Religion is not a department or section of the life. It is a motive and method of living. It is our life in the consciousness of its highest values. You can be just as truly religious in making money as in saying a mass; you can be just as truly pious in making a pudding as in going to a prayer meeting. — Henry F. Cope.

Sure Sign of Success.
A very modest but successful business man who would never admit his success, whenever asked "how is business?" would invariably reply, "Well, I am still able to pay 98 cents on the dollar," when he was in fact taking 2 per cent off for cash and paying promptly.—discounting his bills,—a sure sign of success.
