

TARVIA has proven an entire success this season in Highland Park as a dust preventer and top dressing for macadam roads.

Orders taken now for work in the spring.

Edw. M. Laing, 328 Park Ave.

Highland Park News

Schneider has a fine display in his new store, the old post office building.

Mr. Charles J. Streiber was confined to his bed by an attack of the grippe.

Miss Theckla Heintz was compelled to remain at home with an attack of grippe a few days this week.

Assistant Postmaster King and daughter spent Thanksgiving with friends at Ravenswood.

Mr. Wm. J. Obee has accepted the position for the present as superintendent of construction at Fort Sheridan.

The fruit stores certainly look lovely this week with the fine stocks of apples, nuts, oranges and grape fruit.

"Uncle Jack" by S. N. Cook is a popular drama with a good moral to it. Uncle Jack will be given in Highwood by local talent in the near future.

Miss Jesse Harding of Evanston is in Detroit, the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Grey Peck the latter was Miss Alice Peck of Highland Park.

Miss N. Fessler who has been employed in the Post Office for the past few years resigned her position this week and expects to go west in the near future.

Mr. A. C. Loyd will spend Thanksgiving with friends at Ravenswood. Mr. Loyd's parents celebrated their silver wedding at Fort Wayne, Ind., on Tuesday of this week.

Samuel Levin has excelled himself in his window display this week. A completely furnished Thanksgiving dinner table, including turkey, fruit and all appointments, even to baby's fork and spoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Granger Farwell and family have taken the house of Wm. B. Given, 15 Walton place for the winter and will move in from Lake Forest, Dec. 1st. Miss Olive Farwell will be one of the seasons debutantes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sobey 1010 North Green Bay Road, visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Culp at their new home in Milwaukee. Mrs. E. J. Kroencke, Mr. Culp's cousin from Racine was also a guest; Mrs. Kroencke is well known here.

Starved Rock and The Canyons of Illinois is the interesting subject of a lecture to be given by Mr. Horace Hull at the Elm Place school. The lecturer has devoted his services to the school, so that the admission fee is only ten cents. Monday evening, at 7:45.

The "Nibblers" entertained the "Nibblers" Thursday evening in the parlors of Miss Lydia Rowan, St. Johns avenue. Dancing and singing enlivened the hours and an elegant luncheon added to the evening's enjoyment. At the midnight hour the Nibblers took the Nobblers to their various homes resolved to meet again.

Mr. Jos. Procter returned this week from a business trip to Boston.

Mr. Bowden had quite a fine display of turkeys at his market on St. John's ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Galloway of Chicago, visited friends here last Saturday.

The Highland Park Club gave a cotillion at the Club house last Thursday evening.

Master Clarence Parliament gives a small dancing party this evening, from seven to nine thirty.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood and family have taken apartments with Mrs. Everingham for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of Momenca, Ill., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hasney, of Glencoe avenue.

This is Thanksgiving week and the stores looked it until the great day came and stripped them of fine showings.

Prof. Whiffle of Wheaton College, was a welcome guest at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Davidson, for Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willets of Sheridan Road, gave a dinner party last Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for nine.

Miss Florence Reming entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening, and a very enjoyable time is reported. The evening was spent in games and refreshments.

A number of Highland Park people will assist at a service which will be held at Fort Sheridan Gymnasium to-morrow evening at seven thirty. A hearty welcome is extended to all.

We have added several new names to our subscription list this week and invite all our friends to notice our special offer of The Cosmopolitan for one year to our subscribers at the rate of 50 cents.

The Musical and Bazaar given by the Ladies of Highland Park last Saturday, for the benefit of the Lake Bluff Orphanage, was a complete success in every way, netting one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

H. W. McClure, wife and child, left Wednesday morning for a ten days trip to Gallon, Ohio. They will visit Mr. McClure's parents. Mr. McClure is foreman of the line department of the North Shore Electric Company.

The many friends of Dr. G. W. Turner of Kansas City, formerly of Highland Park, will be glad to know that the report of the Doctor's demise was without foundation. Dr. Turner has been ill but is at present convalescent.

The gathering of the society people at a church festival at Winnetka, which was announced in last week's paper, seems to have been quite a success. We have not been informed of the amount of cash proceeds, but the fact that the whole of the interesting bazaar, concert and sale of Thanksgiving provender were for benevolent purposes, won the sympathetic cooperation of nearly all the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burgess have returned from their honeymoon trip to La Crosse, Wis., and will be at home at 230 North Green Bay Road, Dec. 15th.

Mrs. Judge William G. Ewing and daughter, Miss Ruth Ewing, have just returned from a most enjoyable visit in New Orleans, where Miss Ewing was invited to take part in the National Humane Congress, recently held there.

Owen Kildare, author, playwright, pugilist, filibuster, dock laborer, reformer and many other things, who has been committed to Bellevue Hospital pending examination into his mental condition, has had a varied career known to quite a few North Shore people. He was born in New York in 1864, was newsboy at 5, got his education in evening classes at the Y. M. C. A. He served in the Brazilian revolution and with the army of liberation in Venezuela. He has written many plays, and of late has been associate editor of Pearson's Magazine.

The annual pool tournament at the Highland Park Club is now being played off, entries having closed on the 23d inst. The list of contestants with the handicaps, is as follows: Peyton, 50; Merritt, 50; Shade, 40; Bayles, 40; C. Vall, 40; Card, 38; Shields, 38; Tapper, 38; R. Jones, 38; Gardner, 38; Townner, 38; Doty, 35; Everett, 35; Buckman, 35; Preston, 35; Dickinson, 35; Gray, 35; McFarlane, 35; Tuttle, 35; Lovell, 35; R. S. Vall, 30; Atwater, 30; Tollansbee, 30; Kelly, 28; Hill, 28; McMullin, 28; Geo. Mason, 25; Warner, 25; Andrews, 25; H. H. Smith, 25.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

It is a wedding of genial local interest when a young man known to us all is one of the contracting parties. Such a marriage occurred at Brazil, Ind., Thanksgiving evening when Mr. Howard Hill instructor in history at the High school was married to Miss Hermione Ireland, one of the most popular young ladies of the town of Brazil. The wedding was pronounced, by those who saw it a most delightful ceremony. Mr. Hill is well known here and has gained a host of friends during his brief residence in Highland Park. The NEWS LETTER voices the sentiment of Highland Park in welcoming Mrs. Hill to our midst and extends its heartiest congratulations to the couple who by the way return home tonight. Mr. Hill will resume his duties at the High school on Monday.

ANOTHER WEDDING

Much interest was manifested in the wedding of Miss Bertha Duppler and Mr. Jacob Baur, which took place in the Episcopal church at Highland Park. Both the bride and groom are well known in Chicago circles and the former is considered a most brilliant and interesting young woman.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock and the Chicago guests went out on a private car attached to the 3 o'clock train of the Northwestern. The bride wore white satin trimmed in real lace and sprays of edelweiss, and her veil of tulle fell from a wreath of edelweiss. Her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and orchids. Rev. C. Wolcott, rector of the church, performed the ceremony and Mr. Burton Thoms of Wilmette played the wedding music.

There were no attendants except little Elizabeth Shields, who acted as flower girl, dressed in white, with pink ribbons and large white hat. Mr. Jacob D. Greiner and Mr. Sheldon Greiner, nephews of the groom, were the ushers. The couples received a few friends, and relatives after the ceremony at the home of Mr. James H. Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. Baur left for Virginia Hot Springs, and will remain there a few days before sailing on Saturday on the Coronia for a two months' trip in Europe. In announcing yesterday the appointment of John T. McGrath, superintendent of the inquiry division of the postoffice, to succeed Miss Duppler as secretary, Postmaster Campbell said:

"A man is chosen for the position because I believe it would be almost impossible to find in the postal service another woman with business qualifications equal to those of Miss Duppler."

Mrs. Baur has been secretary to four Chicago postmasters, and until her recent resignation, the highest salaried woman in the government postal service. Her fad being butterflies, gorgeous replicas of them figured in the wedding decorations. In Miss Duppler's wedding gown sparkled a diamond pin in the form of a butterfly, the gem having been presented by former associates at the postoffice.

Among the guests were Postmaster and Mrs. Campbell, and former Postmasters Fred E. Coyne and Charles U. Gordon and their wives. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields. John T. McGrath, for superintendent of the inquiry division of the Chicago postoffice, has been appointed temporary secretary to Postmaster Campbell.

Highland Park Schools

The football team will hold a banquet at which next year's captain and manager will be elected. Those mentioned for captain are McNally, Tibbets and Shields. An elaborate menu for the banquet is in preparation.

The Varsity baseball team opened its season last Friday night, defeating the strong 1904 Championship team by a score of 59-28. The Reserves defeated the Spartan Athletic Club 29-26. The Reserves played Morgan Park High school this afternoon.

The Northwestern Military Academy team defeated the Kenosha High School team on the local field last Saturday by the score of 67 to 0. Coach Lowell, of the Academy, sent substitutes, who experienced no difficulty in scoring at will. The play, though, was not brilliant, being slow and uninteresting.

The English IV. class at the high school attended the matinee performance of "Hamlet," given by Mantell at the Grand opera house last Saturday.

Last Saturday night a committee of the students tendered Miss Edith Mosier a farewell reception. Miss Mosier will be remembered resigned from the faculty to accept a position at John Marshall High School. A number of students expressed themselves to a reporter of the NEWS LETTER that in their opinion the board of education had made a big mistake in letting so capable and so popular a teacher as Miss Mosier go.

Mr. R. L. Sandwick attended the annual Illinois Principals' Association meeting at Champaign last week.

Mr. Sandwick also attended the Northwestern-Illinois football game, and was entertained by Mr. Nowenburgh, of the alumni, at Tau Beta Pi fraternity house.

Mr. Lyman Prior attended the Northwestern-Illinois football game at Champaign Saturday. He reports Northwestern has the nucleus of a good team for next year.

The lecture by Prof. Starr which we anticipated in our columns last week was all that was promised. The attendance was good in spite of the miserable wet evening of Monday, and the lecture was much appreciated.

The Churches

The Thanksgiving service at the Highland Park Presbyterian church was one to which all the old people of our city who could attend were invited, and members sent their carriages to all who indicated their desire to be present. Carriages were sent to the Railroad Mens Home, and a large number of the men attended the service.

Columbus Polk Goodson, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, will preach Sabbath morning at 10:30 on the subject "The Philosophy of Prayer."

The Bible school has a special Temperance program provided. Mr. Goodson is to deliver an address on "The Great Peril."

Song Service at Fort Sheridan

The Bible Cass of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Miss Willa Lovell, and taught by Mr. A. P. Pitt, of the Moody Bible Institute, goes to Fort Sheridan Sunday night, and hold a great song service in the Gymnasium. There will be solos, duets, and quartettes with choruses. The pastor, Coluthus Polk Goodson, is to preside and to speak on the "Possibilities Of a Life." The men of the Post, their families and such others as are interested, are welcome. Quite a large number of the members of the Highland Park church are to go, simply to attend the service.

Each of the Bible school classes of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, assisted by a number of friends who furnished baskets, filled large boxes with good things to eat, such as turkey and other Thanksgiving culinary luxuries, and a large moving van took them, accompanied by Mrs. C. P. Goodson, and Mrs. G. W. Childs to the poor families in and adjoining our community. Some fifteen or more families were made happy, and some of them very needy, and worthy.