A Tragic Event.

It was a town girl—and the same sad story that, alas, has often been told, and checkered many a young life which had its beginning in sunshine, surrounded by luxury and the wealth of the world. Her eyes were now wild and staring, her face was flushed, her hands were nervously working. She was a deeply troubled and injured woman, and we hear her saying: "O, cruel one, you have injured the very foundations or my being! Day by day you have tortured me, and yet I could not bear to give you up. When first we met, how your ease and polish attracted me! When you became my own, how my friends envied me. But your understanding is too small for my large soul. You are opposed to my advancing self. You have injured my standing in society. If we had never met, I might have walked in peace. So now begone! We part forever!" There was a moment's convulsive breathing, a gritting of teeth and a sharp sigh. It was all over. By a supreme effort she had pulled off her "new shoe."

And the man who breaks off a matrimonial engagement should be fined for contempt of court.

We often feel sorry for the rich. Mr. Rockefeller, for instance; he once had as much hair as much hair as anybody.

Satan smiles whenever a minister begins to congratulate himself on the beauty and eloquence of his prayers.

When a woman buys a newspaper she thinks she isn't getting her money's worth unless she finds the name of somebody she knows among the death notices.

Friend—So your detective force is a failure?
Chief Emma—Yes; we can't find any one who is willing to be a plain-clothes woman.

An Indignant Outcry.

"What's the matter with the hens, Mandy?"
"Why, they've been makin' that same fuss ever since Jirab dropped the circular in the barnyard tellin' how eggs wuz 40 cents an' goin' up. Jirab ought to had more sense. I s'pose now they'll demand better feed or quit layin'."

Don't Make a Mess

OF YOUR PICTURE

It requires expert knowledge and artistic temperament to properly frame pictures. Any good carpenter can make and put together a frame, but few know what kind of a frame to use for the particular picture to be framed. This is where mechanical knowledge ends and the exercise of artistic intuition begins.

Many a Good Picture
Is Absolutely Ruined
In Selecting a Frame

Our picture framers know their business. They have the material to so frame a picture as to get the highest possible artistic effect. No incongruous contrast or unpleasant effects if we do the framing. He can give you the BEST STOCK, BEST WORK, BEST EFFECT and the BEST PRICE of anybody in the city.
