McCulloch who will act as bridesmaids. Little Richard S. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Hill of Oak Park will be ring bearer. Mr. Royal Vail will attend his brother as best man and the usher, chosen are Mr. Malcolm Vail, Mr. E. L. Hendee, Mr. C. Ward Seabury, Mr. James Troxel, Mr. Frederick R. Hill and Mr. Horace H. Sailor. Following the ceremony which will take place at the Warren Avenue Congregational Church, there will be a reception at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hosmer Case, 201 Ashland Boulevard.

Mr. Frank Sheahan had his birthday celebrated for him on Monday evening, when his mother and brothers and sisters with their wives and husbands decended upon him in a body. The evening was spent in playing cards and all enjoyed a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Munro entertained informally for Mr. Walter Hatley, on Monday evening. Mr. Hatley has gone to Chicago for the winter.

Judge Peter S. Grosscup has taken Mr. Hatley's house, and will have his daughter, Mrs. Isaac Jordan and her husband with him for the remainder of the winter.

One of the most successful meetings of the year was held by the Highland Park Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, at the Library Building.

Mrs. A. A. Pfanstiehl, the former president of the club was the essayist of the day. Her paper "The Vocation of Motherhood" was given in that charming manner of hers which we all have grown to know and love. The points brought out and the sweet sentiments expressed in her reading, delighted all who were fortunate enough to hear her.

Mrs. Charles Warren accompanied Mrs. Eddy, who sang several songs, one being a "Lullaby" written by Mrs. Pfanstiehl. Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Pfanstiehl, Mrs. Aldridge and Miss Flint were the hostesses of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Steele and Miss Elizabeth Steele left this week for Southern California to be gone about six weeks.

The engagement of Miss Jennie Wainwright, daughter of Mrs. R. R. Wainwright, to Lieut. Mearns of the 5th United States Cavalry, is announced.

Miss Wainwright, who has many friends here, is living now at Ft. Clark, Texas with her brother Lieut. J. M. Wainwright. The wedding will take place in the spring at Ft. Clark.

Mr. Turnley Lightner has gone to Bloomington to go into business.

Mrs. William N. Goodridge has been very ill for the past week with the grippe. She is better now, however.

Miss Marie Greenslade is confined to the house with the mumps.

Miss Adelaide Dodel is giving a luncheon to-day at her home on Franklin Avenue, Chicago.

Mr. R. L. Sandwick is out again after an attack of the grippe.

Mr. William Roth went to the Augustana Hospital this week and was operated upon for appendicitis. He is doing nicely.

Mrs. William Obee has been quite ill with the grippe this week.

Miss Gieksler, who has been visiting her aunt Mrs. Mearklin for some time has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Mrs. C. P. Sullivan has been ill all this week with the grippe.

The Lady Foresters held an open meeting Wednesday evening at Masonic Hall. New Officers were installed and afterward a very pleasant evening was spent.

The Sophomore Class at the High School gave a dance last evening in honor of the Seniors. It was one of the most successful parties given this year and the second year pupils deserve a great deal of praise.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Ingalls have adopted a baby girl. The little one was a foundling and of three days old when they took it.

Mrs. Arthur Van Schaick of Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. John Harmon, this week.

On Monday evening, Mr. S. M. Spondon, the cartoonist, gave an extremely interesting and amusing lecture at the Grammar School. He spoke of the "Character and Characteristics" of drawing illustrating his talk with sketches of different people in the audience. The cartoons were very funny and could be easily recognized almost every time. The next lecture will be on January 28, and will be "The French Revolution" by Lee Fra Lybargan. This one was to have been given December 31, but was postponed.

Mrs. A. P. Smith and Miss Smith will enter at luncheon on next Wednesday, for Miss Will.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Turpin and baby, have been visiting Mrs. Turpin's parents in Terre Haute, Ind., since Christmas, returned home this week.

Mr. August Norenburg left this week for St. Petersburg, Florida, to visit his parents at their winter home.

The Senior Play which was to have been "You Like It," has been changed to "Midnight's Dream" as Miss Sutton considers it better suited to the pupils.

(Continued on Page 7)

WANTED

Girls for Bindery Work

EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY

CALL AT THIS OFFICE