

burial at Lake Forest. He was eighty-six years of age and his wife survives him.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Grace Garbolet to Mr. Frank Braune, of Chicago, on July 11, 1907, is now received.

Mrs. Boylies has been sick with the grippe.

Mrs. Wiches gave a bridge party on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Naumen, of Blue Island, are the happy parents of a boy born on Jan. 7th. Mrs. Naumen was formerly Miss Dillie Nevins and her many friends send congratulations.

James Broderick of Chicago came out on Saturday to attend the party of Mattie Ingersoll and he returned home on Monday.

The mystic workers held their annual installation of officers on Tuesday evening. The officers for the ensuing year are: Prefect, J. P. Klein; Monitor, Mrs. Roebeling; Secretary, Fred. R. Moon; Banker, George L. Brand; Marshall, Mrs. George Conrad; Warder, Mr. Roebeling; Sentinel, Mr. F. J. Boerst. Refreshments were served and a general good time is reported.

Mrs. John Ball has the grippe.

Mrs. Daniel Meade, twin daughters Dot and Dimple and the baby, left on Wednesday to return to their home in Delhant, Texas, after making Mrs. Holibird quite a visit.

Mr. Charles C. Pickett will speak on Tuesday at the Woman's Club, the subject being, "The Present State of the Arts and Crafts Movement."

Mr. Henry Juhrend of Bloom street died on Monday, January 13th, at the age of 53. He had been an invalid for a long time and while sick with pneumonia was taken with a paralytic stroke which caused his death. The services were at Deerfield and the body was interred at that place. His wife and seven children mourn his death. The widow of the late Mr. H. J. Juhrend and their children desire to express their gratitude to the many friends who sent flowers and tokens of sympathy in their late bereavement.

THE FECIT CLUB SKATING RINK.—Mrs. Van Schaick and Mr. Hay have very generously allowed the Fecit Club the use of the old rink at 500 Vine ave. Mayor Robertson and the City Council have furnished water free for flooding it, and the Fecit boys are looking forward to some happy days. They have built with their own hands a house 12x16 feet as a shelter and dressing room, and are now busy selling tickets. Single admission is only 10 cents. Single season tickets cost $1.00. Family season tickets cost $3.00. As Ravinia Park is not open for skating this year, the Fecit Club Rink ought to be exceedingly popular. The Fecit Hocking Team expects to play several competitive games at the Rink.

It is not generally known that the Craftsman's Guild Shop at 7 Vine avenue, is the best equipped carpenter's shop between Evanston and North Chicago. They operate a rip saw, a large band saw, a jig saw, a power turning lathe, a sanding machine and a heavy mortising machine weighing more than a ton. Their hand tools are modern and labor saving. Three electric motes furnish power.

Now that the holiday rush is over the Guild is able to do mill work for North Shore carpenters at reasonable prices. They have just got out an order of wooden broad swords for the officers club at Fort Sheridan. The Chicago retail shop of the Craftsman's Guild, at 314 Wabash avenue, The Auditorium Building reports a large Christmas sale.

Mr. George E. Park, who has been working at the Craftsman's Guild Shop has now received his appointment as Instructor in Manual Training in the New Hoyne High School in Chicago, and began work this week. He will continue to live in Highland Park.

Professor F. O. Grover of Oberlin College, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Grover. On his return he took Francis Grover for a visit at his home in Oberlin, Ohio.

Miss Sara Hamilton Birchall of Highland Park, has an interesting article entitled, "The Man Who Arrives" in the January issue of "Reader Magazine."

strong story entitled "Keep Off The Graft" in the Saturday Evening Post for December 28. The story told how large fortunes are built upon small salaries. Mr. Hyde is editor of that stimulating magazine "The Technical World."

The Rev. Dr. Thomas will preach at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning at 10:30. The following special numbers will be rendered by the quartette.

Te Deum SHELLEY.
Even Me WARREN.
O Taste and See GOSS.

The Woman's Relief and Aid Society met on Saturday with the Vice President, Mrs. Gertrude Chandler, Hazel avenue, to finish the business of the annual meeting. The officers are, President, Mrs. H. A. Davidson; 1st. Vice President, Miss Gertrude Chandler; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. J. W. Prindiville; 3d. Vice President, H. H. Doty. Secretary, Mrs. H. P. Luther; Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. M. Dooley. Visitors—1st Ward, Mrs. H. Mills and Mrs. F. M. Terry. 2nd Ward Mrs. E. Green, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. O. L. Oleson. 3rd. Ward, Mrs. L. M. Bergen, Mrs. Samuel Levin, Mrs. Chas. Warren, Mrs. H. B. Roberts.

The society is doing good work in this city, and asks the support of those who are willing to aid in uplifting families who have been unfortunate through sickness or trouble of any kind and who needs present help. Encouragement and a little financial help for a short time, has helped many persons to right living. The ladies try to do this work quietly that they may accomplish their purpose. Any lady may become a member by paying 50 cents.

Revival services continue at the First United Evangelical church, Green Bay and Laurel avenues. Rev. J. F. Van Evert preaches during the coming week. Meetings at 7:45 p. m.

One of the joliest leap-year affairs of the season was the sleigh-ride to Lake Forest, given on Tuesday evening by the "Hello" girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Feny gave a birthday party in honor of their daughter, Mattie Ingersoll, January 11th, 1898. Between thirty and thirty-five guests were present among them were friends from Chicago and Waukegan, and all spent a very pleasant evening.

The girls of Ferry Hall gave a sleighing party on Tuesday. While stopping here for refreshments they noticed the sign in Mr. Larson's window "Girls Wanted". As a joke they all answered and unexpectedly met with joke. For Mr. Levin and Mr. Larson perceiving they were not really candidates for the position asked them the most absurd questions imaginable as might be expected from the above gentlemen. Their beauty was commented upon, the measurements of their hands taken and finally they were asked to call again at ten o'clock and interview the foreman Mr. Wm Lowrie. As it was reported to Mr. Lowrie that these girls were remarkably pretty, he waited until the wee hours for them to return but they did not put in any appearance again.

Mr. and Mrs. Hepburn are the happy parents of a baby boy born on January 3. Mrs. Hepburn was formerly Miss Ethel Stupey.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson leave Saturday for New York City where Mrs. McPherson sister Mrs. Henry Johnson is very ill.

Mrs. P. L. Wickes, South Sheridan Road entertained at bridge whist, Thurs-

Last Saturday evening twenty young people tendered a surprise party to Miss Anna Ogard of West Central Avenue.

Mr. A. C. Gipp is confined to the house by a severe attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Chas. True, of South Highland Park, entertained at luncheon last Saturday.

Miss Marjorie Aldridge returned last Tuesday from a three weeks' visit in Madison, Wis.

Mrs. L. C. Whitman, of Chicago, spent the week end visiting in Ravinia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Eager, of Sheridan Park, were guests of Mrs. Aldridge last Sunday.

Mrs. J. Higgins, of Chicago, visited friends here this week.

Miss M. Aldridge entertained a few friends informally Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell and children, of Garfield Park, spent last Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. James Grant.

Mr. Wm. Burke, of Birmingham, Ala., visited friends here this week.

Mrs. W. Louderback, of Morhine Road, gave a bridge whist party for the benefit of Illinois Home of the Children's Aid Society at Evanston.

A library institute will be held at the Adams Memorial library, at Wheaton, Illinois, January 24th, to which all those who are interested in libraries are invited. The morning session will be devoted to a discussion of library administration. The afternoon session, to book selection and work with clubs and schools. At the institute the following will be delivered by Alice S. Tayer, Secretary of the Iowa library commission, on "The place of the Library in a Community." There will be an informal discussion of the subject of State supervision of library extension.

BANQUET FOR THE JUNIORS.—The Presbyterian Junior Club were entertained at a banquet given by Mrs. F. M. Steele on Tuesday evening, January 14th. The affair was one of great pleasure to all concerned. Seventeen boys were present and the following gentlemen also set down to the dinner with them. Mr. F. M. Steele presided, and Mr. Raymond Lovell, Mr. C. E. Schauffler, Mr. G. P. Greene. Mr. Sidley of Winnetka. All these gentlemen and several of the boys made after dinner speeches. Goodrich Schauffler is President of the club, and other officers are Lovell Underwood, Weston Waldo, Leslie Grant, Robert Bacon and Billy Cregier.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S MATINEE. By special request Dr. Burton McDowell will give a Saturday afternoon matinee for school children. The subject chosen is "Panama" which is probably the most intensely interesting lecture of the series.

MURRAY & TERRY want your houses, furnished or vacant for 1908. Season customers now waiting. Have $3000 to loan in small amounts on clear real estate. Office opposite depot, Highland Park, also 108 Dearborn St., Chicago.

OUR JAPANESE WARE still remains in rare variety.

VALENTINE season is nearly here and I have the best of every kind.

THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS latest numbers now on sale. MRS. G. BOHL.

A number of young people from here attended a lecture at the High school on a Friday night.

Malcomb Dickinson visited Edith Pettis last week.

Mrs. Pettis gave a party on last Saturday night in honor of her daughter, Edith, it being her seventeenth birthday. About twenty-five persons were present. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments were served. Miss Edith received many useful and beautiful presents. The guests departed at eleven, after having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Quite a number of the High school students are complaining of sore arms from vaccination. The board of health of Highland Park have requested that all students present a certificate of vaccination.

A dance was held in Anderson's Hall on Saturday night, January 11. This was the first one of the season and was well attended by the people from the neighboring towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Vetter and son John are recovering from an attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Mau is suffering with pneumonia.

Viola Rockenbach is sick with quinsy sore throat.

Mrs. Vant and daughter, Hazel, were in Waukegan Tuesday.

HIGHWOOD NEWS

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Pastor—J. C. Walker.
Sunday School—10 a. m.
Morning Services—11 a. m.
Junior League—2 p. m.
Epworth League—7:30 p. m.
Evening Services—7:30 p. m.
Wednesday Prayer Services—7:30 p. m.
Aid Society—1st. and 3rd. Thursday of the month.

All employes at Fort Sheridan have been vaccinated this week due to the presence of one small pox case at Highwood.

Revival meetings are in progress at the M. E. church at Highwood. They are having good attendance and fine service.

Mrs. Laurel Sobey sang a solo very beautifully at the revival meeting of the Highwood M. E. Church last week.

Mr. A. S. Green left last week Thursday for a three weeks' stay in Cuba.

Miss Hazel Stoker, returned Monday of last week, from a ten days visit in Racine and Milwaukee.