Are you a candidate for councilman? then the burning question is—whom will you support for the office of Village Attorney, if you are elected.

The leading Candidate for Councilmen for Glencoe are Walker, Woolley, Sayles, Behrens and Fox; the Independent ticket headed by Mr. West.

President of the Village of Glencoe, he will find it necessary to state clearly whom he will appoint as Village Attorney. There has been considerable criticism of Mr. Culver, the present attorney.

The Sunday School children of the Congregational Church are being drilled on Wednesday afternoons, at 3:45 for the Easter exercises. Honors for Glencoe were won last Saturday by Paul and Junius Flanders at the aquatic contest between the Universities of Chicago and Illinois held at Campaign. The Illinois won the water polo game. Captain Flanders was the star and it was through his brilliant playing that the score was swung in the U. of I. favor. Junius Flanders won the 100 yard swim and the plunge for distance. He took the second place in the 25 yard swim and was in the relay race which came in second. There has been considerable rivalry between the two universities and this victory gave the Illinois polo players the conference championship.

AN OBLIGING ASSISTANT.

The counterman had taken twenty-nine rolls of dress goods from the shelf and was getting a trifle impatient, "Madam," he said, politely, "is't there anything here that suits you?" "No," replied the fair shopper, "I won't select the goods now. You see I'm just looking for a friend." "There's another roll on the shelf," said the assistant. "I'll take it down if your friend is likely to be in it."

EXPLAINING THE TRICK.

A great athlete was appearing. One of the feats he performed was to lift a sack of flour weighing 280 lbs. on his back. The following was overheard between two of the audience in the gallery. "I say Jim, he seems to do it quite easy." "And so he ought to" answered Jim scornfully. "I've been told he uses self-rising flour."

AN AWKWARD PREDICAMENT.

"Your husband'll be all right now" said the doctor, rubbing his hands with evident self-satisfaction. "What yer men?" demanded the weeping wife. "You told me he wouldn't live a fortnight," "Well, I'm going to cure him, after all" said the doctor. "Surely you're glad to hear such unexpected news?" The woman wrinkled her brows. "Puts me in a bit of an ole'" she said. "I've bin and sold all his clothes for his funeral!"

ANSWERED.

"Now" thundered the impatient counsel, "what meal was it that you were going home to?" "Ye' wad like to ken what meal?" "Yes, sir, I should." "Weel then it was oatmeal!" answered the wily Scot.

THE GREATER INFLUENCE.

Customer: "What did you think of the Bishop's sermon on Sunday, Mr. Wigsby?" Hairdresser: "Well, really, sir, there was a gent a-sitting in front o' me as'ad his air parted that crooked I couldn't 'ear a word."
