"I am willing to do anything," said the applicant for work. "All right," said the hard hearted merchant; "please close the door behind you when you go out."

"You're rather a young man to be left in charge of a chemists shop," said the fussy old gentleman. "Have you any diploma?" "Why-er-no, sir," replied the new assistant, "but we have a preparation of our own that's just as good."

"There is one sign that could be placed over every letter box in the city." "What is that?" "Post no bills."
