

What People Are Doing in Highland Park

Albert Larson was elected Secretary of the Mystic Workers on Tuesday evening, March 26, to succeed Harry Clow, resigned.

The Fecit club basket ball team was defeated in an exciting game at Lake Forest last Saturday by a score of 23 to 14.

The Young Mens' Commercial Club of Highland Park gave a "Smoker" in the club rooms last Saturday evening. A very pleasant time was had by all present, a number of friends having been invited in.

Little Arthur Williams is the latest scarlet-fever victim. His case is not a very severe one however.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hyde left on Wednesday for the east preparatory to a trip abroad.

Mrs. Mulke entertained a few ladies informally on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Mabel Cole leaves on Monday to start training for a nurse in the Deaconess Hospital. Her many friends wish her every success.

Col. H. P. Davidson, who has been at Major Davidson's plantation in Florida for several months, returned to Highland Park Monday brown and happy after a pleasant outing. Mrs. Davidson and Miss Alice will be home early in April.

Mr. George H. McBride and family took possession of the Cherry house on Prospect Avenue, this week.

Mr. S. E. Egan has rented Mr. Rounseville's new cottage on St. John's Place and will move in soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hecketswieler adopted a fifteen months old girl this week. The child is described as a beauty and her name is Marian Margaret Buck.

If you want a good farm, 100 acres and house, 3 miles west of Highland Park, at less than $100 per acre see Henry K. Coale or Phone 178 H. P.

On Easter night the choir of the First United Evangelical Church will give P. A. Schneckers' lenten cantata, "The Story of Calvary." The choir is well trained and under the direction of Prof. E. A. Songer of Evanston. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. Charles E. Wilcox has returned from a visit with his daughter Mrs. Cregier, who is in Florida for the winter.

Mrs. Edwin Booth and daughter of Gross Park Chicago spent this week with Mrs. William Booth

Mr. William Albright has moved to a town just outside of Champaign, Ill., and expects to open a market there. His many friends here wish him the best of good luck.

Bishop and Mrs. N. F. Hiel have gone on an extensive trip West. They expect to take in a large number of places in their travel before they return.

Easter Sunday, St. Mary's Church will celebrate High Mass at 10 a. m. The regular Easter service will be supplemented by special music which will be very fine.

Miss Olive Haelele of Barrington spent Sunday with Miss Alice Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Gregory will be out early in May to occupy their house for the summer.

Miss Viola Shields and Miss Mary Clark spent several days with Miss Isabel Scott in Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter Margaret of Edeson Park spent Sunday with Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Roebbling.

Mr. John W. Cummings has sold his house on west Central Avenue to Mr. Williams, a son of Mr. Chas. Williams and he has taken possession. Mr. Cummings for the present is with his daughter Mrs. William Witten.

Henry K. Coale has several of the best South front lots, 29x15 1/2 ft. in Lloyd Sub-div., one block west of Highwood depot, at $150 each; $10 cash and balance $5 per month. Send for plat or phone H. P. 178.

Mr. William McIlwain has rented Mr. Norenberg's house on North Second street.

Miss Olga Taylor, Miss Ruby Chandler and Miss Margo Street are home from Kemper Hall for the Easter recess.

Mr. Herman Borchardt is building a cottage in the Exmoor Sub-division.

The Northwestern Military Academy are having a recess of a few days for Easter. The students will be back at school on Tuesday next.

Mr. John S. Reesman has built a garage preparatory to getting a new automobile runabout.

Mr. H. H. Chandler has rented his house to Mr. Lusch, of Chicago, who occupied it last summer.

WANTED—Man to do gardening and work about the house. Permanent place. Call this office.

Editor Hartman of the Lake Forest Forester was in the city the early part of the week.

Mrs. Henry Boemer of Wheeling has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Tillman.

Mr. Adolph Nelson is building on his lot next to Judge Ewing on St. John's Avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald and little daughter Willet are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strieben for a time.

Mr. Flint Drew is home for a short time from Davenport, Iowa.

FOR SALE—Fine Studebaker station wagon, in good condition. Call this office. 3-30-2

Mr. and Mrs. William Roth returned Wednesday from St. Petersburg, Florida, where they have been for the winter.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl will hold regular Easter services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning at 10:45. This will also be the occasion of his farewell sermon which all his many friends will be anxious to hear.

Rev. Lobb will preach Sunday morning at the Baptist Church on "The Resurrection". He will also have charge of the evening services. Rev. M. F. Sanborn will be with us next Sunday. His first service will be the mid-week prayer meeting. He has been with us before and was so well liked that it is hoped we may keep him indefinitely, and after his studies at the Chicago University are finished that we may still have his services.

Rev. Eugene Fuesle will remain here as pastor for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clow spent Sunday with Mrs. Clow's relatives in Chicago.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian Church held their last all day meeting on Wednesday at the Church parlors. A good sum of money has been raised by the Society during the past year, which will be divided among different charities. A very dainty chafing dish luncheon was served.

Mrs. O. H. Morgan and the Misses Helen and Julia Morgan sailed on Thursday for Europe to spend the summer. Miss Julia Morgan visited friends in the east before joining her mother and sister. Mr. Morgan will go abroad later and join them.

Mrs. Kirby who was operated upon a week ago at the Deaconess Hospital is doing very nicely, her operation having proved successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyma Rutter have returned from their trip to St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mr. Recktenwald has purchased the house on Central Avenue occupied by Mr. L. J. Rice.

Mrs. J. L. Miller visited Mrs. Fred Frasier at her home in Chicago this week.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church met with Mrs. R. G. Evans on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Street have returned from Florida this week.

Rev. and Mrs. A. O. Pfanstiehl will be at Capt. Troxel's home for some time after he gives up the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Fletcher expect to go to Colorado soon to visit their son and daughter.

The Misses Chandler entertained a party of twelve young people at dinner on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Keyes of Evanston.

Mr. Fredrick Mains has rented the Fuessle cottage in the Exmoor sub-division and will move there soon.

Mrs. Charles Diehl has been very ill this week but is better.

Mrs. Charles W. Buckley entertained Sunday evening for Miss Madge Mariner and Mr. Norman Towne and members of their bridal party. Mr. Robert Buckley will act as best man for Mr. Towne.

Mr. E. H. Gregory has rented Mr. Arthur Purdy's house.

On Easter Sunday, special services will be held at the Ebenezer Evangelical Church. At 10:00 a. m. the Sunday School will give an Easter program and at 7:00 p. m. the Christian Endeavor Society will have charge of the services. Everyone is cordially invited to be present at both services.

Friends of Col. Daniel M. Taylor, U. S. A., who lived at the Moraine last summer, will be sorry to hear of his sudden death which took place in Augusta, Ga., on Tuesday. He was chief of the ordinance department, and a member of Gen. Carter's staff. He was a brother-in-law of Admiral Robley D. Evans and a brother of Admiral Taylor of the Navy. A widow and two daughters survive.