"Was your husband good to you during your long illness?" inquired the kind lady who was making a charity call. "Oh, yes, indeed, ma'am!" replied the poor woman; "as good as could be—he was more like a friend than a husband."

SMILES

Simply That. Blibson—How was Jones yesterday? Glibson—He seemed to be laboring under a strange delusion. Blibson—Indeed! I thought he was playing golf. Glibson—So did Jones.

Willing to Endure. She (at the piano)—I presume you are a true lover of music, are you not? He—Yes, I am; but pray don't stop playing on my account.

A Great Collector. "Yes, Mr. Miggs, I've been collecting stamps since I was a girl." "My word! Your collection must be valuable."

Quite a Difference. "Did the difference ever strike you between the captain of a vessel and a wine exporter?" "Never thought much about it. What is it?" "The one ports his ship and the other ships his port."

Priced. Grateful Father (with deep feeling)—It was a brave act, young man. At the peril of your life you've saved my daughter. How can I ever repay you? Brave Rescuer—Would $50 be too much, sir?

Its Kind. "How did Mandie change her hair from brown to golden? Is it a dark secret?" "On the contrary, it was a light job."

Self-Betrayed. She—How do you like my new shirtwaist? He—It's stunning, dear, but haven't I seen it before? "Never!" "Well, I'm sure I've had my arm around that shirtwaist, dear."

"Not this one, but now you speak of it, I remember that horrid Huggins girl had one just like it at the beach last summer."

She Has To. "Is your wife a woman to mince matters?" "She has to when she makes the pies."

The Bridegroom—Would you mind if I went into a smoking compartment, dear? The Bride—What to smoke? The Bridegroom—Oh, dear, no—I want to experience the agony of being away from you, so that the joy of my return will be all the more intensified.

He—I think it is an outrage that the ladies wear high hats in the theater. She—I must admit you men are much more considerate. He—Of course we are. She—Some of you who sit in the front row are even so considerate as to leave your hair at home. You are too good for this world.

Hopeless Case. The two hopeless inmates of the sanitarium were talking. "Surely, you don't believe," said the first, "that Rockefeller gave you a million dollars?" "Of course I do," answered the other, "and what's more I'm going to buy myself a railroad with it so it won't cost my family anything to ride when they come to see me."
