HIGHWOOD ITEMS.

There will be preaching and good music at the M. E. Church Thanksgiving evening.

The Junior League will have an interesting program the 24th at 2:30 p. m.

We are sorry to have to record the death and burial of Mrs. Hughes, the aged mother of Mrs. David Morren. She was one who "fought the good fight," and ever "kept the faith." From the lines upon the face of the clay tenement which had been moulded by the soul within, there could be traced peace, resignation, and the expression of a high purpose which, wrought into many deeds, not recorded here and perhaps forgotten by man have, we trust, illumined the faces of the heavenly host and given her a bright welcome into the "Better Land."

The Ladies' Aid will meet at Mrs. Stemsohn's and each member will contribute a dollar earned, relating her experience in rhyme. Their dolls are nearly dressed and ready for the bazaar to be held December 14th.

Mr. Wm. Davis was attacked on the 16th inst. with a severe second stroke of paralysis.

Dialogue—Query: Is Highwood asleep?
Answer: No. Q. Is the lid on? A. Yes.
Q. When is it on? A. On Sundays.
R. Is it on tight? (Echo) A. On tight?

DRAMATIC NOTES.

North Shore people are generally interested in anything relating to Donald Robertson and his company. A movement is on foot to permanently locate them in Chicago so that they may occupy a similar position in dramatic art that Theodore Thomas held in music and a guarantee fund of $5,000 is being raised for the use of the theatre for the next twenty weeks of the season. Mr. Albert G. Beaunisne who is the business manager of the Chicago Daily News is the responsible head of the movement.

THE GARRICK.

At the Garrick Theater, Chicago, "Fascinating Flora," the latest success of that famous lyric playhouse, the Casino in New York, has won tremendous popularity. The play was originally produced in New York and ran at the Casino for five months. It is now making its first road appearance at the Garrick where it remains for one week more with the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees and an extra afternoon performance Thanksgiving Day.

The cast engaged is headed by Adele Ritchie who appears in the name part of the piece. Miss Ritchie has always been deservedly popular with Chicago theatergoers. In "Fascinating Flora" Miss Ritchie comes forth with talents that mark her as one of our foremost comediennes. She puts into the characterization a spirit of comedy that is simply delicious and her several songs are rendered with intelligent effect. The cast in support includes George A. Schiller, James E. Sullivan, Ada Lewis, Frank Rushworth, Sam Edwards, Helen Royton, F. W. Shea, and Sadie Jansoll.

BY THEIR WORKS THEY MAY BE KNOWN.

"Who lives in yonder mansion with the tall, white columns?"

"That is the home of Trashleigh. You have heard of Trashleigh, of course?"

"I don't believe I ever have. What is his business?"

"He is a book publisher. He puts out all these books that have pictures of pretty girls on the covers—the kind, you know, that deal with New York society or are about princesses who elope with young American diplomats. They say he has cleaned up something like $1,000,000 during the last five years."

"Well, he certainly has a fine place. A prince might well be proud of it. What a pity it is that somebody doesn't buy the poor little shanty next to it and put up a fine residence there."

"Yes. It would be a big improvement if that were done. That is the home of another publisher, Horatio Preston."

"Preston? I never heard of him."

"No; he doesn't amount to much. He makes a specialty of literature, and it isn't likely that he could afford to live in that poor little shack even, if two of his daughters didn't help out by teaching school."

AT A MERELY NOMINAL EXPENSE

And generally without any trouble or annoyance a few sockets may be put in for table or stand lamps—if your house is not already wired throughout. It is a distinct advantage in point of economy and attractiveness. Let us talk to you about this feature as a starter and leave the general use of electricity until later, if you prefer. Call Highland Park 68 for any information you may desire.

An actor and a poet were indicted on the same day last week in St. Louis. At that rate the country will soon acquire a much better opinion of that town.
