

STATE NEWS

Pekin.—At the session of the conference of the northern district of the Evangelical synod an address by Dr. Schmidt, secretary of the board of foreign missions, on the work carried on in India, was made. The resolutions adopted gratefully recognize the gift of a college building and four acres of land near Waco, Tex., and its acceptance by the general synod is recommended. Raising of church funds by means of fairs and similar methods is decried and condemned, and direct contribution is recommended as the only proper and Christianlike way of raising such funds.

Tilton.—This town's business is at a standstill because three members of its board of affairs have had to choose between resigning public office or their positions as employees of the Standard Oil Company and have decided that their private jobs are more important than their public service. Elmer Williams, J. R. Daniels and Harry Hammond were elected to the board of affairs in April. General Manager Warren of Decatur has let them know that the Standard Oil Company wishes its employees to have no part in public administration, and now there is not a quorum of Tilton's board of affairs.

Springfield.—The session of the State Historical society was devoted to the reading of papers, the following being read: "The Senator from Illinois—Some Famous Political Combats," J. McCan Davis of Springfield, clerk of the supreme court; "Rock River in the Revolution," William A. Meese of Moline; "The Sieurs de Saint Ange," Judge Walter B. Douglas, Missouri Historical society, St. Louis; "The Status of the Illinois Country in the British Empire 1763-1774," Prof. E. C. Carter, Illinois college, Jacksonville.

Carlinville.—Owen Morrison, a miner, is in jail here charged with the murder of Sheridan Williams at Sawyerville, 12 miles west of Edwardsville. Williams was killed while protecting his wife from Morrison, who struck her with a bottle when she resisted a remark made by the miner. The latter asserts that he killed Williams in self-defense. The affair caused considerable excitement in Sawyerville and Morrison was brought here as a precaution against possible mob violence.

Decatur.—Illinois music teachers in their state convention here split on the question whether or not player pianos and other mechanical music makers promote love of good music. Opinion was about evenly divided. Officers elected were: President, Theodore Miltzer, Chicago; vice-president, T. L. Rickaby, Springfield; secretary-treasurer, H. O. Merry, Lincoln. Bloomington was chosen as next year's meeting place.

Kewanee.—Guarded by his shepherd dog, which kept away a large drove of swine, the dead body of William Schneider, age 66, wealthy farmer of Osco township, was found in a hog lot of his place by his son. He left the house several hours before to shoot ground squirrels and it is supposed he stumbled and the gun was accidentally discharged. Part of his head was blown off.

Pana.—William Price, a well-to-do farmer, committed suicide by placing a stick of dynamite beneath himself and touching it off. The lower part of his body was torn almost to pieces and he died within an hour after the accident. No cause is given for his rash deed further than he had been acting strangely for the past several days. He was 30 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

Waukegan.—The latest move of the Voliva faction at Zion City is to apply for a receiver for Zion City State bank, controlled by Marshall Field & Co., because they refuse to cash Zion City municipal checks during the present muddle when two sets of officials claim rights. James Brister, recently appointed city treasurer by Voliva's council, has given notice he will ask for a receiver, alleging bankruptcy.

Springfield.—Daniel J. Healy, receiver of the Bank of America, fled with the state board of pardons an answer to the financial statement made by Judge Abner Smith to the board. The answer was virtually the same as the statement made by the receiver in court and at the hearing before the board of pardons of Judge Smith's petition.

Rockford.—John V. Petritz, president of the Rockford Brewing Company, indicted on 152 counts for violation of the local option law, was fined $100 each on 18 counts. The remainder were dismissed. He also paid a $200 fine in an old case he had appealed. Petritz agreed to discontinue local delivery of his product.

Elgin.—Fearing that his mental powers were giving way and afraid that he would do harm to someone, John Dougherty who has been an attendant at the asylum here for many years, presented himself before the examining board and was adjudged insane.

ILLINOIS STATE NEWS

Springfield.—The following officers were elected by the directors of the Anti-Saloon league of Illinois at a meeting held in this city: President, Sam T. Brush of Carbondale; first vice-president, Bishop W. F. McDowell of Chicago; second vice-president, A. H. Mills of Decatur; third vice-president, W. B. Otwell of Carlinville; secretary, Rev. F. M. Mahle of Pekin; treasurer, E. J. Scrogin of Lexington; superintendent, J. K. Shields of Chicago. The headquarters committee elected Ernest A. Scrogin of Springfield assistant superintendent and attorney.

Chicago.—Chicago police were called upon to solve a mystery centering about the disappearance of a 19-year-old girl, who is believed to have been slain or held as a prisoner by enemies. The young woman is Miss Carrie Goodall, who has been missing from her home, 567 Grand avenue, for two weeks. Her father, James Goodall, distracted by grief over her absence, appealed to the police to begin a search for her.

Springfield.—For the third time in the history of the Illinois State Photographers' association, Springfield has been selected for the place of holding their annual convention. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, R. H. Mann, Virginia; first vice-president, H. W. Harper, Joliet; second vice-president, J. Edgar Turner, Pana; secretary, Victor Georg, Springfield; treasurer, D. D. Tennyson, Litchfield.

Harrisburg.—Because he threatened to kill her husband and two-year-old child, Mrs. Hubert Burnett shot and probably fatally wounded her brother-in-law, Julian Burnett, here. Julian was in the act of stabbing Hubert Burnett, the husband, when Mrs. Burnett grabbed a pistol and shot him in the abdomen. She gave herself up to the sheriff, but was released by State's Attorney W. C. Kane.

Chicago.—Chicago friends of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, who was stricken in Los Angeles, Cal., immediately after the return of her husband and herself from Chicago, where they attended the recent national peace conference, were concerned over her illness. She collapsed as a result of a ceaseless vigil over her husband who met with an injury.

Peoria.—The Switchmen's Union of North America convened, with a strong guard of lobbyists, who worked strenuously for their respective cities for the next convention. The fight dwindled down to Kansas City, St. Paul and Pittsburg. The committees on credentials and rules were appointed and prepared their reports.

Washington, D. C.—A radical reduction from $5.30 to $2.70 per ton in the rates of bituminous coal from Sterling to Wausa, Neb., was ordered by the interstate commerce commission. Complaint was made that the rate of the Chicago & Northwestern railway was excessive and unreasonable, which the commission sustained.

Chicago.—James N. McArthur, superintendent of the central station of the Chicago post office, announced in an address at the Illinois Athletic club that the post office had just handled 6,000,000 pieces of stamped mail from one Chicago firm, presenting an expense of $60,000 for stamps alone, and breaking a world's record.

Taylorville.—Gov. Deneen issued a requisition on the governor of Louisiana for the return to Taylorville of A. D. Hopkins, who is wanted on a charge of abducting Minnie Bode. The defendant is now under arrest in Shreveport, La. The alleged offense was committed in Taylorville in July, 1908.

Kewanee.—The engine and pumping machinery plant at Chicago Heights, owned by Earl Canedy, and recently acquired by the Kewanee Water Supply Company, was started in operation here as a manufacturing department of its business, giving employment to 30 local men.

Rock Island.—Even gossips gasped when details of the suit of Mrs. Jane Harris asking $150,000 damages from Mrs. Grace Velle Harper, former resident of Rock Island and Moline, and Davenport, Ia., for alleged alienation of affections of Mrs. Harris' husband, Sidney Harris, became known.

Springfield.—State Auditor McCullough issued a permit for the organization of the State Bank of Bridgeport, at Bridgeport, Lawrence county. The capital stock is $25,000, and the incorporators are T. M. Monney, J. H. Mills and Alva Moore.

Eureka.—The remains of Mrs. George Collendar were brought here from Canton, Mo., for burial. The deceased lived here with her children, Prof. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, president of Canton university. She was 98 years old.

Monmouth.—The discovery of several well defined cases of scarlet fever led to the closing indefinitely of two of the principal schools of this city.
