Visitor—What became of that other windmill that was here last year?

Native—There was only enough wind for one, so we took it down.—Boston Transcript.

An Eye to Profit.

"My wife says she would rather go to cooking school than play bridge whist," said one man.

"So would mine," replied the other. "But I'd rather have her play bridge."

"Is she a poor cook?"

"No, but she's a good bridge player."

Afraid of the Hooks

"I thought you'd soon tire of the Kneipp cure fad."

"You are entirely mistaken in your surmise."

"How so?"

"I stopped going barefooted on account of the hook worms."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Inconsiderate

"What makes you say your husband has no consideration for your wishes?" said the emotional actress.

"He utterly lost his temper," replied the opera singer, "when I told him I thought it would be nice to have a divorce."—Washington Star.

Making Him Pay

"I say," said the messenger boy, "that near-sighted man in 496 just fell over a broom and spilled a pail of water on himself."

"Take him up a towel," said the hotel manager, "and charge him for one bath."—Tit Bits.

Definition

"How do you define 'black as your hat'?" said a schoolmaster to one of his pupils.

"Darkness that may be felt," replied the budding genius.

Croak Instead of Cackle

Bacon—I see the toad deposits about 12,000 eggs each year, but we only hear from 1,000 of them.

Egbert—Those are the ones they croak about, I suppose.

Explained

"Where were you going when I saw you to day, Sam?"

"What time, sah?"

"About 4 o'clock."

"I was goin' back to work, sah!"

"But where had you been, Sam?"

"I dunno, sah. Dat mule kicked me out where I was, sah, an' I was goin' back to work, sah!" Yonkers Statesman.

Fourteen Errors of Life.

The fourteen errors of life have been enumerated as follows:

To attempt to set up our own standard of right and wrong, and expect everybody to conform to it.

To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own.

To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.

To look for judgment and experience in youth.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

Not to yield in unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.

Not to alleviate if we can all that needs alleviation.

Not to make allowances for the weakness of others.

To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

To live as if the moment, the time, the day were so important that it would live forever.

To estimate people by some outside quality, for it is that within which makes the man.

TRUST THE TELEPHONE

IT LESSENS WORRY

The telephone is a guard against worry. A "call" from the absent one ASSURES you of his safety; the physician's quick response RELIEVES ANXIETY in the sick room; a pleasant chat with relative or friend BREAKS the monotony of a long day. Slight cost. Chicago Telephone Company.

ALWAYS READY TO HELP

Night or day, rain or shine—the telephone is ready to fleetly carry a message and aid in the solution of domestic problems or find the CURE for emergencies. That's when the rental rate seems low Chicago Telephone Company.

NO QUESTION OF FINANCE

You reach others, others reach you—and the telephone proves indispensable. It handles your work promptly and effectively. No purse too lean to bear the slight expense. Chicago Telephone Company.

NOT A LUXURY

Telephone service is a common-sense economy. It saves you time, money and needless trips. Cost—only a few cents a day. Chicago Telephone Company.

A HANDY HELP

Besides its CONVENIENCE and DISPATCH, the telephone serves in a thousand other ways. It is a protector, a messenger, a bureau of information. Slight expense. Chicago Telephone Company.
