

THE PEOPLE OF HIGHLAND PARK and vicinity are appreciating the excellent quality of Highland Linen and Berkshire Linen Stationery, judging by the increased demand for tablets and box paper of this splendid correspondence paper bearing the trade mark of Eton, Crane & Pike.

You will be sure to be satisfied in selecting your stationery from our stock, as our selections are made to suit all demands for texture, size, finish, color, or any whim or fancy that makes writing a pleasure to you.

ALBERT LARSON, Stationer No. 7
St. Johns Ave

Do you want a good safe paper in your home? One you are not afraid to let your boy or girl read?
Subscribe now for the

North Shore
News - Letter
$1.50 per year

Phone 92

Vol. XII

High

Opening

"Say, w
Gregor Au
night? Y
Henry, I m
it. We ha
orter been
she opened
and invited
eat a gen
More'n th
came over
best gingh
Never see
styles in m
feller that Greeley an
that it was
knewed he
his name w
"Anothe
his yearling
for about f
worth.
"They h
up in one co
gals who ch
for stamps.
tho. One
Carver gal
player.

"Then th
you checke
and they ch
it in and ch
it out again
lot of pretty
and selled c
sell a hunk
an old cod
so sweet th
dollar and w
back.

"Up-stair
some kind
but thar was
get up thar
"Oh, I fo
the dinner;
never eat so
"I heard
some whar
nobody was
down-stairs,
thet was for
cider, by hee
"The roo
up with pur
and even o
around. An bonfires, and the trees.
pretty.

"I heard
hundred doll
to give eve
Orphanage u
I shure am so
it was so gra

If the Ne
meet with yo
please make
editor has be
part of the w

First United
Revival mee
ning Monday ni
vices will be h
Saturdays for se
be no service at night, since the
attend the dedic
church.