Stealing a march on his friends, who, however, suspected that the event was to take place, yesterday in Chicago Chester Mann, son of ex-Alderman and Mrs. James T. Mann, was united in marriage to Miss May Cammack of Highland Park. The young couple left Chicago last night on a short honeymoon trip and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mann will return to Waukegan Saturday.

The bride is a sister to Mrs. Edward Des Jardines, whose husband was formerly a Chicago & Milwaukee Electric Railroad company official. Mrs. A. C. Frost, wife of the former magnate, is a sister of Mr. Des Jardines. The residence of the bride is Highland Park.

The groom is the executive head of the Princess Catering company, Washington and Genesee streets, is in business with his father, James T. Mann, ex-alderman and respected citizen, and is very successful in business. He is one of the founders of the confectionery, ice cream and cafe business that is called "The Princess." ### Herman Dietz Dismissed.

A thing that has greatly stirred up the employees of the Chicago Milwaukee Electric Railroad is the dismissal of Herman Dietz of Waukegan, Master Painter of the cars. Mr. Dietz has been in the employ of the Company for seven years and when he was told that he and his four helpers were no longer needed he was greatly surprised, as he knows of no just reason for the action. W. N. Silvers, his employer is a new man recently taking the place of L. L. Smith, and the reason Mr. Silvers gave for his action was that seven years is too long for a man to work in one place. Mr. Dietz is very popular with the men at the shops, and they are sorry to see him go.
