Fighland Dark News

Mr. M. Hecht of Chicago called on friends here this week.

Miss Marjorie Cox of Evanston visited friends in the Park, last week.

Dont forget to attend the meeting the Civics Club next Saturday.

Mr. A. R. Williams attended a card party at Lake Forest on Monday.

Miss Anna Ogard of Second street has gone to Milwaukee for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John McQuistin have been visiting their mother, Madam Green.

Mr. George Roberts and family will close their house on Sheridan Road and board for the winter.

Mr. Rooney of Superior, Wisconsin paid a short visit to his cousin, Mrs. Fred Greenslade, this week.

Mr. John Evans of Columbus, Ohio has been a guest of his brothers, Mr. F. M. Evans and R. G. Evans, folks attended an old tashioned barn seeing and business. party at Lake Bluff on Halloween.

Mr. E. L. Webster moved his bicycle repairing shop fifty feet further north on the same side of the road, this week.

Mrs. F. Terry of Elm Place and Second street was the victim of a Halloween surprise party last Saturday evening.

There will be no services in the Bap tist Church on Sunday. The building will not be ready for reopening for another week.

RAVINIA: - Out of town guests were en tertained with luncheon on Nov. 7, giv en by Mrs. Thomas Wilder. Covers were laid for eight.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Pickering of Chicago, have taken possession of their new house recently finished by Mr. F. D. Everett, on Linden avenue.

Mrs. Evarts Wrenn and son, Master Manville Wrenn spent Saturday and Sun-E. Schauffler of Oakwood avenue.

The members of the Highland Park St., Chicago. Club enjoyed a game of indoor base ball at the Club house on Tuesday evening while awaiting the election returns printing trade. Apply North Shore News tures are beautiful. Letter office, Highland Park.

Hoy, who have been staying at the Mor- to his bed for nearly five weeks. The noon. "The Virginia" last Monday.

Was it Taft winning or Bryan losing that caused a man to water his automobile plain booze. "The horse wont drink".

The beautiful Dark Blue monument cordially welcome. erected at the grave of Mr. Jas. Golden, by Mrs. James Golden is a fine piece of work being a credit both to the cemetary at Everetts and Wm. E. Salyards, the maker of the same.

In response to many requests our rethe Library officials, and now is able to state publicly that the Library is open from two to five o'clock every day except Sunday and from seven until nine Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

The North Shore Federated W. C. 7 U., will meet Tuesday, Nov. 10th, at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. E. S. Wells, Illinois avenue, Lake Forest, Ill. Mrs. Just, County President will give her report of the State Convention. It is hoped all members will be present.

The Executive Committee of the class Honor fund for Friday evening Nov. 13. Tickets are one dollar a couple and can be procured of the Treasurer of the Class, Miss Gertrude Nevins, at the High Club House, given by Mr. and Mrs. F. School.

Secretary, and Treasurer, Mrs G A Wat- Carver, Pianist; Wm. George Roberts

cer, Mrs E F Carry, Mrs G A Mason, Childs, Wm. K. Sidley, C. A. Hill, E. F R McMullin, Miss E W Towner.

week but is able to be out again.

erly lived at 117 Bloom street moved to Margaret Conklin. Chicago this week.

Mr. W. G. Riddick is erecting a fine new press block house on Skokie avenue west of Green Bay Road.

Mr. Chas. McNeil moved his future home to its permanent location on Deerfield avenue, this week.

Mr. Frank Evans is building a new brick house on Skokie avenue west of Arthur St. Peter's houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Clinton moved this week into Mr. Walter Bortleet's flat no. 117 Bloom street.

Mr. Frank Smith who has been ill for some time with typhoid fever is convalescing but was not able to go and vote.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lowrie are the happy parents of a bouncing baby boy. The lad arrived on Wednesday evening. Mr. W. E. Brand cast his vote for our future president, on Tuesday and then A number of Highland Park young took the train to Texas on a trip of sight The West Side Eucher Club have reorganized for the winter and its first meet-the residence of Mrs. Herman Denzel. bungaloa on North Green Bay Road, at three o'clock, Mr. Chas. Mathias an purchased at this place. residence on Sheridan Road near Linden led a life of exceptionally good habits avenue to cost from twelve to fourteen and saved money, but failure in a busithousand dollars. Mr. Charles J. Streiber ness speculation left him practically paper only twelve ears old should is the controctor.

1908. The committee in charge cordially invites the attendance of the public.

See Murray & Terry for beautiful Exmoor lots, fine trees, all improvements day of last week with her sister, Mrs. C. in. Extremely low prices and very easy terms. Office, Green's News Store, Highland Park, and office 108 Dearborn America at the Ravinia Park Theatre C. Locy of Evanston presiding. WANTED:-Boy wanted, a good open- afternoon matinee and evening. The Mrs. B. A. Green, who was present at ing for a lad that wants to learn the lectures abound in interest and the pic- the laying of the corner stone a year ago, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoy, and Miss a severe illness which has confined him enthusiastically to work that same afterhim on his recovery.

at Thirty-sixth street a week ago in Chi- for the needs of the Home A large part cago, has been identified as that of W. of this was on the furnishing fund. A. formerly a hotelkeeper at Waukegan. | Sixty-five ladies gathered for luncheon found on his body. There were no marks ling, and later listened to a brief address porter of the News-Letter has hunted up of violence. A coroner's jury decided by Prof. Willard E. Hotchkiss, of the that death was accidental.

a number of invited guests and a very tant field of child helping, which lies so speaking. Being so close on the eve of The best work that can be had is none election a ballot was taken as to who too good, for the end in view is the life should be the next President. The three of the nation. candidates Taft, Bryan and Chafin were | 1 The Board eleced the following officers represented by R. M. Burgess, C. F. for the coming year. Grant and Albert Larson respectively. President, Mrs. Wm. A. Locy; 1st. Larson was truly a woman's rights man Vice President, Mrs. Chas. Dawes; 2nd. and playing upon the fact that a great Vice President, Mrs. D. J. Harris; 3rd. many ladies were present he convinced Vice President, Mrs. John C. Cary; 4th. of 1907 announces a subscription dance them that Chafin would give them their Vice President, Mrs. R. C. Lake; 5th. for the benefit of the 1907 Medal of rights and his candidate was elected by Vice President, Mrs. J. W. Keplar; Rea big majority.

The musicale at the Highland Park M. Steele in honor of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. The Officers of the Ossuli Club this Childs occurs this Friday evening as we year are-President, Mrs. E W Spen- go to press. It promises to be a brilliant cer; Vice President. Mrs E F Cary; social affair. Artists:-Miss Priscilla Mrs. H. H. Chandler. Jones, violinist; Dr. Hugh Schussler, Board of Directors: -Mrs E W Spen- vocalist; assisting Mesdames Robt. A. Mrs H S Vail, Mrs H B Roberts, Mrs F. Pratt, Geo. U. Pratt, Wm. P. Sidley, Edwin L. Baker, Thos. H. Sidley, C. Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt.

Mr. A. W. Fletcher has been ill this P. Goodson; Misses Mabelle Horlick, Priscilla Carver, Helen Messinger, Julie P. Morgan, Katherine Marsh, Adaline Mr. and Mrs. Ross Skelton who form- Lobdell, Jessie Orton, Helen Roberts,

> The Highland Park Club has issued invitations to a musical ewhich will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, at 8.15 o'clock. The program include many of the best classical selections both in music and literature.

A number of friends of little Mildred Shultis, dressed as hob-goblins surprised her on Halloween. Hazel Bell dressed as "Puck" in Midsummer Nights Dream took her part equal to any professional to principle; those who and the funny faecs would have frightened the stoutest nerve of any onlooker. A veritable double of Mother Goose skysweeper was "Foxy" enough to put in an appearance and told the children's the former Montgome the little ones by Mrs. Shultis were in residence property. keeping with the day. The revelers indulged in an elaborate luncheon. Those present were Ada Fritsch, Irene Schletzmena Bell, Elsie Laegler, Irene Fritsch, of Waukegan, a cousin of the hostess.

ing was 'held on Thursday afternoon at OLD RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY.

Mr. A. W. Olson moved into his new On Saturday morning, October 31st, Wednesday. Mr. Olson will erect a inmate of the Railroad Men's Home of large house on his two lots he recently this city, quietly passed away after a lingering illness due to old age.

Mr. Mathias was a conductor on the Mr. E. C. Day will erect a fine new Pere Marquette Railroad in 1849. He without income.

He was a firm believer in Christianity St. Margarets guild of Trinity church and took great comfort in the fact that will hold its annual Thansgiving sale at while business speculations failed, he the Library Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 24, laid up for himself treasures in Heaven where moth and rust doth not corrupt and where thieves do not break through and steal. The funeral took place on charity and music are delightful and Prior's undertaking rooms.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

The North Shore Advisory Board of Dr. Edward MacDowell's lecture for the Home on Monday, November 3rd, reported on the first meeting of the noon to receive visitors. Committees The Christian Science reading room have looked after the home in various Thursday? It was neither. It was just (except Sunday) from two until fourthirty cessaries, and beautifying the grounds ready to give gospel o'clock, in the church building on Hazel for the public eye with shrubbery, and who come to buy. avenue, near St. Johns avenue. All are for the children's eyes with swings and hammocks.

The Treasurer's report showed $2,708 The body of a man found in the river received during the year to be expended Twenty dollars in gold and a ring were at one o'clock after the business meet- that over seventeen hundred copies Northwestern University, on, 'The Relation of Science to Social Betterment." Last Saturday evening the Spartan Prof Hotchkiss made a strong plea for Athletic Club gave a Halloween social to well paid, expert workers in the imporpleasant evening was spent in games and close to the foundation of our social life.

cording Secretary, Mrs. B. G. Poucher; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. George Olmstead; Treasurer, Mrs. F. C. Letts; Auditor, Mrs. B. A. Greene.

Directors for the North Shore.-Lake Forest, Mrs. Louis F. Swift, Mrs. Clayton Park, Highland Park: -Mrs James Lane Allen, Hubbards Woods:-Mrs. John W.

Scott, Mrs. John K. Lyon. Glencoe; -Mrs. J. P. Brewster, Mrs. Frank Darling.

zabeth Lintner. Kenilworth: -Mrs. V. Petors, Mrs. Wilmette:- Mrs. C. Howard Field.

Ravenswood:-Mrs. L. H. Botts, Miss Eva Cops. Lakeview:-Mrs. Do ald L. Morrill Sheridan Park:-Mr. E. F. Ray. Edgewater: -Mrs. V . A. Carroll. Rogers Park: -Mrs J. H. Sheffield

A LITTLE VOTE.

Mrs. Chas. R. Pierce.

MR. JOSEPH E. ANDE SON. Dear Sir:-"Y did run wel who did hinder yot'? Answer: -All who want the saloon

Any other? Yes, Thos who prefer part FROM CITIZEN Any others? Perhaps.

Murray & Terry, the North Shore real closed the sale of estate people, have just house, corner fortunes from a den made weird by the Sheridan Road and Taple avenue, to manipulation of colored lights in one Dr. Edmond R. Mon s, who will soon Taft ...

on of former Mayor R. G. Evans, ley, Madeline Boyd, Hazel und Whilli- appreciated, especially as he could talk Margaret Moore, Eva and Ruby Will-News Letter. Later it was again Letter.

Like most local propers in a small constituency it had chequered and costly career, each party in turn losing money on it.

A few months ago we changed the name to the North S ore News Letter so as to reach a la ger constituency and also to meet the call for a paper that would represent North Shore in-half yearly volumes.

Mr. Evans is a bu y man with the Edison Electric Company at Chicago.

"A Charity Musica e" has a sweet sound and should attract many. Both land." Monday afternoon at two o'clock from to combine them in on evening's social thought of occasion is the happ company of ladies. dat program pro vided for Saturday af ernoon, Nov. 21 at the home of Mrs. J. G. Steever, 320 Sheridan road, will be sustained by Mrs. M. A. Ives, Mrs. V. A. Alexander, Mrs. G. S. Cole, Miss (Yoe and others. the Evanston Children's Home met at One of the features of the occasion wi be a thanksgiving sale of mince meat, today will be on the subject of Western for its first annual meeting, Mis. Wm. candy and cake, which will take place at 4 p. m. The program opens at 2:30. The Lake Bluff Or hanage will be richer by the amount of the proceeds.

The store occupied by Jesse Sobey Board, Nov. 25th, 1907, at which time and E. W. Mooney as been under-Mr. John Bailey is just recovering from committees were appointed which went going a cleaning process that has improved its appearance wonderfully. The inside has been papered and painted and shows a very inv ting appearance. aine for some time past, returned to News Letter, together with Mr. The Secretary, Mrs. B. G. Poucher, Recently the firm of S bey and Mooney November 7th. Bailey's many friends, congratulates him reported. Members of the Board being dissolved partnership, but concluded present at the Home on Thursday after- to do business under the one roof. Mr. and Mr. Mooney the groceries. Each Archie, who is attending the Hotchkiss have purchased one o' the very latest school in the East. at the fountain on Central avenue, in Highland Park is open every afternoon ways, supplying clothing and other ne- scales and in their smiling way are measure to all

Glenc x

As a matter of interest to ad- ing Miss Aldan. vertisers and othe s who like to see this paper grow -- we announce were printed and sold last week.

Mrs. Charles Mortin er gave a thimble party. Thursday after con, entertaining her friends in a very c arming manner.

Mrs. Melville E. Stone and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stone will spend some time at Stonehaven, Glencoe, thi winter.

Some one should give the management of the American Express Company good lunch that better delivery service, be afforded the patron; in Glencoe.

The opening of the Milwaukee extension of the C. & M. Electric Road is appreciated in Glencie but the public would like to be assured of better and more regular local service.

Miss Laura Williams gave a tea Tues day afternoon.

night who's husbands had gone in town to to hear the election returns.

The largest fire in years spread over the Skokie Valley just west of Glencoe Winnetka;-Mrs. N. H. Blatchford, Tuesday evening. The fire started at weapon and assault with intent to do the north end and about nine o'clock bodily injury.

ELECTION NOTES.

Tuesdays Vote In Deerfield Town

-	FUR I RESIDENT.
g	Taft	719
	Bryan	323
	Chafin	36
g	Debs	32
ğ	Hisgen and others	0
ă	FOR LEGISLATURE.
ă	Anderson	587
ğ	Burns	544
S	Shurtleff	763
ą	Stearns	1045
3	FOR GOVERNOR
9	Deneen,	589
a	Stevenson	419
큠

Lake County Vote.

FOR GOVERNOR Deneen..... 5,583 Stevenson..... FOR REPRESENTATIVES

> Anderson. 4,892 changed to the High and Park News | The first three named are elected Reprepresentatives. Other Lake County officers elected are Circuit Clerk-Lewis O. Brockway, > > Waukegan. State's Attorney-Ralph J.

Coroner-John L. Taylor, Libertyville, County Surveyor-James Anderson, Ir., Lake Forest.

the entire Skokie was a sea of fire. Nothing can be done to check the Mr. Evans explains how it is that a flames, it just burns itself out. Farmers and summer cottagers must prohave reached its two aty-first volume. Lect themselves. These fires are an He says at first it was published in | nual and are probably caused by the hunters shooting for ducks and geese

> At the Woman's Library Club Thursday evening. November 12th, eight o'clock, Mr. R. J. Bennett will lecture, Historic America, "In Old New Eng-

Madame Plummer returned from Colorado last week on her way home She made a stop at Dixon, Illinois, to visit her son, Mr. Joseph Plummer, and his family.

The oldest resident of Glencoe, Mr. Louis D. Taylor, who came here sixtyfour years ago, was buried last Sunday at Rosehill cemetery. At the time of his death he was eighty-six years

The new grocery store about to be opened in Glencoe will be managed by Mr. Max Grabo, and backed by one of the large Chicago wholesale houses.

Mrs. Martin J. Powers will be at home from four until six Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew MacLeish has just re-Sobey has taken the market in charge turned from a short visit to her son

> . Mrs. Mary Becker entertained a num ber of the New Trier high school girls at a Hallowe'en party last Saturday

Miss Laura Williams is entertain-

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sargent have returned home from a visit in the West. They expect to leave for California in a very short time.

Mrs. Enright, of Park avenue, gave Hallowe'en party last Saturday even-A Hallowe'en party was given for little Katharine Barthoff, last Saturday afternoon from two to five.

when asked to recite to some callers, solemnly delivered herself of the following, should have a great fu-Stinkle, stinkle, little car,

How I wonder what you are. Up and down the roads so fast, Ain't I glad when you have passed.

MOOR FOUND GUILTY The jury in the case of Frank H.

Moor, the Glence special policeman accused of shooting Miss Buena Stribling in an attempt to stop the automabile in which she was riding, found him guilty after being out five hours reporting an agreement for conviction. Before the jury went out Judge Mack gave instructions which were regarded as favorable to Mrs. T. H. Lamprecht of Grove street Moor. He told the jurors that they entertained a number of ladies election could not find Moor guilty of assault with intent to kill unless they were convinced that he intended to take Miss Striblings life. There are two other charges against Moor-that of assault with a deadly