

HIGHLAND PARK ITEMS.

Mrs. Catherine James is spending the holidays with relatives in Ohio.

Mr. Chas. Baker and family leave Chicago this week for Biloxi, Miss., where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. R. Ives, of St. John's Place, has returned to her home in Shawnee, Oklahoma, for the holidays.

Miss Wooster is visiting relatives in Urbana, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Putnam entertained Mr. Putnam's parents of Chicago, Dec. 25th.

Mr. Everts Wrenn and family were guests of Mrs. Charles Schaffer, over Christmas.

The Grigsby Chandlers of Chicago, were guests of Miss Gertrude Chandler of Hazel avenue, Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green, entertained a large party of relatives and friends at Christmas dinner, among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mrs. Morrison and son, Dr. Freda Baker of Ravenswood, and Dr. "Mack" Baker, of Chicago.

Miss Cecil Vail gave a very enjoyable sleighing party last Friday evening, after which refreshments were served at Monahan's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings and daughter Elwyn, of Wilmette, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Phillips.

Mrs. K. C. Smoot, Miss Emma Smoot, and Mrs. Eyer, will leave for California after the holidays.

A fraternity dance was given at the Highland Park Club House Monday night, at which Mrs. Vail was hostess, and Mrs. Vail also entertained at dinner for the out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Barber Brown and daughter, Miss Lydia Brown, of Lake Forest, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Schumacher.

Madam Rutter of Philadelphia, formerly of the Park, is spending the holidays with her son, Mr. L. R. Rutter, of Rose Terrace, Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClear of Chicago, and Mrs. Jack McDonald of Evanston, spent Christmas day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nevins.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Deane of Chicago, spent Christmas day with their sister, Miss E. W. Towner.

Mrs. L. A. Trevett of St. John's Place, expects to leave soon, for an extended visit to Joliet.

Mrs. Bender of first street, was called to Michigan by the illness of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Flynn of Oberlin, Ohio, are visiting friends in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Clow, second street, are spending the holidays at Crystal lake.

Mr. Wm. C. Egan and family, with Mr. Diehl and son, spent the Christmas with friends in Evanston.

The Children's party given by the Woman's club, will be given at the club rooms Tuesday afternoon, instead of the evening. Do not forget it.

On account of a serious cold, Dr. Thomas was unable to take his place at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. The Christmas sermon was preached by the Rev. Wm. Burgess. Dr. Thomas has recovered, and will preach the New Year's sermon next Sunday.

The editor spent Christmas day with his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Schlagel, in Chicago, and incidentally visited a number of his old parishioners of the Park Manor Congregational church.

We should be pleased to publish the doings of the churches from time to time, but we have no means of getting to know just what took place. For instance at the various Christmas entertainments in Highland Park. If each church would see that we were supplied with its movements, we would do our part.

Mr. W. C. Loyd left last week for a couple of weeks to be spent at his home, in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Elson Rice has been ill with the gripp for a few weeks.

Herbert Ross of Evanston, was the guest of Mrs. J. L. Miller, on Tuesday.

Mr. C. W. Kirk of New York, entertained Mr. Charles Streiber in New York, when Mr. Streiber was enroute for his home in Germany, for the holidays.

Mr. George Bock closed his store on Friday and Saturday, on account of the death of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock gave a house party over Christmas.

The Epworth League of the Highwood M. E. Church, gave a party on Saturday evening, at the home of Miss Ella Davis.

Mrs. H. C. Street is very ill, and threatened with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larson, gave a dinner on Wednesday to their joint relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirby, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Briault.

Miss Alice Evans is sick with pneumonia.

The clerks and carriers of the post-office deserve great credit for remaining on duty all day Christmas, in order to deliver mail which arrived too late for delivery the day before.

Mrs. George Brown gave a Christmas dinner to intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fitzgerald and daughter, spent Christmas day with Mrs. Charles Streiber.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine, and Mr. and Mrs. George Millard, were the guests of Mrs. Millard's father and mother, for Christmas dinner.

The Christmas entertainment at the Baptist church was Christmas night.

At the United Evangelical church, the Christmas program was on Christmas eve, and was enjoyed by members and friends.

It has been reported that Mayor Alex. Robertson was held up and relieved of his beautiful watch. However, this is not the case, as Mr. Robertson is still in possession of his handsome gift.

As we go to press we note the fact that Mr. Albert Bock died as the result of an operation at the Augustine Hospital on Thursday evening. Mr. Bock was much esteemed citizen of this city and served for many years very honorably in the capacity of gre marshal.

He was born in Germany in 1838. He was brought to this country when one year old and lived in the state of New York up to the time of the war, when he enlisted as a Union soldier and went South with the army. After the War he came to Chicago, where he remained two years. He then settled permanently in Highland Park.

The funeral services will be held at the house at 1:30 to-day Saturday.

Mr. Hibbard was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luther for Christmas dinner.

Miss Adelaide Inman is here for the holidays from Ann Arbor.

Mr. William Geer of Williamsburg College, is spending the vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Geer.

Mr. William Overill is in town for a few weeks.

Master Newton Maechtle, son of Mr. Henry Meckley, is sick with the gripp.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Young of Chicago spent Christmas with Mrs. Young's brother, Mr. Henry Maechtle. The other guests at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Archer Fitzgerald of Maywood and daughter, and Mrs. Chas. Streiber.

Mr. and Mrs. Masterson of 251 1/2 Walnut St. Chicago spent Christmas with his parents at Lake Forest. Mrs. Masterson was formerly Miss Alma Streiber of this city.

Miss Olga Taylor of Kemper Hall, is sick with the chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evans spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Evans.

William Woodcock, infant son of C. B. Woodcock, of 341 Linden avenue, gave his first Christmas party last Wednesday. His Christmas tree was a novel one, and quite original, as his mother procured a green one with roots to be planted next year on their lawn.

DEERFIELD ITEMS.

Town Officers: John C. Ender president; trustees, John P. Schneider, George Rockenbach, H. Juhrend, Charles Selig, P. Rommel, C. W. Pettis, Bert Bly, Clerk.

The Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church, held its annual Christmas entertainment on Monday evening. The spirit which characterizes the whole affair was that of giving. Each class had previously decided upon some article to bring on Monday evening as an offering to the poor of Chicago. Each member of the class came with the chosen article, and when the name of the class was called off, the members marched forward and deposited their contribution. The gifts ranged all the way from stocking caps to chickens. Two bushels of apples were offered and the collection taken amounted to $22.47. The money and the various other things contributed was sent the next day to the Olivet Mission in Chicago.

C. W. Pettis and family ate Christmas dinner with Geo. Pettis and family.

On Tuesday evening the St. Paul Lutheran church held its Christmas exercises. On the Christmas tree standing in the front of the church were gifts which were distributed during the evening.

J. C. Wolff is getting settled in his new home in the north part of town.

Mrs. Todd and son spent Christmas day in Wilmette.

The pupils of the Deerfield public school are enjoying a two weeks vacation, beginning on Dec. 21, and ending Jan. 6.

Rev. Joel Lininger has been chosen by the Presbyterian church to become its permanent pastor, preaching his first sermon as such on last Sunday. During the last four months the pulpit has been occupied by different preachers supplied from Sunday to Sunday.

The Christmas exercises at the Methodist church had for their principal feature a Christmas cantata, which was a marked success in every way.

Mr. Ed. Brown, traveling salesman for a Chicago business house, is visiting the home of his sister, Mrs. H. R. Weaver.

PETER BAKER

Gravel Roofing and Repairing and all Kinds of Paper Roofing.

Waterproof Roof Coating for preserving shingle and metal roofs. Guaranteed to render old shingles water tight and durable for years. It also prevents new shingles from warping and cracking. Specifications for repairing and painting shingle roofs. Lake Forrest, Ill. Telephone 1581.

Highland Park State Bank

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS

You are hereby notified that the regular annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Highland Park State Bank for the election of Directors for the ensuing year will be held at the Banking House of the bank on Saturday, January 11th, 1908, (being the second Saturday in January), between the hours of four p. m. and 6 p. m.

D. A. Holmes, Cashier

WHY USE OIL LAMPS

When electricity is so much cleaner and more convenient? There is no soot or odor and no need of matches. For decorative effects in the house electric light surpasses any other form of illumination. It is the most desirable light—from every point of view.