Codification Bill Is Fought.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to put the codification bill of the state educational commission to third reading, owing to a determined opposition on the part of Representative Donahue. Had the bill gone to third reading it would have been past the amendment stage, unless recalled Speaker Shurtleff held the bill on second reading on request from .Mr. Donahue.

Another bill which Speaker Shurt leff paid particular attention to was bridge bill, No. 309. This provides that practically all bridge building in the state shall be placed under the control of the state highway commission. The speaker had it recalled from third to second reading to make an investigation.

The orly bill introduced in the house was by Reperesentative Lantz, which seeks to license non-medical healers and give them a legal standing in bill the dealers who do not use surgery or medicines would be enabled to secure a license from the state and would be placed on the same legal
