HIGHLAND PARK SCHOOLS.

Tryouts for the selection of the debating team have been advertised for Friday, Dec. 18, 1908. The question to be debated is, "Resolved, that the best interests of the United States demand a tariff for revenue only."

The high school basketball team was defeated by the Waukegan Maroons in a rough game Dec. 2, at the high school by the score of 25 to 22.

At the class elections held last week Ernest Moffett was elected president of the Sophomore class and Robert Shields of the Junior class.

The girls basketball team is being organized under the direction of Miss Eustace. The line game will be played.

The boys' glee club is being organized under the capable direction of Mr. Lyman Prior of the alumni.

Mr. Hill of the history department addressed the Avico club last Saturday.

After vacation—exams.

Messrs. Williams and Smith of the faculty officiated as pitcher and second baseman on the Highland Park club's indoor baseball team last Saturday.

Interest as to the recipient of the 1907 medal of honor is rapidly growing. Among those mentioned for that honor are Wm. B. Wrenn, Egbert Spencer, Ferne Greene and Mona Quayle.

Basketball practice has started at N. M. A. Coach Lowell is putting the squad through a hard course of training and indications point to a very successful team.

The lecture by Prof. Frederic Starr on the Philippines as given at the high school was said to have been unusually interesting. Our regular dramatic reporter was not able to be present, but from all accounts the lecture was an intellectual treat.

Mr. Wm. Rice of the alumni was in town last week. We see Will only once in a while, but always greatly enjoy his visits.

The executive committee of the Alumni Association held a meeting on Wednesday at which plans were formulated for the annual alumni luncheon.

Mr. Horace Hull's lecture on Starved Rock at the grammar school a week ago Monday was both an artistic and a financial success.

Complaints have reached the writer of this column that the column is not inclusive enough. In reply he would say that this is only one of his numerous newspaper duties and that unless he receives aid from the public he cannot hope to successfully cover the necessary ground.

DRAMATIC—RECEIVED LATER.

Garrick—Sam Bernard comes next week beginning Dec. 20th in "The Doctor." Mr. Bernard is described by the New York press as a delectable humorist in the "german line" who outranks all others.

The Birthday of the State of Illinois was but casually noticed on the 3rd instant. She is a lusty young State of ninety years. By the time she celebrates her centenary in 1918, she will have grown still more.

"A mind might ponder its thought for ages, and not gain so much self-knowledge as the passion of love shall teach it in a day."—Emerson's Essay on History.

Polite and Quick Wit.

A lady was entertaining at dinner the other day quite informally an old clergyman and a few relatives. The children were allowed to come in with the dessert. On rising from the table the latter stood aside to allow the white-haired priest to leave the room in advance.

A New Application.

Sunday School Teacher—I read in the papers of some naughty boys who cut off a cat's tail. Can any of you tell me why it's wrong to do such a thing?

Willy—'Cause the Bible says, "What God hath joined together let no man put asunder."—Brooklyn Life.

The man who faces his environment with the belief that he is helpless before so many unsurmountable obstacles, will remain where he is; but the man who thinks he can, will proceed to surmount everything and improve everything, overcome everything, change everything and improve everything; and by constantly thinking he can, he will gain the power to do what he thinks he can do.—C. D. Larson.

The purpose of life is continuous advancement. Ideal friendship brings ideal friends; refinement in action, thought and speech brings refined people; greater ability brings greater results in the world of achievement; and better environments come when we develop the power to create the better.

A beautiful mental life produces a beautiful physical existence; and by giving the best to the world, the best will surely return.—C. D. Larson.

A definite allowance and a bank check-book will make of many a woman an economist and a manager, who otherwise would be a wasteful spendthrift—there is something in that exactness of figures—those inexorable figures which traditionally will not lie—that educates a woman.

School teachers are forever preaching concentration to their pupils—how about trying to wear an eighteen-inch corset on a twenty-six-inch waist?

Want of care creates more damage than want of knowledge.

Culture is a splendid thing if it doesn't go so far as to occupy one's mind so that the bread burns in the oven.

You should believe only one-half that you hear, but be sure and select the right half.

Next to having a friend you can trust is to have a friend who will trust you.

The great number of divorces is a sign that there used to be a thing called love.

The most domineering man sometimes has to mind the baby.

A good many self-made men get tired before the job is finished.

A cow never blows its own horn. Sometimes a man gets a black eye by running against a church door, but it is hard to make a critical world believe it.

Life is not a mouthful that a man should gulp it down whole.
