

The Theatres

The third of a series of Public Recitals by Miss Vida Sutton under the direction of the English Department of Columbia University in connection with the courses in Shakespeare will be given at Earl Hall (just west of Columbia College Library) at 8:30 P. M., Wednesday, July 21st, 1909. Subject, Broadway and 116th Street, New York. Subject—"Antony and Cleopatra." These recitals will be given weekly during the Summer. "Twelfth Night" will be the program for Wednesday, July 28th, at 8:30 P. M. Admission free. Miss Sutton has many friends on the North Shore who will be interested in this notice.

To visit Chicago this summer and not see "The Candy Shop" at the Studebaker is to miss one of the things that makes the Chicago trip worth while. Musical successes in the good old summer time have captured the playgoers of the Lake city during other seasons, but not in all the dogday history of the town's theatricals has a success been recorded of such proportions as that scored by the newest of Charles Dillingham's musical pieces. Now in its sixth week to record-breaking attendance, the advance sale continues as great as the usual demands for a big success at the height of a regular season. From curtain rise to curtain fall the production offers novelty.
