An Enterprising Firm. are pleased to note that the real estate firm of McGuire & Orr is extending its activities along the North Shore, as it is already well known, due to its long years' operating in this territory.
 They now have three well equipped offices located respectively at Wilmette, Evanston and Highland Park, which are kept open for business. Mr.
 H. Long, who has charge of the Evanston office, has lived in Wilmette for some time. He has done business in that territory for many years. Mr. M. O. Slocum, who formerly with Chandler, Hildreth & of Chicago, has recently taken charge of the Highland Park office. He is assisted by Mr. C. E. Osgood, who will handle the Glencoe office. Mr.
 Slocum has had several years' experience in the Chicago firm of Wm. H. Brown and Brittain. The latter has already moved his residence at Glencoe and Slocum expects soon to be one of Highland Park citizens.

At Ravinia Park.

Sunday afternoon, the New York Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Walter Damrosch, will begin an engagement at Ravinia Park. This announcement will be welcome news to those along the North Shore, where the name of Walter Damrosch has become a household word.

The opening program on Sunday will present several compositions that will be new to patrons of the Park: "Evening Breezes" by Gillet, "Glinkiana" suite by Giinka, a "Scotch March" by Debussy, and a new "Russian" song by Rimski-Korsakow, also a new "Ballade" by Liadow. The other numbers are Gold-mark's overture "Sakuntala" Andante and Finale from Mendelssohn's Violin concerto, "Ball Scene" and "March to the Scaffold" by Berlioz, Introduction and Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin", Beethoven's overture "Leonore" No. 3 and the "Hungarian Fantasy" Flute Solo, played by Monsieur Barrere.

Programmes of a popular and classical character will prevail throughout the week.

Fancy and Fact.

I like to sit and dream in spring of joys and robins on the wing, of bees that hum and vines that cling, but when I commence my wife hunts up a lot of chores and makes me paint the kitchen doors, and beat the rugs and wax the floors, and kalsomine the fence.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

He Didn't Cry.

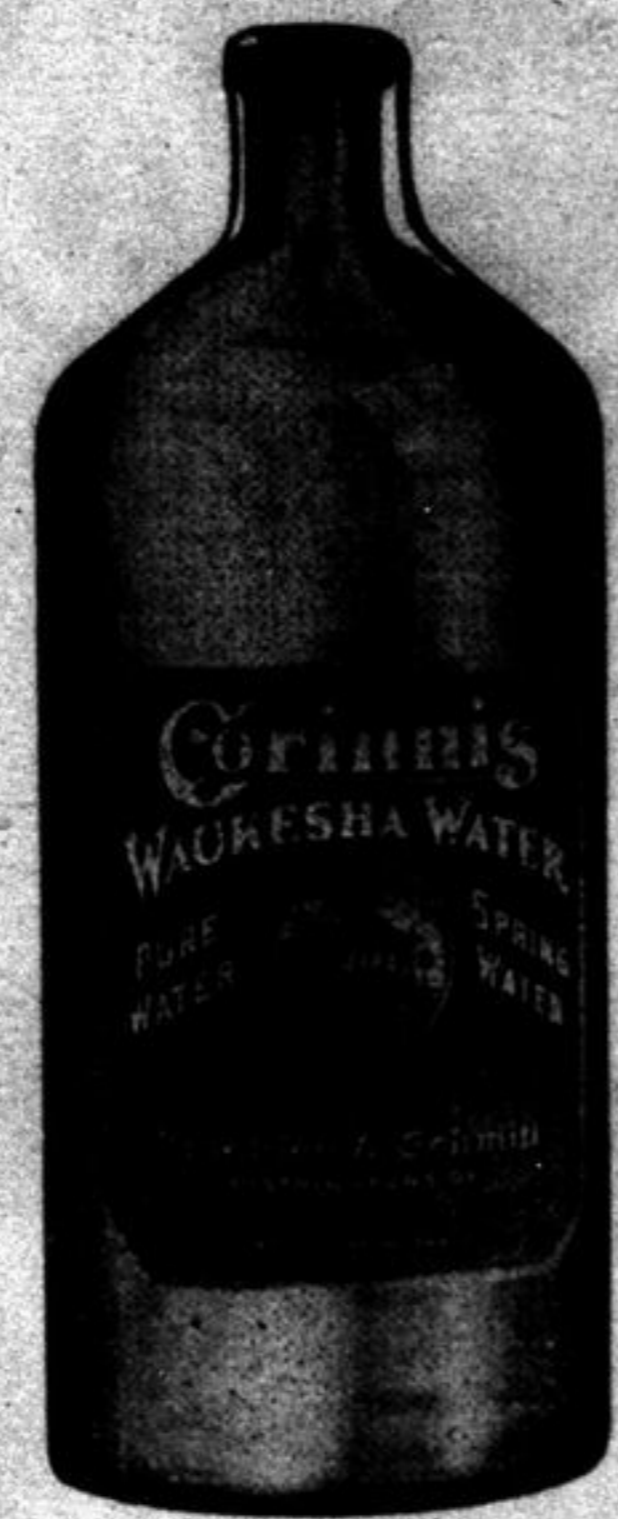

Johnny—Boo! Hoo!
 Ma—What's the matter?
 Johnny—Pa fell off the step ladder.
 Ma—Well, you mustn't cry about it.
 Johnny—I didn't. I laughed, boohoo!

Mother's Shining Example.

"Be a man," said an Atchison girl to her brother. Then she got to thinking.
 When trouble came to her home it was her mother who met it bravely, patiently and calmly. It was mother who told father not to worry, who calmed his fears, and who did all her own worrying without letting any one know about it.
 It was mother who was never afraid, never angry, who was above petty annoyance, and who spent her life on the firing line, fighting for others. "No," the girl added quickly to her brother,
 "I don't mean be a man; be a woman!"
 —Atchison Globe.
