

Ravinia Residence Burns.

At 8:30 p. m. Thursday fire was discovered in the home of R. F. Seymour of Ravinia. The fire department was enjoying the evening at their weekly ball in their hall on Central avenue and appeared in a body at the City Hall ready for service.

Mr. Seymour was away hunting and Mrs. Seymour was at Winnetka, leaving Grandfather Seymour, the two children and the maid in care of the house.

Smart

"Her clothes are always very smart." "Yes, and judging from what her husband occasionally says he seems to feel the smart."

Angry Candidate—Look here! I've half a mind to sue you for libel! What do you mean by picturing me as you have?

Cartoonist—But the picture looks like you.

Angry Candidate—I know it does. But do I look like a man who likes to look like himself?

One

"Pa, what's an average man?" "One who thinks he is away above the average."

Joy

Some people get married merely for the purpose of having a good time for three or four weeks before the wedding.

It was the grammar class, and the teacher had asked for words ending with "ous."

"Can any one," she said, "give me a word like 'dangerous,' meaning full of danger—'hazardous,' full of hazard?"

"Well, Bobby, what is your word?" "Please, miss," came the reply. "'pious,' full of pi!"

Binks—A good deal depends on your luck in bridge.

Waggles—Yes, but your luck also depends on a good deal.

Nobody is Honest.

"You simply cannot trust anybody," declares the lady. "My maid, whom I had the utmost confidence in, left me suddenly yesterday and took with her my beautiful pearl brooch."

"That is too bad," sympathizes the friend. "Which one was it?" "That very pretty one I smuggled through last spring."

"Your wife does not appear to be satisfied."

"She ought to be; she always has her own way. Oughtn't she be satisfied when I always let her have her own way without opposition!"

"She'd be better satisfied with it if she had to fight for it."

A Bad Sign.

Visitor—Ah! What a picture innocence that child is! Mother—Dear me! I hadn't noticed! Gertrude, what have you been doing?

Pa's Harvest.

"Now, Tommy," said the teacher in her most persuasive tones, "tell us when is the harvest season?"

"From November to March," said Tommy with great promptness.

"Why, Tommy, I am surprised that you should name such barren months. Who told you they were the harvest season?"

"Pa. He's a plumber."

Double Vision.

Church—I see the people of Milwaukee are congratulating themselves on growth of 84,931 in population since the federal census of 1900.

Gotham—You know what Milwaukee is famous for.

Church—Oh, sure.

Gotham—Well, do you think they've got so much increase, or do the people only think they see 'em?

Seeing Europe.

"And did you go through Berlin while touring abroad?" asked the caller.

"Did we, dear?" said the wife to her husband.

"Yes," replied the busy man from behind his paper; "don't you remember we bought some gasoline there?"

"And Paris—did you stop in Paris?" continued the caller.

"Did we, dear?" asked the wife of her better half.

"Why, of course. Don't you remember we busted a tire there and had to have a new one put on!"

By Chance

"So you and your husband met by accident?"

"Yes. The taxicabs we occupied went into the same ditch."

Worse than the Weather.

Mrs. Hashley—Well, there's your board bill, Mr. Skinner.

Knew the Symptoms.

Young Wife—And do you really and truly love me, darling?

Old Husband—Certainly, my dear. How much money do you want?

Student Sees Error Too Late.

A member of the faculty of the Columbia Medical College of New York was giving his students an oral quiz.

What quantity constitutes a dose of Oleum Tigllii? he asked a student, giving the technical name for croton oil.

A tablespoon, sir, was the reply. After the lapse of half an hour he hurried to the professor.

I should like to change my answer to the question you asked me in class, he said.

It is too late, replied the professor, looking at his watch. Your patient has been dead just twenty-nine minutes and thirty seconds.

He Has It

"What is your idea of true gallantry?" "Well, it seems to me that a man who will let his whiskers grow so that he will look older than his wife has it."

Not to be Blamed

"I see that Taft has been advising people to stay on the farms."

"Yes; but don't blame him. He probably thinks there is an eighteen-hole golf course on every farm in the country."

Hostess (to new curate)—We seem to be talking of nothing but horses, Mr. Soothem. Are you much of a sportsman?

Curate—Really, Lady Betty, I don't think I ought to say that I am. I used to collect butterflies; but I have to give up even that now!

"Papa," said a youngster, "has the devil got a tail?"

"Some folks say so," answered the father.

"That must be nice!"

"Nice? And why?"

"Because he can tie it to his little boy's ear and pull him along."
