

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Mrs. F. C. Brown has as her guest, her cousin, Miss Wilbur.

Mrs. Herman Denzel gave an informal on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Virginia Hilliard of Milwaukee, has been visiting Mrs. M. E. Kelley, for the past week.

Mrs. William Grant entertained informally, on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. N. J. Ross and son, Herbert of Evanston, were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Miller on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans have taken Mr. Rosenberger's house in the Exmoor subdivision.

Mrs. Frank Gardner entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Chandler has been quite ill, but is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Rutter left on Thursday, for Florida, for a short trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hyde have gone to Italy, for the winter. They left on Monday.

Miss Virginia Chandler entertained a week-end house-party this week.

Mrs. William J. Louderback gave a bridge whist party on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lynn Rutter was hostess for the Ladies Bridge Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Lewis B. Hibbard who has been ill for some time, suffered a slight set back this week, but is better.

Miss Hawkins expects to accompany her sister, Mrs. Joseph Ball, when she returns to California.

Mrs. C. P. Sullivan was called to Milwaukee, by the serious illness of a cousin this week.

Mr. Francis C. Brown is visiting his daughter in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. L. Curtis and family, left on Sunday for a trip to Colorado, and the west.

Mrs. E. P. Sedgwick gave a dinner on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. W. Aldridge entertained informally on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. A. W. Fletcher has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. R. L. Rosenberger expects to go to Dakota about the first of March.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson have returned from a short stay at Mudlavia, Indiana.

Mr. Malcolm Vail is in Indianapolis, where he was operated upon for appendicitis.

Mrs. John Stupey was taken to the hospital this week, suffering with her old trouble.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Minnie Fish Griffin gave a musical at the Highland Park Club, which was very fine and largely attended.

Mrs. Van Schaick has rented Mrs. Green's new cottage on Green Bay Road.

Mr. John S. Reesman has been sick with lambo for the past two weeks, but is better.

Mrs. Fred Norenberg entertained her Sunday school class on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Munro, entertained a number of friends at supper on Sunday evening.

WANTED:—To rent good warm barn for two horses. Inquire at this office.

Mr. Byron J. Stevens gave a stag party on last Friday evening, to a number of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Bond are the happy parents of a baby girl born Friday evening.

The Rev. A. A. Pfansteihl was invited to deliver an oration at a celebration of Washington's birthday, at Berwyn, on Friday the 22nd.

Rev. George Deekinger of Deerfield, is quite ill with bronchial asthma. His many friends here will be sorry to hear of his illness.

Mr. Charles Schneider was called to Chicago last week, to attend the funeral of a friend, and accompanied the remains to Kankakee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bullen are entertaining Miss Cross, of Toronto, Mr. Gordon Ramsey's fiancée.

The Woman's Auxillary of the Trinity church, held an all day meeting at the Library building on Wednesday. St. Margaret's Guild served luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hill entertained a number of their Chicago friends last Sunday, at their New home, 132 Homewood avenue.

Mr. Louis N. Bond had the misfortune to slip on an icy sidewalk which resulted in a broken nose.

Mrs. Stubbs and her three sons, have gone to Pensacola, Florida, for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Pere L. Wickes, who had expected to go to Jamaica, has given up the trip and is traveling in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Vail have returned from the south and are with Mr. Vail's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Vail.

Dr. Ingalls has rented the house on Park avenue, formerly occupied by Mr. Merritt, and will move in soon.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, met on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Floyd.

Mrs. Frank Gardner gave a luncheon on Tuesday, for Miss Lomax, who is visiting Mrs. Trigg Waller.

Miss Smith and Mrs. Brown of the Grammar school are spending the week-end with friends in Chicago.

The friends of Mr. A. N. Lowrie of Ravinia Park, will be surprised to hear of his marriage to Miss Lula Shields of Chicago, which took place the first part of last week.

Lost:—On Deerfield avenue, Feb. 11, a ring, containing 3 rubies and 8 pearls, with word "Father" inside. Finder please return to Miss Margaret Sullivan, 221 McDaniel avenue, and receive reward.

Mrs. Charles C. Yoe gave a luncheon on Tuesday at her apartments, at the Connecticut, in Washington, D. C., where she and her husband are spending the winter, in honor of Miss Yoe, who is visiting her.

The sermon delivered at the First United Evangelical church on last Sunday evening by the pastor, Rev. E. Fuessle, of which his subject was, "If Christ Came Today," was listened to by a large congregation.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hazel avenue near St. Johns. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m. Reading room in the church is open every day except Sunday, from 2 to 4:30 p. m. Subject for Feb. 24th, "Christ Jesus.

NOTICE:—I am prepared to do all kinds of concrete work promptly and at reasonable prices. You should leave orders now for your Spring Concrete repairing. OLAF LINDBLOM, Tel. 2492 102 Walnut St. 7-20-7

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hecketswieler opened their home to the Christian Endeavor Society of the Ebenezer Evangelical church, who held a "Height Social." As the name implies, every person upon entering was measured and then charged at the rate of three cents a foot, for admission. It was a most unique and amusing affair. Every one enjoyed it immensely.

A lecture on Christian Science, "Demonstrable Religion," by Frank H. Leonard, C. S. B., of Brooklyn, New York, member of the Christian Science Board of Lecturers of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, will be given Tuesday night, March 5th, at 8 o'clock in the church edifice, Hazel avenue. All are invited.

Allan Flinn who is the present "Factor" of the "Fecit Club" went as a delegate Wednesday night to the meeting of the "Square Deal Club," at the Henry Booth House in Chicago. There is a talk of arranging a debate and baseball game between the two boy's clubs.

The "Fecit Club" has just removed to their new club room on the second floor of the Fletcher block, on Central avenue. Mr. Henry M. Hyde whose novel "The Upstart" was published by the Century Company of New York and an interesting story in a recent issue of the Century Magazine. Mr. Hyde is editor of "The Technical World" Magazine of Chicago.

The Highland Park Woman's Club was addressed on Thursday afternoon by Prof. George E. Vincent of Chicago University, who spoke on "Education and Efficiency." His subject was a popular one and all who heard him were sorry when it was over. Prof. Vincent is a son of Bishop Vincent and professor of Political Economy at the University of Chicago. Mrs. Turpin furnished the music of the afternoon, playing Paderewski's "Mimiet" and Lauderback Variations, very beautifully. The hostesses were Mrs. A. B. Holabird, Mrs. Edward Laing, Mrs. Edwin O. Grover and Miss Howell.

Mr. James Garrity having purchased a beautiful lot in the St. Mary's cemetery, in which he recently buried his wife, is now erecting a monument to her memory. The height of the monument is to be six feet, the first and second pieces is to be of the Royal Blue marble, while the base is of a very light blue; on the face of the die is cut a beautiful cross intertwined with roses, while on the base is the raised family name and at the head of his deceased wife's grave is a beautiful Royal Blue marker with name raised on the oval top, and at each corner of the lot is placed high stone posts. The work is being executed R. G. Salyards.