Every member of the class should be on at least one committee and be assigned to some special work. "What is every one's business is no one's business."

The center and mainspring of all religion is accomplished by the work of the committee

All true lovers of the Master are willing to work, if only a specific object is to be accomplished and the responsibility is assigned to the class member.

It is hoped that each School in the Country will have one or more well organized classes actively engaged in the Master's work before the next County Convention.

"There was a strange man here to see you to-day, papa," said little Ethel, as she ran to meet her father in the hall. "Did he have a bill?" "No, papa; he had just a plain nose."

A man sent this answer to a bookseller who sent in his account for a book some time before delivered: "I never ordered the book. If I did, you did not send it. If I got it, I paid for it. If I didn't, I won't."

A visitor to Boston Common, pausing at a gathering of socialists, heard the peroration of a fluent speech: "When these principles are triumphant, we shall have comfort and happiness from Canada to Mexico, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from Alpha to Omega!"

"Nothing ever suits her. She ain't had no more troubles to bear than the rest of us; but you never see her that she didn't have a chapter to lay before ye. I've got's much feelin' as the next one; but, when folks drives in their spiggits and wants to draw a bucketful of compassion every day, right straight 'long, there does come times when it seems as if the bar'l was getting low."—Sarah Orne Jewett.
