

NORTH SHORE NEWS-LETTER

Vol. XIII.—No. 3

Highland Park, Ill., Saturday, January 15, 1910

Price Five Cents

Highland Park NEWS

Miss Mame Reed of Chicago spent the week end with Mrs. Abbie B. Bastin.

Miss Lillie Bell has been procured as assistant teacher in the Lincoln school.

Miss Lawrence of Chicago has been the guest of the Misses Lowden.

Miss Helen Conrad is recovering from an attack of the measles.

Miss Blanche Mason has had as her guest Miss Doris Moody of Waukegan.

The marriage has been announced of Miss Margaret Schmidt and Hugo Turkart.

The Delta Tau Sigma fraternity were hosts last Thursday evening when they entertained their friends with a sleighing party.

Mrs. Thayer of North Sheridan Road was hostess on New Year's eve when she entertained a party of young people in honor of her daughter Mildred and her guest Miss Cleaver with a dancing party.

A costume watch party took place at the Highland Park Club on New Year's eve. Several out of town guests were present.

Mr. Raymond Lovell returned Monday from Cincinnati where he has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Laird. While there several entertainments were given in his honor.

Mr. William T. Underwood returned Monday from Lafayette, Ind., where he had been visiting his brother, Mr. Chas. Underwood.

Over eighty-five young children were entertained on New Year's day at the Woman's Club. Mrs. Charles Everett was in charge of the affair. The club was beautifully decorated and each child was given favors by Mrs. Fyffe and Mrs. Henry M. Hyde. The afternoon was spent in playing games and dancing. Mr. Bournique leading the cotillion. In the evening the annual New Year's cotillion took place for the young people.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Fessenden has issued invitations for luncheon to meet Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Charles Henrotin for Tuesday the twenty-fifth. Mrs. Henrotin will speak to the Woman's Club after the luncheon. Her subject is "Three Queens" those to whom she has been presented.

A marriage of interest to the Highland Park people is that of Mr. Lewis Pease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pease of Highwood, and Miss May Parks of Winnetka which occurred on December 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Pease have taken an apartment in Edgewater.

We regret to hear of the illness of Miss Grace Howell, who has recently undergone an operation in one of the Chicago hospitals. Miss Howell at present is getting along very nicely.

Misses Belle and Marjory Meade, who have been spending the New Year's holidays at the home of their uncle Mr. Henry K. Coale, have returned to Kansas City, where they are attending Loretto Academy.

Mr. William H. Miller has returned from Detroit where he has been on a business trip.

Miss Harriette Leaming has decided to remain at home and not return to the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Pearl McCord, one of the teachers of the Elm Place school entertained the High School students on Thursday when she sang several very beautiful selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Tyle Harrington are the parents of a young son born Jan. third. Mr. Harrington is the son of Mr. Stephen Harrington and before his marriage made his home here with his father.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the North Avenue church met with Miss Mae Collins on Thursday.

A marriage of great interest is that of Miss Hattie Bell and Homer Hunt of Daneville, California. Miss Bell spent a couple of years at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bell. While here she attended High School and made a great many friends among the young people who were surprised to hear of her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt are building in Daneville where they will reside.

Mr. O. F. Bell left Monday evening for San Antonio, Texas, where he will attend a meeting of the Traffic men. Over two hundred Chicago men went also.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 18, 1910 a Dollar Social will be held at the Baptist Church under the auspices of the Finance Committee. Money raised will be for special current expenses. A prize will be awarded to the person giving the most interesting account of how they earned their dollar. Refreshments served and musical program arranged.

On Thursday afternoon at the Lake Forest Woman's Club Mrs. Simon Reid gave a "travelogue," descriptive of one of her trips. The members of the Highland Park Woman's Club were invited and many attended. Mrs. Luther M. Rossiter is president of the Lake Forest Club.

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Woman's Club had as their speaker Rev. Columbus Polk Goodson who spoke to them on the many movements and conventions held during the past year with the one object international and world wide peace. It is astounding the many countries represented in this great movement and the thinkers interested in its spread and growth. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Frank Green, Mrs. F. Klotz, Misses Patchen and Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Evans are the happy and proud parents of a young son born last week.

This evening the second annual hop of the High School Alumni takes place at Ravinia Park Casino. A large number of the Alumni and their guests are expected, a great many coming from out of town.

Sherman Watkins and Clarence Parliament, two young boys, were thrown from a sleigh on Monday and were fortunate in escaping serious injuries.

The Tri Mu Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of Ted Phillips on North Sheridan Road.

Dr. Jesse Francis who has been spending the holidays at the home of his fiance Miss Joy Miller of North Green Bay Road has returned to Troy, Ohio, where he is practicing.

A great many members of the Eastern Stars attended the installation at Evanston on Thursday evening of last week.

We regret to hear of the illness of Mrs. Jesse Sobey of North Green Bay Road.

Miss Lillian Russell of "Russell Hall" has returned from Arlington Heights where she has been for the past month visiting her parents Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Russell.

The academy opened on Wednesday with an enrollment of several new students. "Russell Hall" was so crowded that it was necessary to put up a portable school house on the grounds.

The Tri Mu fraternity held its meeting at the home of Roland Brand last week.

Woman's Club Xmas Party

The Highland Park Woman's Club gave its annual Christmas party on Tuesday the 28th when a great many of the young people assembled in the Library Building. The program was opened by Miss Gladys Tucker who played a very difficult selection on the piano. Misses Enola Garnett and Helen Rebling played two very pleasing duets; Ted Phillips played in his usual skillful manner; Miss Helen Garnett very cleverly recited "In the Pantry," a bright and entertaining composition written by one of the young women students at the Anna Morgan Studio. Miss Rowena Bastin recited one of Eugene Field's captivating pieces "Seen' Things," in her usual magnetic way.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in playing of games and dancing conducted by Miss Gertrude Schaefer, assisted by Miss Alice Garnett.

Refreshments were served and each child given a box of candy, the gift of Mrs. Campbell, president of the Club.

Mrs. Garnett had charge of the day and is to be congratulated on her entertaining program. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. John Bell, Misses Florence Shelton, Amy Holabird and Mildred Coale; Miss Lillie Bell at the piano.

Lucile Brand, who has been spending several weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brand, returned to Wellesley on Monday. The other young people who have returned to their colleges are William Geer, Archie Mason, Malcolm Vail who have resumed their work at Cornell; Allan Schaeffer, Williams College; John DeMuth, Culver Military Academy; Mauvet Coombs, Purdue University; William and Hamilton Patton, Harvard; Lawrence Small and Henry Ritter are again at Tome Institute; George Moseley, Hill School; John Conrad and Harry Bock, University of Illinois; Paul Rudolph, Boston School of Technology; the Misses Cecil Vail, Smith, Evangeline Wean, Vassar, Alice Garnett, Chicago University; Helen Sullivan and Madeline Ryder, Siniwawa College. The departure of so many young people is greatly noticed and regretted.

Miss Adelaide Inman has returned to Ann Arbor where she is attending the University of Michigan.

Mr. William King and his daughter Mrs. J. L. Miller are spending the week end with Mr. King's sister-in-law Mrs. Ed. King at Laporte, Indiana. Mr. King's brother died recently.

On Thursday evening a very delightful musicale was given at the Highland Park Club. The program was in charge of Mrs. Annette R. Jones and was given by Mrs. T. H. Aldrich of Birmingham, Ala., and Walter Allen Stults.

The vesper service was held on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the Presbyterian Church. Special music was given by the choir and George Jones played several beautiful solos on the violin. Rev. Columbus Polk Goodson spoke on "The Soul's Unpaid debts."

Mr. Lloyd has returned to the Park after spending the holidays with his sister Mrs. Robert Fairfield of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohl are planning on disposing of their business and going to Holland, Michigan, where they have purchased property. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bohl hope that they will decide to remain here.

Miss Alma Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Olsen, entertained her young friends at a party Thursday of last week.

Mr. Curtis N. Kimball is planning to erect a bungalow on the property he recently purchased from the Sweetland estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hecht of Ravine avenue, who recently returned from New York, have taken apartments at "The Plaza," Chicago, for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are occupying the Hecht house for the remainder of the winter.

The members of the Ossoi Club listened to a lecture by Mrs. Clara Z. Moore "Idealizing Daily Life." The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. E. E. Andrews and Mrs. G. O. Dickinson.

The Delta Tau promenade at the Congress Hotel was of great interest to the Highland Park members and several attended from here.

Dr. B. A. Hamilton has returned from Toronto, Canada, where he has been for several weeks. His many Highland Park friends were very glad to see him again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham Evans have returned to Lake Forest after their wedding trip in the east. Mrs. Evans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blackler and is very well known in Highland Park, having a great many friends here. Mr. Evans is a young ranchman and the young couple will make their home in the west.

Miss Evangeline Wean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Wean, has returned to Vassar. Miss Wean had as her house guests Miss Julia Lovejoy of Janesville, Wis., and Miss Ruth Heath of La Crosse. Several entertainments were given for them, also several week-end parties.

Miss Chandler and her nieces, the Misses Virginia and Ruby Chandler of Bellevue Place, received on Monday. Several young women from Highland Park assisted.

Miss Lillian Burgess has returned from Omaha, Neb., where she has been for several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Byers. Miss Burgess has resumed her teaching.

Ted Wallace left Tuesday for Pittsburgh, Pa., where he is attending Washington-Jefferson Academy, after spending the holidays with his aunt, Mrs. John Bell, of North St. Johns Place.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wink is seriously ill with meningitis the result of an attack of measles.

The death of "Nat" Moore came very close to home, as the Moore family were former residents of Highland Park and are frequent visitors at the home of Mrs. Clare Smith, sister of Hobart Moore.

An engagement of great interest to the society of the North Shore is that of Miss Emma Hecht, daughter of Mrs. E. Hecht of Libertyville, and Dick McMahon. No date has been set for the wedding, but it is said that it will take place the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Knapp are visiting Mrs. Lovell. Mrs. Knapp's many friends are glad to hear of her improvement from her recent illness.

Miss Edith McKenzie has returned to Antioch, Ill., where she is teaching school.

Sunday morning Rev. Dakin, pastor of the Baptist Church will preach on the subject "All Things New," in the evening, "The Strong Man." All are cordially invited to these services. Special music by the Choral Club has been prepared for this day.

George Baldwin and Frances Wymond, Highland Park cadets, are again enrolled at the Academy.

Mr. Joseph Delhaye and family will move into their handsome new residence on North Green Bay Road in a few weeks. Mr. Delhaye has been living in Mr. Perriman's house since their coming here from Libertyville.

The Ossoi Club has invited the members of the Woman's Club, their husbands and friends, to meet with them on the evening of Thursday Jan. 20th, at the Highland Park Club House to hear Mrs. H. F. Hefferan speak on educational problems. There will also be a discussion following the address.

At 2:30 Friday morning Mildred Wink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wink of Sheridan avenue, passed away. She had been a sufferer for a short time of meningitis. Mildred was only four years old.

Next Sunday evening the Socialists of Highland Park will have a lecture on the subject, "The Ethics of Socialism," by May Wood Simons, in the Masonic Hall at 7:30. A small admission of 10c will be charged. It is claimed for Miss Simons that she is an interesting and forceful speaker.

John P. Kline, proprietor of the modern Shoe Store, has been forced by increasing trade to abandon his old quarters, and has moved into one of the McGuire & Orr stores on the opposite side of the street from his old stand on Central avenue. Mr. Kline now has a modern store in harmony with Highland Park's growing business enterprise.

There has been up to the present time about six weeks' continuous sleighing in Highland Park, and the outlook is good for several weeks more.

Glencoe News

Mr. and Mrs. Kittmaster of Bluff and Lincoln avenue entertained for their son Dougall Kittmaster on last Friday evening with a dancing party.

Gilbert Johnson, who has been spending the holiday vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, returned last Wednesday to the University of Illinois.

Miss Philoma Becker was hostess at a ve hundred card party last week.

Bobbie Johnson visited Highland Park friends on Tuesday.

The Delta Chi Club had its fortnightly meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Rodney Wyatt of Green Bay Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Underwood are spending the winter at Palm Beach, Fla.

Miss Frances Hurford has returned to the University of Illinois.

Splendid coasting is reported at the Skokie Club.

The Glencoe Public Library is being greatly enjoyed by the people of Glencoe and the public is taking advantage of it and is showing its great appreciation.

The Woman's Library Club met on Thursday afternoon.

Kenneth McLeisch is attending College School at Kenilworth.

Robert Johnson is working for his father William R. Johnson in Chicago.

Episcopal Church Guild gave a dance on January 7 for the people at the church Guild Hall.

Glenn Parks is employed with the O. R. Barnette Company, Chicago.