A large Government contract put us "out of sorts" last week—said the type setter of the Glencoe column—but we're going to buy a lot of new type some day, and look more prosperous, whether the tax assessor "gets us" or not.

In the general plan of Chicago beautiful, by D. H. Burnham and the Chicago Commercial Club, a well built driveway is urged along the water's edge of Lake Michigan from Evanston north through Wilmette, Winnetka, Glencoe, Highland Park, and as far north as Milwaukee. This road should be close to the sand beach and elevated and protected by a retaining wall. The roadway should be planted along the sides with hardy evergreen trees to stand the exposure. To facilitate this scheme local park boards should be established in the several towns and co-operate.

Courtesy and politeness are the hall-marks of the home.

Parents who know something of the power of suggestion should keep from the young children the "comic" supplement which accompanies so many of the Sunday newspapers.

True marriage is three-ply—spiritual, mental and physical; and the physical is spiritual if you know it aright.

The hardest lesson any life has to learn is to forget, and the bitterest blow the heart can feel is the agony of regret.

When the power of imparting joy is equal to the will, the human soul requires no other heaven.

There is nothing in which people betray their character more than in what they find to laugh at.

Life well lived is today well lived. It is only by doing today's duties that we can hope for tomorrow's rewards. Tomorrow is a new day, but our share of its joys depends upon what we have done today. Today is the cause and tomorrow the inevitable effect.

"Serving God" is doing good to man; but praying is thought to be an easier "service", and therefore is more generally chosen.—B. Franklin.

"Our growth is measured by how many ways we can express ourselves and be happy."

Thinking without acting is not much better, in the long run, than acting without thinking. Neither method will ever bring you to the goal.

The Discriminating Bird.

The Man—Polly want a cracker? The Bird (from Boston)—If you refer to one of those villainous detonations wrapped in red paper, and associated inevitably with a wanton youth, I am forced to answer your courteous inquiry with a decided negative.
