Lake County's Great Day for Charity

This is Tag Day and what does it mean? It means that every man, woman, boy and girl may have an opportunity to help those who are less fortunate. The plan is world wide with every County having its own association. The proceeds in Lake County will go to three of its institutions: The Lake Bluff Orphanage, The Lake Co. Tuberculosis Institute and the Jane McAlister Hospital.

A coin as small as a penny will purchase a tag from the fair lady who meets you, and when once tagged you will be left in peace. The smallest amount accepted will be one penny, but if any one wishes to give ten million pennies the ladies will think it over, and perhaps accept the offer. WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Miss Willa Lovell to Mr. Edward Percy Knapp was solemnized last Saturday at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. At 4 o'clock when a propitious sun shifted through the stained windows and fell fantastically upon lilies, palms and violets, neighbors and friends began to assemble in the pews. Selections were played upon the organ by Mr. Sommers, a relative of the bride, and songs were sung by Miss Funkie of Indiana Harbor.

After a half-hour program of appropriate music, the waves of the organ rolled softly into the Lohrengin march and the bridal procession entered. From the main door in the rear of the church and down the central aisle to the pulpit, came first the children, two couples, composed each of a boy and girl, all in white and bearing floral arches. Then followed the sister of the bride as maid of honor, gowned in delicate pink. Last came the bride upon the arm of her brother. She wore a trailing white moire silk, down the front of which fell in profusion point lace, which years ago had served as adornment to her mother's wedding gown. The symbolic orange blossoms and veil crowned a sweet radiant face framed in its own dark hair.

At the pulpit, the bride was met by the groom, attended by his brother.

The pulpit and its vicinity were brightened not only by pretty flowers, palms, but also by numerous lighted candles, which lent to the scene the air of old time southern wedding. Rev. C. Goodson, pastor of the church, awarded the five who mounted the pulpit stand and then read the Van Dyke marriage service. The audience standing throughout, joined audibly in the Lord's prayer at the close of the ceremony.

When the group turned to retract steps and match again under the floral arches held by the children, the bride's face broke into smiles of recognition, her eyes fell upon the well-known faces of her friends in the pews. Many sweet and unstudied circumstances combined to make this a memorial wedding of a generation.

A GREAT DEBATE

Last Friday evening accompanied by a hundred and fifty faithful supporters Deerfield High School debating team journeyed to New Trier to meet the Trier's representatives in the third annual debate between the two schools.

The large new auditorium was crowded to the doors. As a preliminary the Trier orchestra and the Deerfield Club rendered very pleasing selection which served to put the audience in a humor. The debaters for Deerfield were Mark Byers, Mary A. Phillips and V. B. Wrenn; for New Trier: Sidney I. Nett, Don C. Bierwert and Everett I. The question debated was "Resolved, the wisest tariff policy of the U. S. is tariff for revenue only." Deerfield reported the affirmative and New Trier negative.

Miss Mary Phillips opened the debate for Deerfield and after defining the terms at issue laid down the proposition that the present system of protection is responsible for the unequal distribution of wealth.

Mr. Mark Byers continued the debate for Deerfield and devoted the major portion of his speech to skillfully rebut the two commonest arguments of the protectionist that of protection for the home market and protection for infant industries.

Mr. Wm. B. Wrenn closed the debate for Deerfield by alleging that the present policy of protection is responsible for many of the acts of commission at Washington and therefore in closing appealed to the judges to decree a policy of tariff for revenue only. In the rebuttal Miss Mary Phillips demolished the few arguments of New Trier that could be understood. The greatest credit must be accorded Mr. Sandwick and Mr. Howard Hill who coached the Deerfield team and kept unbroken the blue and whites' string of victories against New Trier. Mr. Walker coach the New Trier team declared after the debate that preparations would at once be started for next year's debate with a view of breaking the hoodoo which has so persistently followed New Trier.

School Notes.

Baseball practice is being held nightly under the watchful eye of Coach Williams Norris Parrot is managing the team the captain has not yet been chosen.

Mr. Wm. B. Wrenn has charge of the sale of tickets to the high school students for the alumni play "A Scrap of Paper". The executive committee of the Alumni Association has offered the high school ten per cent of the profits of the approaching play if it agrees to dispose of a hundred tickets.

On Wednesday the high school debating team held its last practice debate of the year meeting a team composed of alumni stars. The line-up was D. T. H. S. Varsity: Misses Wrenn, Byers and Phillips; Alumni: Messrs. Geo. E. Phillips, H. R. Smith and Harleigh Hartman.

Mr. Wm. Goodridge knows a good thing. He is having the NEWS LETTER sent to him in Dresden, Germany. He says he will be homesick without it.

Last Saturday the High school played its first game of the season the opposing team being Lake Forest Academy. Frost pitched his first game for the High school and was in gilt edged form. The support which he received however was miserable in spots but showed promise of great ability in others. The final score was L. F. A., 7; D. T. H. S., 3.

The Junior Promenade, the largest social event of the High schools calendar was held a week ago Saturday at the High school gymnasium. The event was universally pronounced the most successful in the history of the school and reflects great credit on the Juniors dance committee headed by the Miss Margaret Deming.
