The opening dance will be given at the Moraine on Saturday evening. Hereafter there will be a dance every Tuesday and Saturday night during the season. It is hoped by the management that our citizens will consider themselves invited to these affairs. There will be an attempt to make these dances more popular than ever this year.

Mr. Edw. M. Laing has the paving on Central Ave. almost completed. When the road dries it will be ready for the roller once more and then some day when the sun is warm and the wind ceases, he will spread the Tarvia and the job will be completed. Mr. Laing says he has a great deal of Tarvia work this season.

Ray Phillips, Postal Carrier No. 3, is off on a vacation to Michigan.

Mr. E. L. Webster returned yesterday from a Chicago hospital where he went to undergo an operation on his head. We are glad to learn that Mr. Webster is much improved.

Cement sidewalks seem to be very popular and well spoken of in Highland Park just now. "I wonder why?"

Watch the advertising of North Shore business men in the NEWS-LETTER. You will find more than ever that it pays to trade at home.

The Chas. H. Warren Co. has added a new feature to their business by the purchase of 100 suits which they can afford to sell at a reduced price.

The Reliable Laundry is doing a progressive business and is making itself known all along the North Shore. The St. Peter Bros., proprietors, have purchased a large auto delivery wagon and it is a great improvement over the horse and wagon. It is a credit to Highland Park to have such a business enterprise located here.

Runaway Horses.

On Thursday evening about 7 o'clock a team of horses driven by Mr. Martin Ringdahl took fright and dashed up Sheridan Road, terrifying many of the children who were playing in the vicinity. The horses got beyond the owner's control and dashed down the ravine between the homes of Mr. C. G. Phillips and Mr. O. H. Morgan, overturning the wagon. In their mad race the team nearly collided with a huge touring car belonging to Mr. C. A. Pfantstiel of Waukegan. Aided by Mr. Lyman Prior, Dr. F. M. Ingalls and a number of other citizens the wreckage was cleared away and the horses led back to their stables where it was found that only one of the pair was slightly injured.

When you see an elderly woman selling sassafras bark on the street corner, you may know that spring 'has come.'

If anybody is in search of a cold mud bath, we suggest that Lake Michigan around the mouth of the Chicago River is it.

Principal Smith Honored.

The Geographic Society of Chicago has elected Mr. Jesse L. Smith of Highland Park as President of the Society.

This is a well marked distinction conferred upon an esteemed citizen. Mr. Smith is not only a student but a man of enthusiasm in any branch of study. He has for several years been chairman of the excursion committee.

Prof. Henry C. Cowles of the University of Chicago and formerly a director of the Society, was chosen first vice-president on account of the advancement of Mr. Smith.

This vacancy on the board and another caused by the resignation of Alexander M. Wilson, by reason of the latter's removal to Boston, were filled by the election of Prof. C. F. Millsbaugh of the Field Museum and Prof. Otis W. Caldwell of the University of Chicago.

GENERAL GRANT.

Gen. Grant Visited Training Station.

Gen. Grant said Saturday night, after inspecting the North Chicago naval training station, near Waukegan, unannounced: "It is one of the finest stations that money can build. It looks perfect in every detail, and when finished it will be an institution which all the nations of the world will copy after." Slipping off quietly from the Cyrus McCormick residence at Lake Forest, where he is a guest for the week, Gen. Grant entered the McCormick auto, and all alone, excepting for a driver, went to the training station, where he thoroughly inspected the grounds, buildings, etc., remaining there about an hour.

Flag Day, Monday, 14th.

"Hurrah for the flag, our country's flag,
Its stripes and white stars too;
There is no flag in any land
Like our own red white and blue."

On Monday next this nation will celebrate the birth of the "Stars and Stripes" and Highland Park will do its share in commemorating this great occasion. The D. A. R. will hold a great public meeting in the Auditorium of the Elm Place School at 8 p. m. Good speaking and singing will comprise the program of the evening, and it is hoped a large number of people will attend.

The Deerfield Township High School will have its Class Day and Graduating Exercises June 16th and 17th. The Class Day exercises will be held at the Highland Park Club, Wednesday at 2 p. m. and the Commencement exercises at Ravinia Theatre Thursday at 8:30 p. m. Following is the program:

Benediction
Rev. Columbus Polk Goodson

The faculty of the Deerfield Township High School has spent much energy teaching the students along all lines leading up to a good education. They departed somewhat from their usual work last Thursday and showed the Seniors that they could also teach the art of playing ball. They defeated the Seniors by a score of 9 to 5. Never mind boys. "Cheer up, the worst is yet to come."

A Reminder.

This is not a nice story in some ways, and the conduct of the man it tells about may be open to serious criticism, but we just give it as we find it in the Denver Post:
A bartender in a downtown saloon was wiping glasses Saturday night when two young men came in and ordered highballs. He served them and they made an effort to be sociable.

"Take a little booze yourself," one said.
"No, thanks!" replied the bartender.
"Don't you use it?" he was asked.
"Not any more. I used to get outside of barrels of it, but I never touch it now."

"What brought about the reformation?"

The man in the apron turned and pointed to the back bar. "See that?" he said.

The two young men saw a little china doll propped up among the glasses. "What do you keep that up there for?" asked one.

"It belonged to a four-year-old girl once," said the bartender in a low tone. He paused a moment. Then he added: "Old John Barleycorn and I starved her to death. That's just a reminder."

He went back to wiping glasses and the two young men moved away silently. —Pioneer.

Sacred Concert

To be given by the Young People's Choral Club, next Tuesday evening June 15, 1909, at the Highland Park Baptist Church, beginning at 8 o'clock. The program consists of eleven numbers containing some five or six solos and a quartet besides the regular chorus work. The selections to be given are all from standard composers and the admission is only fifteen cents. The purpose of the low entrance fee is to make it possible for everyone to come and bring the rest of the family. The Club is directed by Mr. Lyman Prior.

RAVINIA PARK

Ravinia Park opens for the season next Saturday, June 19. The program for the season is an attractive one and it is hoped that a larger number of people than ever will avail themselves of a rare opportunity.

Clean milk has no distinct flavor—Simply a sweet, pleasant taste. If any flavors are present they are artificial.

"Five things observe with care:
Of whom you speak,
To whom you speak,
And how, and when, and where."

Do not spend too much time regulating your neighbors. There is no special model of halo promised in kingdom come as a reward for the industrious busybodies who attend to everybody's affairs but their own.

Riches have wings. And when the aforesaid riches want to change location they soar away with all the ease and celerity of birds of passage in the air. But poverty plods along in wooden shoes, and you can hear them hitting the sidewalk half a mile away.

Talk happiness; the world is sad enough without your woe.

Laughter is undoubtedly one of nature's greatest tonics—it is a divine gift bestowed upon us as a life-preserver, a health-promoter, a joy-generator, a success-maker.
