Warning to Property Owners

It may be well for property owners, who carelessly let real estate go to sale for taxes, to note the recent court decision. We take it from a Real Estate Journal. "Taxation—Sale—Redemption—Redemption of lands, title to which has become vested in the state by forfeiture or sale, is a mere grace or privilege extended by the state, which it may directly withdraw, or which it may deny before actual redemption by grant of the lands to another than the former owner." State vs. King, 63 So. W. Rep. (W. Va.) 495.

ECHOES OF PEACE CONGRESS

President Jacob Schurman

"I ask myself what progress we are really making toward that state of things when war shall disappear and the nations be brothers, all the world akin. At the outset there are many things most-discouraging to contemplate. (See how in certain emergencies whole nations lose their heads, become creatures of passion and rush unnecessarily into war. In Modern times the press reflects these sentiments, as we have the assurance of Bismarck, who said in 1877 or 1878 that he three last wars of Europe had been caused by the press."

Rabbi Emil Hirsch

"From our school days up to the present time we have been led to believe that the world was led by this demon, war. What have we learned in our schools of ancient civilization? Nothing except that so many generals went out to war; nothing, except the names of battles and the heroes who come back crowned with laurel wreaths. This we learned and nothing else. So we have come to think that all progress was brought about by the passion and the fury of war, and that without war civilization would not have come. This is what we want to counteract, for no blacker lie was ever invented than this."

Harlow N. Higginbotham

"I would rather have any sixteen men chosen from this association make a circuit of the globe than as many war ships. I believe they would accomplish more for humanity's good and for the peace and prosperity of the world, and they would cost infinitely less."

DeLang were the first of his immediate personal friends to be with him as the surgeons began replacing the broken bones with silver wire and closing the wounds. Mr. Schroeder was then taken to the Henrotin Hospital and his wife and son notified. Mr. Schroeder is having great pain. ## HANDEL MUSICAL CLUB

Music lovers will have a rare opportunity to hear a grand work, by the composer of the celebrated "Messiah."

The Handel Musical Club, of Chicago, under the direction of Clement B. Shaw, will give its Twelfth Semi-Annual concert at Auditorium Recital Hall, May 31st, presenting Handel's Oratorio "Samson" which has never before been given in Chicago.

Of all his numerous compositions, this work is said to be Handel's favorite; and a peculiarly pathetic circumstance is found in the following facts:

Samson, the subject; Handel, the composer of the Oratorio, and Milton, the author of the libretto, were totally blind. This work is a magnificent creation, tuneful of varied movement and brilliant orchestration. The Drake orchestra will assist the following artists taking part: Mrs. G. E. M. Pratt, Mrs. E. D. O'Connor, Bertha Grinnell, Grace Purdy, Silvia Troemper, Edward Walker, Grant Hoodley, Dr. T. R. Laughlin, D. C. Anderson, Drake Orchestra Club, Blanch Blood, violinist; Stella Price, pianist; Mr. Clement B. Shaw, conductor.

Tickets can be had of Miss Lillian E. Burgess, Telephone 2903. Tickets 50c.
