

Glencoe—Continued)

Dr. Patton's little son, John Phillip, who has been ill, is improving.

The new addition to the schoolhouse is progressing finely. Glencoe has something to be proud of in her school buildings, as well as in her efficient corps of teachers.

Mr. Douglas Allison returned last Tuesday evening from Muskoka, Canada. Mrs. Chas. Allison is expected home Saturday from the East, where she has been spending the summer.

The Missionary Society of the Congregational church had a very pleasant and profitable meeting at the church parlors last Tuesday. Madam Sayles led the devotional exercises. Mrs. B. D. Nichols gave a review quiz on the Hawaii Islands; Mrs. A. G. Bennett described, in a very interesting talk, the Fiji Islands, the natives, and their customs; Mrs. Goodspeed narrated the life of James Calvert, and brought to the minds of her hearers the wonderful effects of his preaching.

Refreshments were served, and with a genuine old grate fire, nothing was lacking to the general comfort and enjoyment of the twenty-six ladies present.

Dr. J. C. Armstrong, superintendent of the City Missionary Society of Chicago, filled the pulpit of Rev. Dr. Darling last Sunday morning. The theme of his sermon was city missions. Mr. Armstrong has been at the head of the society ever since its conception, twenty-five years ago. A special collection was taken for the benefit of the work.

Father's Matrimonial Plan.

A successful business man, and the proud father of several daughters, was endeavoring to find out a certain young man's intentions in visiting his house.

"Yes," said the old man, "I am proud of my girls, and would like to see them comfortably married. I have made a little money, and they will not go to their husbands penniless. There's Mary, twenty-five years old, and a real good girl. I shall give her $5,000 when she marries; then comes Bet, who won't see thirty-five again, and I shall give her $10,000; and the man who takes Eliza, who is forty, will have $15,000 with her. Ahem!"

The young man reflected a moment or so, and then inquired: "You haven't got one about fifty, have you?"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Stage Qualifications.

Mrs. Kendal, the well-known actress, has said that, in order to become a good actress, one "must have the temper of an angel, the figure of a Greek statue, the face of a goddess, and the skin of a rhinoceros."

A woman who was riding in a tram-car in Kelvinside, Glasgow, had her baby with her, whose name was George. The baby was crying, and the woman was "bobbing" it up and down. On the car coming to George's Cross, the conductor, looking into the car, cried: "George's Cross!" The woman, turning round, said indignantly: "You'd be cross, too, if you were cutting your teeth!"—From Daylight, England.

An English paper says that a Yankee was pouring his grievances into the worried ears of the guard of a railway train who remonstrated. "Speed!" exclaimed the irate guard; "do you want the blessed train to fly, hang you! Anyway, if this speed don't please you, why don't you get out and walk?" Not for a moment did the Yankee hesitate. Quick as an arrow from a bow came the reply, in quiet, suave tones—"Walk! Oh, I'm not in such a hurry as all that!"
