Value and Utility

THE IMPORTANCE and value of a clean, reliable local newspaper devoted to the interests of a constituency like that of the North Shore cities and villages, can hardly be overestimated.

The NORTH SHORE NEWS-LETTER is printed in convenient form for handling and for preservation, so that it can not only be used as a paper for the week, but may become of permanent historic value. The present form and size of page are designed to be permanent.

The NORTH SHORE NEWS-LETTER is not intended to compete with the big dailies, and is in no sense a sensational or a sporting paper.

It is in the fullest sense EDUCATIONAL, RELIGIOUS, Social and Political, while it is absolutely unsectarian, non-partisan and independent.

To Advertisers

The NORTH SHORE NEWS-LETTER is invaluable as a medium of business for North Shore people.

To Win

By Byron Williams

A lass to win and a name to make
In the world that laughs at men—
Ah, who shall faint in the burning sun
Or pause with a vanquished pen?
A lass to win and a name to make
And the great world's sneers to bear,
But who shall care for the taunts that come,
Or halt on the thorny stair?

For this is life, and the man who wins
Is only the one who tries—
Success is built on the throne of work
That makes for the winning prize,
That opens the way to a woman's heart
And love in a woman's eyes!

Whatever we have, we have through the aid of others; all that we have, we have for the aid of others. Of our own unaided strength we could gain or make nothing. Holding aught that we have for our own exclusively, it becomes as nothing to us. Co-operation in production and sharing in use and enjoyment are the twin secrets of rightly adjusted harmonious living.—Henry F. Cope.

At the annual Caxton Publishing Company dinner in London the statement was made that the sales of Dickens' works were four times as many as of Thackeray's and twice as many as Shakespeare's. The popularity of Dickens is perennial.
