ILLINOIS HAPPENINGS

Danville.—Announcing his intention to become an evangelist like Rev. William Sunday, Joseph McCarthy confessed in the federal court that he had blown the safe in the post office at Gale and declared that William Strong and Charles Gallagher, who were arraigned with him, had no part in the robbery. McCarthy was sentenced to Fort Leavenworth, and in the meantime will prepare himself to enter the evangelistic field on his release.

Sullivan.—Nicholas Wood was acquitted of attempting to kill O. H. Wood near Lovington two years ago. Since that date the death of O. H. Wood has been expected at any time and he has now lost his mind. At the same time a jury was deciding the fate of Wood, another jury in the same court was deciding a case against Harry Smith, a stepson of Wood, and he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Marion.—John Deheart, Thomas Smith and Ernest Knight, a band of burglars were arrested in this city. In their possession was found goods stolen at Goreville, ten days ago, and some taken from the store of Charles Cox at Kelley's Crossing, on the C. & E. I. railroad, seven miles south of Marion.

Chicago.—At the special meeting of the city council arrangements were made for a referendum vote on the bill, passed by the legislature, authorizing the construction of a sanitarium for the care of tuberculosis patients. Only 100 names are necessary on the petition asking that the question be placed on the ballot.

Chicago.—J. Ogden Armour, fresh from a sojourn at Palm Beach, Fla., whence a flying trip was made in his private car with Watson Armour, Arthur Meeker and Howard Gillette, resumed active direction of his Chicago interests, arriving at the stock yards office.

Paxton.—Hugh Dunnan, aged 69 years, a wealthy retired resident of this city, died suddenly after a coughing spell. He was a veteran of the civil war. Mr. Dunnan left a widow and three children, also two brothers and a sister. The value of his realty is estimated at $40,000.

Chicago.—The proposition to hold a national peace congress in Chicago May 3 to May 5 was fairly launched at the weekly meeting of the ways and means committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce at the Great Northern hotel.

Kankakee.—The dead body of a man floating in an abandoned quarry here was identified as that of John Wrahe, an Illinois Eastern hospital patient, who disappeared. Wrahe was 58 years old. He was admitted to the hospital from Joliet in 1906.

Morrison.—John Bloomhor, father of ten children, was killed by a tree falling on him which he was chopping down, and a few hours later Robert Parker, aged 70, was killed by a Chicago Northwestern train, both of Morrison.

Pana.—Leone Scarlett died in the hospital from a bullet wound alleged to have been inflicted by Orle Hill of Moweaqua. Hill was out on bond, but was afterwards arrested and brought to Pana. He was later taken to Shelbyville on a charge of murder.

Greenville.—In an outbuilding at his home in Sorento, William T. Enloe, a politician in Shoal Creek township, was found dead, by his wife. Death was due to heart disease. He was about 73 years old and was an old soldier.

Chicago.—Two unidentified men were found dead in different parts of the West side under circumstances which have caused the Canalport avenue police to begin inquiry in the belief they may have met with foul play.

Waukegan.—President Taft has sent a letter of acknowledgment to Joseph Olles, who names his son, born at 11 a. m. March 4, William Howard Taft Olles. He thanks Olles and sends best wishes for the baby's welfare.

Rome.—No decision has been reached regarding the appointment of a bishop of Peoria. The appointment of Rev. James F. McGloin of Buffalo was considered here possible, but not probable.

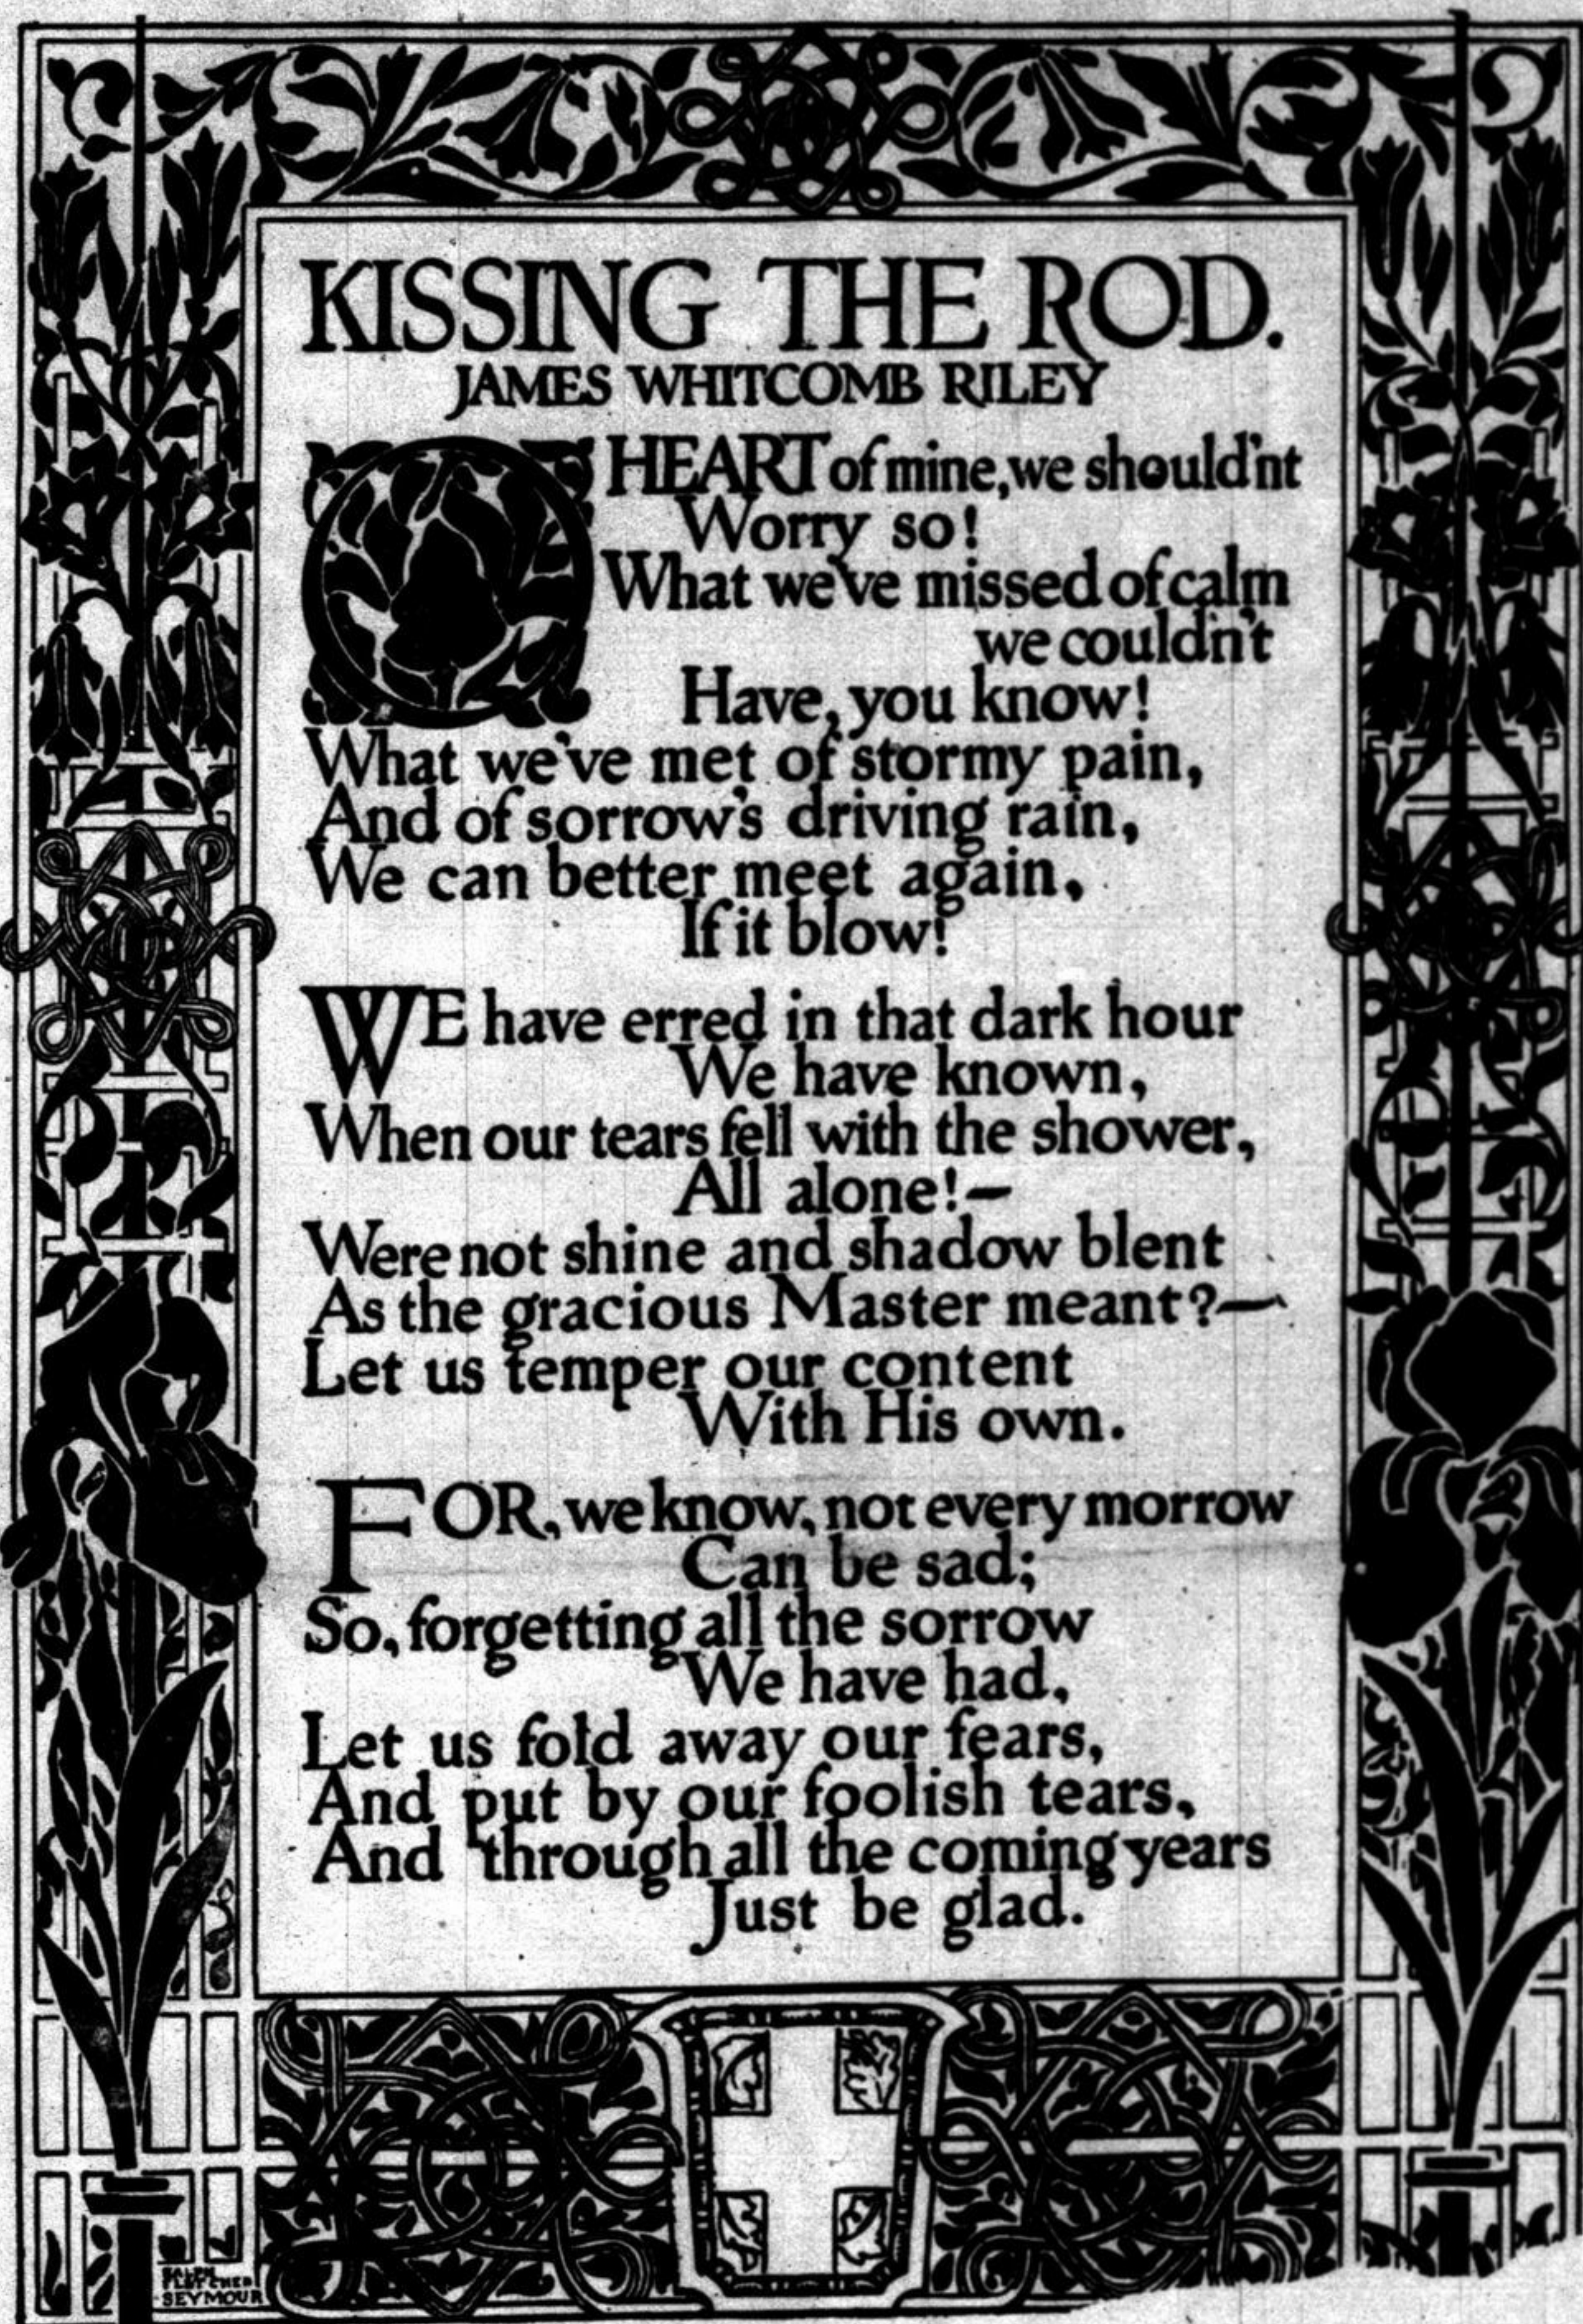

KISSING THE ROD.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

HEART of mine, we shouldn't Worry so!
What we've missed of calm
we couldn't
Have, you know!
What we've met of stormy pain,
And of sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again,
If it blow!

WE have erred in that dark hour
We have known,
When our tears fell with the shower,
All alone!—
Were not shine and shadow blent
As the gracious Master meant?—
Let us temper our content
With His own.

FOR, we know, not every morrow
Can be sad;
So, forgetting all the sorrow
We have had,
Let us fold away our fears,
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming years
Just be glad.
