

they are used, as soon as they are empty and before being used again, and shall cause all pouring cans, dippers, or other vessels used in and about the peddling or vending of milk and cream to be scalded or sterilized daily and shall cause all bottles or jars in which milk or cream is sold, offered for sale or delivered, to be washed clean and thoroughly sterilized each time they are used, as soon as they are empty and before being used again. Such person or corporation shall not use any can, bottle or other receptacle in which milk or cream or either of them has been shipped or conveyed to such person or corporation for the storage of such milk and cream or either of them, or any other article or thing, but shall cause such cans, bottles, or other receptacles to be emptied and thoroughly cleaned and dried and returned to the shipper within twenty-four hours after such person or corporation shall have received the same. The refilling of bottles or jars or any receptacle on a milk wagon is hereby expressly forbidden.

Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 6. No person or corporation shall deliver or bring into the city for sale, any milk, cream or condensed milk, or any or either of them, unless such milk, cream, or condensed milk is contained in a can or receptacle sealed with a metal seal by the shipper thereof and unless such can or receptacle shall have such seal intact at the time it is brought into the city.

No person or corporation shall sell offer or expose for sale, or dispose of or deliver to any person, any milk, cream, or condensed milk, or any or either of them, or have any milk, cream or condensed milk, or any or either of them, in his or its possession with intent to sell, offer or expose the same for sale, or to deliver the same to any person, which, such person or corporation knows of has reason to believe, was received in or brought into the city in a can or other receptacle which was not sealed or which did not have its seal intact in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Any person or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 7. It shall be the duty of the Board of Health either by themselves personally, or by the Sanitary Superintendent, or by any police officer of the said city to visit, view and inspect all places and vehicles in which milk and cream or either of them is sold or offered for sale, exposed for sale, stored, kept, exchanged, delivered or disposed of, as well as to inspect, view and examine all vessels cans, receptacles, packages, refrigerators, or compartments of any store or building, platforms, establishments or places of any kind containing milk, or cream and to ascertain or examine the condition thereof, with reference to cleanliness and sanitation and to cause the removal and abatement of any unfit, unclean or injurious condition attending the keeping storing or possession, care, custody or control of milk or cream at and in all places.

Any person or corporation failing, neglecting, delaying or refusing to obey or conform to any reasonable order or direction under this section, made by the proper officer, or who in any way hinders said officers or inspectors, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 8. The Board of Health, the Sanitary Superintendent, or any police officer authorized by the Board of Health shall have the right and power to enter and have full access to any building, structure or premises where any milk and cream or either of them is stored or kept for sale, and shall have the right of access to all wagons, railroad cars, or other vehicles of any kind used for the conveyance or delivery of milk and cream or either of them and to any building, structure or premises where he believes or has reason to believe milk and cream or either of them is stored or kept for sale and shall have the right to take samples of the milk and cream therefrom (such samples not to exceed one quart) for the purpose of inspecting, testing, or analyzing same.

Any person or corporation refusing to allow such right of entry or access or refusing to allow such samples of milk and cream to be taken, or hindering or obstructing any officer named herein in carrying out the power conferred by this section, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 9. Mixture of any two or more of the following articles of human food, whole milk, skimmed milk, cream, condensed milk and butter milk, by any person or corporation licensed under this article, is hereby prohibited, and each can or vessel containing any of the above named articles shall have painted on two sides thereof, in plain black letters not less than three inches in height and not less than six inches from the top of the can or receptacle containing such article, the name of the article therein contained. Provided however that that part of this section which applies to having the name of the article painted on the vessel containing the same, shall not apply to such articles sold in bottles. In such case the name of any of such articles when sold in bottles shall be printed, stamped, or painted clearly and legibly on the cap closing such bottles. Any person or corporation licensed under this ordinance who mixes any of the articles of human food herein named, and any person or corporation licensed under this ordinance, who sells, offers for sale any of the articles of human food herein named, in any can or other receptacle which has not printed, stamped, or painted thereon as provided herein, the name of the article contained in such can or other receptacle, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 10. No person or corporation licensed under this ordinance shall keep, sell or offer for sale, convey or deliver, or have in his or its possession, charge or control any milk in the city, if such milk contains more than eighty-eight per cent of watery fluids or less than twelve per cent of total solids or less than three per cent of butter fat. Milk tickets shall not be used but once and shall be destroyed after such use and not used again.

Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 11. No person or corporation licensed under this article shall keep, sell, or offer for sale, convey or deliver, or have in his or its possession, charge or control, any cream in the city if such cream contains less than fifteen per cent of butter fat.

Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 12. No person or corporation licensed under the provisions of this article, shall sell or offer for sale in the city any milk from which the cream or any part thereof shall have been taken unless such milk shall be offered for sale and sold by such person or corporation as skimmed milk, and no person or corporation shall have in its or his possession, charge or control with intent to sell, or offer for sale or delivery any such milk from which the cream or any part thereof shall have been taken, unless the cans or other receptacles containing such milk shall have the entire outside thereof painted a bright red, and kept so painted at all times while in use for such purposes, and such can or other receptacle shall have also painted on the outside thereof, not less than six inches from the top of such cans or other receptacles the words "Skimmed Milk" in plain black letters not less than three inches in height and one inch in width on two sides thereof. No such person or corporation shall sell, offer for sale or deliver any skimmed milk containing less than eight and five-tenths per cent of total solids other than butter fat or containing more than one per cent of butter fat.

Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 13. Whoever, by himself or by his servant or agent, or as servant, agent or employe of any other person or corporation sells, offers for sale, exchange, delivers or transports, or has in his custody, possession or control, with intent to sell, offer for sale exchange or delivery in the city, any milk, cream or skimmed milk for human food, which is unclean, diluted, impure, unwholesome, adulterated, or not of the standard provided for by this ordinance or of milk or cream, or skimmed milk to which water or any foreign substance has been added, or any skimmed milk in violation of this article, or milk or cream produced from sick or diseased cows, or from cows kept in an unclean, filthy or unhealthy condition, or from cows fed the refuse or slops from distilleries, breweries, vinegar factories, or any slops, mash, refuse or food that has been subject to fermentation, or milk or cream that has been subject to, exposed or contaminated, or affected by the discharges or exhalations from any human being or animal sick with any contagious or infectious disease, shall for a first offense be fined not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; and for each subsequent offense be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars.

SECTION 14. Any person who shall adulterate milk or cream or reduce or change it in any respect by the addition of water or any foreign or other substance, or by the removal of cream therefrom, with a view of selling, or offering for sale the same, or exchange in the city after such adulteration or change, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 15. Any person or corporation who shall in the city sell, offer for sale, deliver or transport, with intent to sell or offer for sale, or have in his or its care, custody or possession, any milk or cream containing any coloring matter, or any adulterations or preservatives, whether for the purpose of artificially increasing the quantity of the milk or cream, or for preserving the sweetness thereof, or for any purpose whatever, or any person or corporation, or any servant or agent of such person or corporation, who shall in the city sell or offer for sale for use in milk or cream, or have in his or its possession or control with the intent of so selling or offering for sale, any preservative, coloring matter or other adulteration, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense.

SECTION 16. No person or corporation shall manufacture, sell, or offer for sale in the city, any condensed or evaporated milk for domestic use, unless the same shall be put up in packages or cans upon which shall be distinctly labeled or stamped the name or brand, by whom, or under which the same is made. Nor shall any person or corporation manufacture, sell or offer for sale in the city any condensed or evaporated milk for domestic use, unless the same is manufactured from pure, fresh, unadulterated milk, from which the cream has not been removed, or unless the proportion of milk solids and butter fat contained in the condensed or evaporated milk shall in amount be the equivalent of milk solids and butter fat as provided by this article. Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the addition of cane sugar in the manufacture of condensed or evaporated milk.

SECTION 17. All milk and cream
