NEWS OF ILLINOIS

Champaign.—Officers elected by the Illinois Association of Letter Carriers are: President, Charles Haungs of Peoria; vice-president, G. W. Rich of Mattoon; secretary, M. T. Finnan of Bloomington; treasurer, C. W. Becker of Moline; sergeant-at-arms, L. L. Lewis of Morgan Park; executive committee, Emil Anderson of Kewanee, F. A. Rice of Blue Island, Samuel Sprecher of Springfield, H. B. Bolton of Joliet, L. F. Adams of Elgin, William Price of Streator; organization committee, J. E. Hiatt of Danville, Edward Healey of Rockford, H. W. Birch of Hoopston, T. W. Snow of Urbana, Elmer Stroeckle of Rock Island, W. T. Hill of Granite City; delegate-at-large, E. W. Daniels of Chicago.

Harrisburg.—Prompt action on the part of cooler heads averted a serious panic at the opera house here where 800 people had gathered to witness the graduating exercises. A large gray rat ran across the stage and those on the stage began to shriek when some one in the audience shouted fire and in an uproar a rush was made for the doors in which many were more or less crushed, until it was announced from the stage there was no fire.

Decatur.—With $5,000 in the hands of the county treasurer here awaiting him, Henry McEvey of Decatur, declared legally dead two years ago, has turned up in Dunsmuir, Cal., after ten years' disappearance. The money is his share of his father's estate recently partitioned. When McEvey went west he dropped from sight. His people learned that he had gone to Alaska and thought him dead. He will have no trouble in proving his identity.

Danville.—After shooting to death John Brading and mortally wounding his brother following a quarrel in a dreth man, entertained a number of friends at a beer party. Later the man in company with one Willis Baum, fled. Bolar shot Brading and his brother following a quarrel in a Hildreth saloon over a poker game which was played in this city two weeks ago. Bolar has always borne a bad reputation.

Spring Valley.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America and now national secretary of the Civic Federation, a position he has held for nearly a year, left Spring Valley with his family for New York, where he will live permanently. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were married in Spring Valley 17 years ago and have made their home here since. John Mitchell's first employment here was in the capacity of a coal digger.

Bloomington.—Miss Daisy McDonald, aged 23, died on the Chicago & Alton limited while en route from St. Louis to her home in Chicago. She was accompanied by her mother and had been in the south for the benefit of her health. She was assigned a drawing room in the parlor car and it was hoped to reach home before the end came.

South Chicago.—One man was killed and several others were overcome by gas at the South Chicago plant of the Illinois Steel Company. The men were working at furnace No. 4 when escaping gas from a broken pipe overpowered them. The man killed was Peter Gravovic, 9005 Green Bay avenue.

Chicago.—A torpedo, believed to have been thrown from a window of the La Salle street passenger station struck the pavement in La Salle street directly south of Van Buren street, and was discharged with a report that was heard for a block. The explosion caused great excitement among pedestrians.

Jerseyville.—The body of a man, 45 or 50 years old, was found by Conductor J. J. Sullivan of local freight train No. 20, on the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad tracks at Lochaven, Jersey county. Nothing was found on the body by which it could be identified.

Springfield.—Gov. Deneen issued a proclamation offering a reward for the arrest of Harry Bolar, wanted in Milledreth, Edgar county, for the murder of John Brading. The crime was committed on May 25, 1909, and Bolar made his escape.

Harrisburg.—John Endicott's general store in the southwest part of this city was destroyed by fire. The building and contents were totally consumed. Loss, $2,500; insurance, $1,300.

Athens.—Fred Bennett, a youth, while riding a large horse, fell from the animal to the hard road, cutting an ugly gash in the left side of the head. It was thought at first that the horse had stepped on him.

Harrisburg.—Thomas Yates was arrested here charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory. In default of $100 bond he was lodged in jail.

Chester.—Andrew Ponski, farmer, accidentally shot and killed his ten-year-old son while attempting to shoot an owl.
