Strategy.
 Rodrick—Great Scott! Has Bilkins
 lost his mind?
 Van Albert—I don't think so; why?
 Rodrick—Just look at the illumination in his house. He has had every gas-jet burning all day long.
 Van Albert—Oh, there's just a little scheme Bilkins has to increase his gas-bill this month. His wife is coming back to-morrow, and he told her he had been remaining at home and reading every night since she went away.
 If she looked at the gas-bill and found it to be only 32 cents he would be cornered for an explanation.—Chicago
 Daily News.

If Bilkins lived in our town he would not require such strategy. The gas company would take care of that for him.

Getting Even.
 We often hear people use the expression "Get even," in reference to the conduct of others. This almost always suggests doing something mean because another has done so. If one looks at it right, that is a sort of letting another lead one backward instead of forward. Getting even in meanness with another—even if such doing could be exactly weighed or measured—who can ever be proud of it?

CHRISTMAS BELLS.
 Ring! Ring! Ye merry Christmas bells,
 Your music sweet, foretells
 The gladdest day of all the year;
 Day of happiness; of good cheer.

Ring! Ring! May ev'ry peal
 Make some sad heart to feel
 The message that you bring;
 Make some sad heart to sing.

Ring! Ring! May your tones so sweet
 Reach those whose wand'ring feet
 Have stray'd and lost the way,
 To bring them peace this day.

Ring! Ring! May each joyous sound,
 With praises of the Lord resound,
 And herald forth the glad tidings
 Of the birthday of Christ, the King.
 —B.—Highland Park.

A Substantial Difference.
 Customer (pointedly)—The difference between a cow and a milkman is that the cow gives pure milk.
 Milkman—Perhaps; but there is a greater difference than that. The cow doesn't give credit.

A Necessity.
 "Humph! Him? He'd run before he'd fight me!"
 "I guess he'd have to."—Houston
 Post.

Just Vacant.
 "That house that you finished a few weeks ago is the biggest of the lot,"
 said the real estate agent. "Perhaps that's why it's so hard to find a tenant."
 "Yes," answered the builder, "it's last but not leased."—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Dullard.

 ed alms on the ground of "no change")

 won't run away wiv it, pore innocent,

MATCHES BABE FOR FIGHT.
 Talk about light-weight prize fighters!
 Here's the challenge and acceptance of a match for two of the smallest fighters ever arranged in the world.

On Dec. 14th, a son was born to Mr.
 and Mrs. William Gee who live west of Waukegan. His friend, Arthur McGregor Lowrie of Ravinia Park, was blessed with a son a few weeks ago. When Lowrie heard of the son coming to his friend's home, he decided that as Billy used to be a fighter, the son might develope, hence he sent him the following letter:
 Mr. Wilson L. Gee,
 Waukegan, Ill.

Dear Sir:
 Having recently learned that you have become a manager of what you consider a promising young light weight, and as it has been my very good fortune to have one that looks good to me, I would like to arrange a match between them, to be at Ravinia Park if before the date of February 1st, 1909, the weight to be 13 pounds ringside, if after that date catch weight, winner to take all, including the picture privilege.

Awaiting your reply I am
 Yours very truly,
 Arthur M. Lowrie.

We clip the above from the Waukegan
 Sun. We have yet to hear from Mr. Gee as to acceptance.
