ILLINOIS NEWS TERSELY TOLD

Ottawa.—The forty-fourth annual meeting of the Illinois Press association was held here. It was called to order by President S. K. Strothers of Taylorville. The visitors were welcomed by Mayor James F. Farrell, the response being given by Gen. Smith D. Atkins of Freeport. The convention was addressed by Attorney General Stead, who delivered his lecture, "The Trail of the Yankee." There was a trolley trip to Marseilles, banquet at Ottawa, tent colony, reception and ball in the evening at the Ottawa Boat club. One hundred editors were in attendance from all sections of the state.

Chicago.—Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler, who is averse to the customary celebration of the Fourth of July, determined to follow the policy outlined by Chief Shipley before the latter's illness and has taken early steps to insure a sane celebration. He called the commanding officers into his office and gave them a talk on the "use and abuse" of the Fourth. He also instructed them to use special vigilance in limiting the sale of pyrotechnics. He called the attention of the department to the sale and use of fireworks in an order sent out in the police bulletin during the day.

Paxton.—In the case of Joseph B. Klein, on trial in the Ford county circuit court, charged with the murder of Earl Nelson at Kankakee, August 15, 1908, during the Springfield riots, the defense produced the evidence of the fireman who was on the tender, and which exactly contradicts the testimony of the companions of Nelson in regard to Klein having struck Nelson with a bayonet. He said they were in a position at the time where they could not possibly have seen him had he done so, having got off the moving train on the west side before Nelson got off on the east side.

Champaign.—Baron Kogora Takahira, Japanese ambassador, addressed 554 graduates at the thirty-eighth annual commencement exercises of the University of Illinois. Degrees were conferred by President James. Rev. John Andrew Holmes conducted the religious part of the ceremonies. An impressive academic procession to and from the auditorium, headed by President James and Baron Takahira, was a feature. The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred on the ambassador.

East St. Louis.—Corroboration of many of the charges against the government's meat inspection system here was given to the officials who are investigating conditions by Julius Bischoff, an inspector. According to J. F. Harms, the inspector whose open letter to Secretary Wilson caused the inquiry, Bischoff substantiated his co-worker's assertions and was prepared to reveal similar irregularities which he had observed on his own account.

Danville.—Called to the bar for sentence, on conviction of burglary, a young man declared to Judge Craig that he was the son of Congressman George A. Pearre of Maryland. He was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Joliet penitentiary. The prisoner had given his name as George Degrace. He was arrested several weeks ago, charged with robbing a clothing store.

Chicago.—Because her husband during the four years of their married life contributed but eight cents a day to her support, and during the same time took from her her wedding ring, a gold watch, two pearl and diamond rings, as well as a large diamond sunburst valued at $1,800, Mrs. Lillian J. McWilliams asks for divorce from Harry P. McWilliams.

Chicago.—The directors of the Illinois Central Railroad Company have appointed Blewett Lee as general solicitor of the company. The position is a substitute for that of general counsel to the company, which was formerly filled by Jacob M. Dickinson, now secretary of war in the Taft cabinet.

Chicago.—A fee of $50 was awarded Wilfred Arnold of Galesburg, by a jury in Judge Newcomer's court in payment for legal services in obtaining the release of E. S. Dreyer, former banker and treasurer of the west park board, from the Joliet penitentiary. Dreyer declares he did not know such services were rendered.

Harrisburg.—Mrs. Henry Rose and her eight-year-old son of Delwood were badly injured in a runaway. Mrs. Rose was thrown from the vehicle and, becoming entangled in the lines, was dragged. She is in a critical condition.

Winslow.—Although Holly King, a painter, fell from a ladder three years ago and escaped with slight injuries, he suffered injuries which may leave him a cripple for life when he suffered a similar accident recently.

Bloomington.—Mrs. Adolph Koib died in a dentist's chair at Arthur following the administering of chloroform and after ten teeth had been extracted.

Chicago.—Joseph Graeser, Jr., who for nine years past has been the trusted secretary of the North Avenue Building & Loan association, is under arrest at Central station accused of having embezzled $19,125. Graeser, the police say, admits that his stealings will probably aggregate $25,000 and the officials believe they may reach $30,000.

Centralla.—Edward Leake, a colored boy 12 years old, was killed in the C. B. & Q. yards here. He was dozing on a box car when a string of cars were kicked into it. The impact threw him under the car.

Fairfield.—Frank McCullough, the second of the victims of the fatal shooting of a showman, Herbert Orrin Pinnick, in this city Wednesday night, is dead as a result of a gunshot wound through his abdomen, 18 hours after the fatal shot was fired in a street fight here. Dr. Charles F. Leininger was shot through the heart and instantly killed, and Dick C. Sloan was shot through the thigh. Pinnick is in jail.

Petersburg.—The reading of evidence which was taken before the master in chancery, in the suit of James Kelly et al. vs. Moses Nusbaum, was in progress before Judge Myers of Bloomington at an adjourned session of the circuit court here. The case was one of much interest in this county.
