A Rare Opportunity

The citizens of Highland Park and the North Shore, are to have a rare opportunity on next Sabbath evening when Dr. H. Karl Kumm is to lecture on his thrilling experiences in Africa, telling the story of the opening to christianity of the world. The Sudan-as large as Europe minus Russia, with a population of from 60 to 90 millions. Dr. Kumm's work is spoken of as almost as important and thrilling as that of Livingston's. The lecture will be given in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath eve at 7:45 o'clock, finely illustrated by stereoptican views. The public is cordially invited to attend. No admission fee will be charged. He speaks to thousands in Chicago, and it is by very special arrangement that Highland Park will be privileged to hear him at home.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the city council next Tuesday evening. The proceedings of the council meeting of last Tuesday evening are omitted this week on account of lack of space, and will appear next week.

There will be a guessing social in the Baptist church parlors, on Thursday evening, March 14th. Each one is requested to wear something to represent the title of a book. There will be refreshments and lots of fun furnished for fifteen cents. Come everybody and have a guess with you and for you.

Mrs. Samuel Parliament, Miss Parliament and Master Clarence Parliament have been spending this week in Old Mexico. They expect to go to San Francisco and other points before returning.

Master Clarence McNanly gave a valentine party last Friday evening, Feb. 16, 1907, and all present had a very fine time. All declared Clarence an excellent host. Miss Alice and Master Warren O'Donnell and Miss Lily McNanly from Chicago were present.

On Monday the Doreas Society of the Presbyterian church, held an all day meeting at the church parlors. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Carleton Vail, Mrs. H. H. Doty, Miss Viola Shields, and Miss Jean Troxel.

Mrs. Mill's home was the scene of a jolly gathering on Tuesday evening. The party was planned by Miss Carroll for the young men, who board there, and was a great success, guessing games, pinning the tail on the donkey and roasting marshmallows were features of the evening. Mr. Turpin and Miss Donaldson carried off the first prize.
