A Brotherhood Gathering

What is known as the Baptist Brotherhood met Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church and proceeded to get acquainted over a banquet provided by the ladies of the church. Prof. Smith of the Chicago University and Rev. Dr. Boyington of Chicago gave stirring addresses.

The principal speakers had to leave on an early train and the rest of the evening was given over to extemporaneous speeches. Mr. D. M. Erskine, president of the Brotherhood, acted as "toastmaster." A vote of thanks was extended to the ladies who served so well and to the speakers of the evening. The purpose of the Brotherhood is all that the name implies. They will hold another meeting next St. Patrick's day.

Much credit is due to Rev. Le Roy Dakin, who is the organizer of the club, and regret was greatly felt by those present because of the illness of the pastor which confined him to his home.

A Merry Sleigh Ride

Last Saturday evening the young people of the Baptist Church made up a sleighing party of forty-five. They went to the home of George Skidmore in Wheelerville and there a crowd from the Wheelerville church joined them. The sleighing was fine and the young people enjoyed themselves greatly. They were entertained royally at the Skidmore home, and before leaving for the home trip they filled up on refreshments.

Woman's Club

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Woman's Club and their friends had an unusually interesting afternoon when they had the opportunity of listening to Mrs. Charles Henrotin, wife of the Consul to Belgium, who spoke to them of Empress Eugenie of France, Empress Frederick of Germany and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, who played important parts in the history of their respective nations.

"Our history has no picture-resqueness; it is the most dull and limited history of any great nation, and the reason for it is that woman has been ignored. Woman makes history romantic and interesting."

Mrs. Henrotin is a very magnetic woman with a wonderful personality and she created such an atmosphere that the listeners felt that they too had met and known these women.

Mrs. Green of Milwaukee sang very beautifully and artistically several songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Kegnett who also gave a piano solo that was highly appreciated.
