

THE JUBILEE OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, has entered his fiftieth year, his birthday having occurred on Sunday, October 27th.

President Roosevelt spent his birthday in a much the same orthodox fashion as other Sundays. He attended church in the morning, spent an hour or two at his office and then took an afternoon ride on horseback.

Congratulations formed a large part of his Sunday mail.