AUDITORIUM. Since Richard Carle began his four-week's engagement at the Auditorium in Chicago, this playhouse has nightly resounded with laughter. The tall, droll comedian has never had such an amusing role as he has in the hen-pecked hero of "Mary's Lamb." Whenever he is on the stage he keeps his audience in almost continuous laughter. He has splendid support in Cecelia Rhoda and Nellie Brewster, two good sopranos, in DeWitt Mott, a fine baritone; in Sylvia Langlois, a basso of power; in Julia Ralph, a clever character actress; and in other able people.

Art Institute.

Donald Robertson's Stock Company is appearing here weekly in a repertoire of standard dramas on Wednesday night. "A Curious Mishap" was presented to a crowded house. Mr. Robertson's idea for the betterment of the stage seems at last to have taken root and is being heartily supported.

Miss Vida Sutton, formerly of the high school faculty, is a member of the company.

In cold and rain the hunter sits; The ducks are plenty but few the hits. The difference between that hunter and our line of laundry work is that we make a hit every time! That sounds chesty, but it's true, and it's in your interest to prove it. You'll be glad you did. We can wash anything from a ladies handkerchief to a circus tent and guarantee it will be well done.
