Many people in the North think and say that warm weather in the winter is untimely and unwholesome, and yet they will go to North Carolina and spend large sums to find and enjoy a climate of exactly the same

The old-time revivalist often possessed a gift of satire. At a Maine camp-meeting a young man made himself so obnoxious that the old preacher rounded off a sentence rather abruptly. "Now, Lord," he continued without a trace of irritation, "we pray that Thou wilt in the mightiness of Thy power take that young man in the fourth seat and make his heart as free from sin as his head is from sense."

"Well, and we'll not get Home Rule for Ould Ireland, and Ireland a nation," said an Irishman, "till France and Russia and Germany, and maybe Austria, Italy and the United States, give those blackguards of Englishmen a good hiding." Then, after a pause, he added, in a proud whisper: "and the whole lot of them shoved together couldn't do it. Oh, it's the grand navy we've got!"—From the Duke of Argyll's Recollections.
