

this cannot be home?"
believe not al-
your being able y to these sur-ou know your ng quite perl me an equal believed at thus

me the initia-
back upon the y studying her

ur clothes you
it is that figure regiment, the t disdainful as n from head to

that a strong,
ow like you an that. There
e world worth
ter pay."

? Isn't a sol-
?"

in a way. We I suppose; but te to waste all und at $16 a sounded like a ng into her de-ngly suspected pths. "Do—do

enlisted man?"
you said you
at's what I al-I am so glad if was only going
could get you rthy's store if ys $65 and his er with open

or the moment
not that innomasked misded in regaineech, she had ing back her

she announced
ward the slight bushes. "No illy as well as your position
proved another
ave fallen, far,
l. Good-by."
rect, his cheeks
go without a m predestined
n even willing ol in the hope le to convince ave not even here; nor do I positively, reening her eyes

rners of her ighly improper
a stranger—
do that."

curiosity as to st; the thought

y conceited you
h a thing!"

easily daunted,
previous em-
presence of a y he confronted ie; those quiet raight through red sadly, yet
"Are we, then,

age 11)

ILLINOIS BUILDING, JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

Illinois Day at the Jamestown Exposition

GOVERNOR DENEEN OF ILLINOIS AND GOVERNOR
SWANSON OF VIRGINIA TO PARTICIPATE SEPT. 14.

Grand Parade and Review of All Troops on the Grounds a Feature of the Day—Dr. Edmund J. James, President of University of Illinois, to Be Chief Orator—Music, Receptions, Illuminations and Fireworks.

WHEN the clans of the great and prosperous state of Illinois set their faces toward their mother state to celebrate a day set apart for them at the Jamestown Tercentennial, they may rest assured a royal good time and a hearty reception await them. This date is Sept. 14, and if anything looking toward the entertainment of the visitors has been omitted in the arrangement of the programme those in charge are not aware of the fact. Reduced railroad rates, special trains, special military attractions, music, receptions, dinners, luncheons, addresses by famous citizens and one continued round of sightseeing and pleasure will mark the day when Illinoisans have open sesame to the great historical exposition on the waters of Hampton Roads. Illinois has a fine building there, and her citizens are proud of the magnificent location accorded them for their building site.

The official party, including Governor Charles S. Deneen, Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois; Illinois state commission, various state officers and other distinguished persons, will arrive at the exposition probably Sept. 12 and will spend Sept. 12 and 13 informally visiting the exposition.

Following is the programme of the events scheduled for Illinois day:

11:15 a. m.—Governor Deneen and official party, accompanied by the officials of the exposition company and escorted by a platoon of the Twelfth cavalry, will leave the Illinois State building and proceed to the Auditorium, where the Illinois day exercises will take place, beginning at 11:30. Hon. A. G. Tuxhorn, vice president of the Illinois state commission, presiding.

Music.
Address of welcome, Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Tercentennial exposition.

Music.
Address by his excellency Governor Claude A. Swanson of Virginia.

Music.
Response by his excellency Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois.

Music.
Address, Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, orator of the day.

Music, "Star Spangled Banner."
2 p. m.—Luncheon to the governor and official party by the exposition company.

5 p. m.—Parade (or some appropriate exercises) to be reviewed by the governor of Illinois, accompanied by Governor Swanson of Virginia, Mr. Tucker of the exposition and other distinguished persons.

9 to 11 p. m.—Reception at the Illinois State building by the Illinois state commission to the governor of Illinois and Mrs. Deneen. Admission by card only.

Open house will be held at the Illinois State building during the entire day of Sept. 14, to which the public is cordially invited.

Great interest is being shown in the celebration of Illinois state day, and it is confidently expected that large numbers of Illinoisans will be present on that day.

INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING Oiling the Roads—Kentucky Experiences.

The following is a list of chartered colleges in Illinois with the location and date of organization:

Chaddock College, Quincy.....	1903
Gem City Business College, Quincy	1893
Greenville College, Greenville.....	1892
Francis Shimer Academy, Mt. Carroll .....	1853
Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago .....	1895
Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago	1879
Bennett College of Eclectic Medicine and Surgery, Chicago.....	1867
Chicago Law School, Chicago....	1896
Ephpheta School for Deaf, Chicago	1896
Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston .....	1856
Jewish Training School, Chicago..	1891
Kenwood Institute, Chicago.....	1886
Kent College of Law, Chicago....	1888
Lewis Institute, Chicago.....	1895
Northwestern University, Evanston .....	1851
St. Ignatius College, Chicago.....	1870
University of Chicago, Chicago....	1890
University of Illinois School of Pharmacy, Chicago.....	1859
Waterman Hall, Chicago.....	1889
Elmhurst College, Elmhurst.....	1865
Northwestern College, Naperville.	1865
Wheaton College, Wheaton.....	1860
Ewing College, Ewing.....	1906
Carthage College, Carthage.....	1870
Wever Academy, Media.....	1892
Geneseo Collegiate Institute.....	1884
Grand Prairie Seminary, Onarga..	1863
Aurora College, Aurora.....	1896
St. Viator's College, Bourbonnais	1874
Hedding College, Abingdon.....	1855
Knox College, Galesburg.....	1837
Lombard College, Galesburg.....	1851
St. Mary's School, Knoxville....	1882
Dixon College and Normal School	1880
Lincoln College, Lincoln.....	1865
James Hillikin University, Decatur	1901
Bunker Hill Military Academy....	1884
Monticello Female Seminary, Godfrey .....	1840
Shurtleff College, Upper Alton....	1835
Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington .....	1850
Illinois College, Jacksonville.....	1829
Illinois Woman's College, Jacksonville .....	1847
Bradley Polytechnic, Peoria.....	1896
Augustana College, Rock Island...	1865
McKendree College, Lebanon....	1835
Bettie Stuart Institute, Springfield	1868
Concordia College, Springfield....	1848
Illinois Business College, Springfield .....	1903
Freeport College of Commerce, Freeport .....	1903
Greer Academy, Hoopston.....	1890
Vermilion Academy, Vermilion....	1874
Monmouth College, Monmouth....	1857
Northern Illinois College, Fulton..	1876
Rockford College, Rockford.....	1847
Eureka College, Eureka.....	1855

—Educational Press Bulletin.

Special Notice.

All who order telephones within thirty days will secure service without delay. Cold weather may prevent prompt attention to your order after October 15. Order before it is too late.

CHICAGO TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Jefferson county, Kentucky, is spending thousands of dollars annually in extending, improving and maintaining its magnificent road system. Nearly 500 miles of macadam roads constitute this system, thus affording easy travel the year around to hundreds of thousands of people of this and adjoining counties.

In 1906 forty-eight miles of roadway was oiled, distributed nearly equally throughout the various magisterial districts; this year probably double that number of miles will be treated.

The material being used this year is asphaltoline, a specially-prepared product from Kentucky, heavy crude oil from which all the naphtha and other light properties have been removed, and contains not less than 65 per cent of maltha, or petroleum asphalt; it is applied with the "white oiling" apparatus, which being equipped with four sets of valves, makes it possible to regulate the flow according to the judgment of the operator, thus preventing waste and insuring uniform distribution.

This material and method of application was introduced in Jefferson county last year, and having met the approval of the fiscal court and public, it was determined to continue it.

Some of the good features of asphaltoline are that it renders the roadway dustless and waterproof, by binding the particles to the surface.

It prevents raveling.
It doubles the life of the road, saving its cost over and over.

It forms an elastic cushion for the tread of horses and vehicles.

It makes residence on a macadam road a luxury, that, without it, would be unbearable.

It renders a road sanitary, destroying all germs and dangerous organisms that may be deposited on the surface.

Asphaltoline will not injure rubber tires, because the naphtha or rubber solvent has been removed.—American Highways, Sept., 1907.

Where Kipling Got His Wit.

Rudyard Kipling undoubtedly got his wit from his maternal grandfather, the Rev. George B. Macdonald, a Wesleyan clergyman. In the days when young Macdonald was courting the lady whom he afterward married, the father-in-law to be—an aged Methodist with extremely strict notions in regard to the proprieties—was injudicious on one occasion to enter the parlor without giving any warning of his approach. The consequence was that he found the sweethearts occupying a single chair. Deeply shocked by this spectacle, the old man solemnly said: "Mr. Macdonald, when I courted Mrs. Brown she sat on one side of the room and I on the other." Macdonald's reply was: "That's what I should have done if I had been courting Mrs. Brown."—Woman's National Daily.

On seeing the falls for the first time, little Joe remarked inquiringly: "Mamma, doesn't the Lord ever turn the faucet off?"