

SPURN CENSUS PLAN

SENATE REFUSES TO ADOPT THE CONFEREES' PLAN WITHOUT AMENDMENT.

INCOME TAX IS ASSAILED

Great Struggle Over That Provision for Fear of Placing New Burdens on Industries and People—Lobbyists Work Hard.

Washington, Apr. 21.—By aye and no vote the senate yesterday rejected the conference report on the census bill because of its failure to include the McCumber amendment requiring applicants for civil service employment to reside in the states claimed by them as their homes.

That the census office has in its employ in one bureau the wife of a representative in congress, the wives of two officials of the war department, and the wife of a prominent official in the treasury department, was the charge made to-day by Senator McCumber in criticizing the conference report on the census bill.

Promotion Due to "Pull," He Says.

"Promotion," he said, "seems to be almost wholly for women who have husbands in the departments. This is getting to be a city of official families holding positions under the government."

Senator McCumber said the census bill, as agreed to by the conferees, did not differ materially from the measure which was vetoed in the last congress by President Roosevelt, who claimed that it contravened the spirit of the civil service law. By the operation of the law and according to the provisions of the census bill as agreed to by conferees, he said, employees of the government are not apportioned among the several states. The fact, he said, is that whole families are employed in government departments credited to states which the younger members of the family have never seen.

Urges His Amendment.

"Ninety per cent.," said Senator McCumber, "of officials in the departments in the city of Washington, are residents of this city, and the other ten per cent. may be said to be residents of the other portions of the country. If we were to apply the rules of apportionment to the civil service, the city of Washington would have two per cent., and the remaining officials would be from the states."

Senator McCumber urged the necessity of his amendment requiring actual residence by the applicant from a state, which was stricken out by the conferees.

Taft Tells of Settlement.

President Taft yesterday sent to congress a report by the secretary of state regarding the settlement of the Venezuelan claims negotiated by William I. Buchanan, the American special commissioner, who was sent to that country following the resumption of friendly relations last December. It is supplemental to the data furnished to congress last year by Secretary Root, and thus brings the matter up to date.

The arbitral tribunal is to decide each case in accordance with justice and equity, and its decisions are to be final and conclusive, all awards to be paid in United States gold coin.

Contest on Income Tax.

It is evident from the activity of opponents and antagonists of the income tax proposition each to ascertain the strength of the other that this question will furnish the sharpest contest to be waged in the senate during the tariff revision session of congress. In view of the fact that the Democrats are said to be unanimous for an income tax measure, the leaders of the "insurgent" Republican faction appear to be confident of victory. On the other hand, opponents of the income tax idea assert that the Democrats are not united, and declare that some of the insurgent strength for additional internal taxes will be lost the moment senators are convinced that the pending bill will produce sufficient revenue for the needs of the government.

Favor Income Tax Plan.

Among the Republicans declared to be in favor of an income-tax are Senators Borah, Brown, Burkett, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Gamble, Guggenheim, La Follette and Nelson. In addition to these, some of the insurgents are claiming Senators Jones, Bourne, Heyburn, Johnson of North Dakota and Dooliver. If the votes of all of these senators should be cast for an income tax provision they would be more than sufficient to pass it in the senate unless a break should occur in the Democratic ranks.

ILLINOIS HAPPENINGS

Paxton.—Trial of Joseph B. Klein of the First Infantry, I. N. G., accused of killing Earl Nelson while the regiment was on the way from Chicago to Springfield last summer, was postponed until April 29 in the circuit court here. A continuance had been asked on the grounds that under the bill of rights of the constitution of Illinois a civil court has no jurisdiction in a military case affecting the militia during the time of actual service.

New York.—William Randolph Hearst at a banquet attacked the Democratic leaders. He gave those of Illinois particular attention. Of them he said: "There is an organization of freebooters in Illinois who have been aptly but inadequately described as train robbers. The designation does not do them justice. Their depredations are not so limited. Their operations are not cribbed, cabined and confined."

Litchfield.—George Horne, 11 years old, of this city, who has been living with his sister, Mrs. White, mysteriously disappeared from his home. It was the boy's duty every morning to go to the coal mine with a push cart and bring home sufficient coal to last through the day. He left home at the usual hour with his cart and started for the coal shaft. He failed to return promptly, but no alarm was felt at first.

Chicago Heights.—Two boys, whose homes are in Chicago Heights and who ran away to see the country, were picked up on Cadillac square, Detroit, Mich. They were taken to the central station, and later to the juvenile detention room in the county building. They gave their names as Harry Kastorf, 18, 1606 Chicago road, and E. Lyle Lantz, 16, 7 West Main street, Chicago Heights.

Bloomington.—Two nieces who are rival heirs for the fortune of $300,000 recently left by Abraham Stephens of Weston, were principals in a sensational suit filed here, Mrs. Mary Ella Chapman asking $25,000 damages from Mrs. Nellie Graves, alleging slander. The plaintiff avers that the defendant has been writing many letters to other relatives grossly attacking her character.

Virginia.—The result of the primary election for Democratic candidates for circuit judges of the Eighth judicial circuit in this county was as follows: G. R. Williams, 613 votes; Harry Higbee, 634; Albert Akers, 455; Carl E. Epler, 343; Samuel Woods, 151. Angus Taylor is the Democratic candidate for county commissioner and John C. Brech the Republican.

Mount Vernon.—Pearl Hutchison, while practicing his part in the play at the Conquering Hero, was shot in the face by Ralph Johnson, the villain, in the play. The rehearsal was at its height when at the critical moment Hutchison fell bleeding to the floor with a badly-injured face. The gun was supposed to have contained a blank cartridge.

Chicago.—The Illinois Central railroad has been made a defendant before the interstate commerce commission in a complaint filed by the American Creosote works of New Orleans, in which it is charged the carrier has discriminated against the complainant and granted preferential rates to the Ayer & Lord Tie Company of Chicago.

Springfield.—A ten-story fireproof hotel, to cost $260,000, exclusive of the ground, is to be erected on the site of the Leland hotel, Sixth street and Central avenue, which was destroyed by fire March 26, 1908. The name of the hotel will be the New Leland. The company will be capitalized for $450,000.

Sterling.—Asserting that their five-year-old son was held over a bonfire head downward until he was badly burned about the head, arms and shoulders, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Humphrey of Rock Falls threatened legal proceedings against the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spangler of that city.

Ashkum.—Efforts to find Frank Cordes, formerly of Ashkum, who had not been heard from by his parents since 1905, when he was in Omaha for a short time, were redoubled, owing to the serious illness of his mother, whose mind was becoming affected from worrying over her son's absence.

Mount Sterling.—In the school election C. W. Gaddis, the present president, was re-elected for another year and W. B. Davis will succeed himself as a member of the board. J. E. Allison was elected in the place of J. D. Milstead, who with his family removed to Colorado last fall.

Springfield.—Gov. Deneen issued a requisition on the governor of Oregon for the return to Chicago of Joseph A. Jovce, wanted on a charge of forgery.

Virginia.—John Monroe Smith, a preacher's son, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Virginia for horse stealing.
