RAVINIA PARK

While the inclement weather of the past week has had its effect on the audiences at Ravinia Park, the splendid concerts that have been given daily by the Chicago Philharmonic Orchestra have been well attended and highly appreciated those who have braved the weather. The Philharmonic Orchestra closes its engagement on Sunday evening and on Monday night The Theodore Thomas Orchestra, Frederick Stock Conductor, will begin an engagement of two weeks. The management of the Park announces no concert on Monday afternoon. The Thomas Orchestra comes by special train directly from a long engagement at Willow Grove, Philadelphia, which makes it impossible to reach Ravinia for an afternoon concert.

On Saturday night, the Ben Greet Players will be seen in an extra performance of "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

SUBURBAN RIDES.

Did you ever think, when speeding
From suburban home to town,
And while comfortably reading,
Absorbed, and looking down,
How fast the landscape passes
As the train goes rushing through,
At speed of sixty miles, or more,
The towns, both old and new?

Did you ever count the moments,
And think, my neighbor friend,
If disaster then should happen,
How quick might be your end?
To the engineer life trusting,
Implicit is that trust:
We know he is a chosen man,
Think his selection just.

On his steady nerve relying,
His watchful, ceaseless, care
He brings us to our journey's end,
We, only pay our fare!
Did you ever think, day riding,
From Highland Park to town,
That in the course of just one year—
Should you set the mileage down,
And fairly figure up the sum,
Then figure out the girth
Of our rotund, terrestrial ball,—
That you travel round the earth?

COMMUTER.
