

NORTH SHORE NEWS-LETTER

Vol. XIII.—No. 7

Highland Park Ill., Saturday, February 12, 1910

Price Five Cents

Highland Park NEWS

The opening night of the Automobile Show was attended by several prominent Highland Park citizens, among them the Ten Broecks took dinner at the Tip-Top Inn previous to the show.

Miss Kathleen Bergen entertained on Saturday afternoon and evening at the Moraine Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Seward and Shirley Seward leave to-day for the South where they expect to spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Messinger and Miss Helen Messinger have gone South where they will remain for several months.

Miss Katherine Schumacher entertained several young people over the week-end.

The members of the Ossoli Club had as their speaker Mrs. Edward L. Upton of Waukegan on Thursday. Mrs. Frank L. Wean entertained an informal luncheon in honor of Mrs. Upton preceding the Club meeting.

Mrs. R. Peyton gave a large dinner on Saturday evening.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. John L. Curtis was hostess at a large bridge party at the Woman's Athletic Club.

Mrs. Trigg Waller was hostess on Thursday evening when she entertained at bridge; and on Saturday afternoon she entertained at bridge.

The marriage has been announced of Miss Elizabeth Kohlberg of Half-Day and John Huhn of Deerfield.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Elsie Margaret MacPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. MacPherson, and Mr. Guy T. Smith, on Wednesday, the second of February, at Josephine, Alabama. Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson and family were former residents of Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the North avenue church met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. O. F. Bell.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church will serve cake and tea on Saturday afternoons at Library Hall during Lent.

The King's Daughters will meet at the home of Misses Helen and Mildred Coale during the absence of Miss Alice Davidson with whom they formerly met.

Miss Helen Rudolph is spending the week-end with her sister Mrs. Edward Steele of Chicago.

George Willis Cummings, son of our retired druggist George B. Cummings, is delivering a series of four lectures at Handel Hall, before a Federation of Technical Clubs of Chicago. That these lectures are popular is shown by the fact that every seat in the house is occupied. The first two lectures have been delivered, the remaining two will be on March 1st and 22nd. No admission is charged, and any one interested in Telephone Engineering can attend. Mr. Cummings is a graduate of Deerfield Township High School, and copies of his book, "Electricity and Magnetism in Telephone Maintenance," can be found in the school and public libraries. It has also been adopted as a text book in some technical schools.

On Friday the many friends of John Kelly helped him celebrate his birthday, when they gathered at his home and spent the evening.

Miss Burgess is permanently located with Miss Amy Holabird. Tel. 1353.

Mrs. C. E. Thompson of Second street is entertaining her mother Mrs. Robinson of Anderson, Indiana.

Miss Grace Woodbridge of La Salle, Illinois, spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Helen Coale.

C. M. Cate, formerly of Montgomery, Ala., has been secured as the choir master at Trinity church.

Mr. and Mrs. McLimont returned on Saturday from the South where they have been for several weeks.

We feel sorry for the man who does not read his home paper. He is like a man without a country. He is like a homeless cow that has no regular pasture, but grazes promiscuously on weeds and thistles. No matter what paper he may read, a straightforward citizen always insists on having his home paper.—Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sampson of Winnetka, formerly of the Park, celebrated their third wedding anniversary last Wednesday.

Mr. Walter C. Hatley of Beech street entertained at dinner Thursday evening of last week. Covers were laid for nine and the decorations were white tulips.

Mrs. P. C. Wolcott of Prospect avenue gave a tea last Friday afternoon.

The Round Table Club met last Friday evening at the residence of C. O. Larson of East Park avenue.

Mrs. G. Maerklin of North Second street will entertain the Euchre Club next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Emil Rudolph of Linden Park Place has returned from a visit in the South.

Mrs. F. G. Gardener of East Central avenue entertained at cards last Monday evening.

Mrs. A. P. Smith of East Laurel avenue was a dinner-hostess last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. West of East Central avenue have gone to Tampa, Florida, for a month.

Mrs. E. H. Vivian and daughter June are visiting in New Orleans.

Mrs. F. B. Pratt of Waukegan is a Park visitor last Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Strand of Milwaukee spent several days with Highland Park friends this week.

Last Monday morning D. M. Erskine's Bank was visited by another robber but this time it was a woman who presented a check for $50, purporting to be signed by A. A. Moses. Mr. John Duffy the cashier went to the telephone and called up Mr. Moses to inquire if the check was all right but was informed that it must be a forgery as he had not given any such check. In the mean time the woman quietly slipped out of the bank and although a diligent search was made she could not be found.

J. Hoge Tyler, ex-governor of Virginia, spoke at the Wednesday evening meeting at the Presbyterian Church his subject being "Universal Religion." Mr. Tyler is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis N. Kimball of Green Bay Road.

Mrs. N. J. Ross of the Avenue House, Evanston, was the guest of Mrs. M. J. Miller on Wednesday.

The pupils of Mrs. George S. Cole gave a musicale at Mrs. Cole's home on Saturday evening. It was very interesting and largely attended.

The Woman's Club

The meeting on Tuesday of the Woman's Club was of double interest in that the entire program was given by Highland Park women.

Mrs. Jesse Sobey sang "The Haunt of the Witches," by Cora Cassard and one of Anita Owen's songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Watson. Mrs. Daniel Cobb addressed the Club, her subject being "What Clubs can do for us and what we can do for Clubs." Mrs. Cobb told of the great help of the Women's Clubs in the community, the benefit derived from them in being of help to all concerned. She told of how each woman could do her best toward her Club and the strength of a Club depends so much on the co-operation of all the members. Among other things she spoke of the Men's Club where they were given over to pleasures and amusements while the Women's Clubs were for civic and mental improvement. Mrs. Cobb's talk was very interesting and very helpful.

The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. D. M. Erskine, Mrs. George B. Cummings, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. L. VanRiper and Miss Barlow.

Mrs. C. Roy Miller left on Monday for Florida where she will spend two months.

Mr. W. C. Lloyd, for several years a resident of Highland Park, has gone to Chicago to live. His many Highland Park friends regret to hear of his departure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. White are spending the winter in California where they have built a beautiful bungalow overlooking the ocean.

A marriage of interest is that of Miss Lulu LeSage of Chicago and Mr. Henry B. Clark of Highland Park which occurred on Monday. The wedding was a quiet affair and was performed at 502 Aldine Square, the residence of Rev. William White Wilson, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Mr. Clark and Miss LeSage were school mates. Mr. Clark is vice president of the Hibernian Banking Association. He has been married before, his first wife getting a divorce from him in 1908. Upon their return from New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside in their home opposite the Highland Park Club, formerly the Russel School.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Putman will leave next week for Florida where they will remain several months.

Some hundred men attended the Men's Dinner given at the Highland Park Club on Monday evening where they gathered to talk over the Laymen's Missionary movement. L. P. Moore, W. P. Sterling and E. P. Bailey were the principal speakers.

On Tuesday evening the members of the Highland Park Club gave their annual Mardi Gras carnival at the Club House. Every imaginable character was represented, Colonial dames, Mexicans, Wild West men, clowns, Japanese, Spanish and Italian peasants all gathered together and made the evening very interesting and entertaining.

Mrs. Samuel Parliament entertained the Embroidery Class at luncheon on Wednesday at her home on North Sheridan Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Steele are spending a few months in the south.

Mrs. M. A. Mihills is ill with la grippe.

Miss Estelle Clark has as her guests for the week-end Misses Florence Schyver and Frances Richards of Northwestern University, Evanston.

Mrs. Steever and her daughter Miss Steever are in the South. During their absence Miss Frances Steever is staying in Evanston.

Miss Joy Miller has as her guest for the week-end Miss Winnifred Bray of Chicago.

New Moon

Fred Moon was all smiles last Saturday morning when he came up town to tell the news. "What is it Fred?" some one asked. "A fine baby boy," the proud father replied.

We prophesy a bright future for the New Moon, and:

If, like his father, he attain
The ideal six-foot pl'n,
May he like him in heart and brain
Be every inch a man.

"Larry" Small has returned from Tome and will enter some school in Chicago.

Miss Mildred Coale is visiting Miss Ruth Colburn of Chicago.

Miss Isabelle Clark entertained on Saturday afternoon with a bridge party.

Miss Grace Hoffert entertained her uncle, Mr. P. W. Held of Varna, Ill., who attended the Auto Show this week while here.

A quartette of Highland Park's promising young men meet tonight to study special work under the direction of Miss Lillian E. Burgess.

The Choral Club held their meeting on Tuesday evening at the Baptist church.

Miss Carlyn Shields is the guest of Major and Mrs. Mann of St. Louis, Mo.

On Friday afternoon a meeting was held at the Elm Place School for the purpose of forming a permanent organization of parents, those interested in the public schools and the teachers of the schools.

Mr. Cheney returns to-day from New York where he has been on a short business trip.

Miss Helen Conrad is spending the week-end with her brother and sister Mr. and Mrs. Conrad of Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Faxon of North Sheridan Road are in New York for a couple of weeks. Their son Ellis Faxon, who is at Cornell, came up and joined them in New York.

The Misses Muench entertained Monday evening when they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hall of Glencoe.

The annual meeting of the Lake County Law and Order League will be held Friday evening, February 18, at 8 o'clock, at Lake Forest, Reed Memorial Hall. A bus will meet the train at Lake Forest. Judge Cutting will be the speaker.

Mrs. John Gross, wife of John Gross of Joliet, Ill., formerly Miss Evelyn Charbonneau of Libertyville, was burned by using a stove polish last Friday morning. She was so badly injured that she died Saturday morning at a hospital at Joliet. The funeral was held Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the Catholic Church at Libertyville and the body was laid to rest in the Libertyville Cemetery. Mrs. Gross was well known here and her many friends are grieved over her awful death.

Thirteenth Decennial Census Examination

An examination is to be held on March 5th, 1910, on the 13th floor, Federal building, Chicago, Illinois, for positions in the additional office force of the Census Bureau at Washington, D. C. This examination has nothing to do with the appointments of supervisors, special agents, or enumerators, there being no further examinations for positions of that character in contemplation. A copy of the announcement of examination and application blank will be furnished to applicants by the local secretary of the civil service board at the postoffice in the cities in which the examination will be held or by Mr. Peter Newton, district secretary.

A woman's idea of a genius is a man whose neckties match his complexion.

Fort Sheridan News

Mrs. George B. Green has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Quimby.

Mrs. John J. Cooke entertained at luncheon on Wednesday.

Mr. Jack Morse, who recently took his entrance examinations for West Point, is visiting his parents, Major and Mrs. Morse.

Lieut. Richard B. Young, who has been enjoying a month's leave, has returned for duty again.

Mrs. E. C. Carter was hostess on Thursday when she entertained the large Club.

Mrs. Van Poole is visiting Capt. and Mrs. W. R. Davis at Fort Proctor, New York.

Upon the return of Colonel Carter from Chicago hospital the Carter family will go South where they will remain during winter months.

Miss Ethel McLean has been visiting Miss Page.

Mrs. T. B. Seigle entertained at dinner Monday evening for her guest, Mr. J. H. Carpenter.

We regret to hear of the illness of Mr. Grain, who has been confined to his house by a severe attack of quincy.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jesse M. Holmes have returned from Fort Leavenworth where they have been visiting.

Mental Surgeon Laflamme from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., has been visiting friends in the post for the past week before leaving for the Philippines.

Captain Van Poole celebrated his recent promotion to a majority Saturday evening when he entertained several of his officers at a stag dinner.

Mr. John H. Smith of New York has been in the guest of Capt. and Mrs. McMeek.

We regret to hear that the small daughter of Lieut. and Mrs. Osborne is suffering with pneumonia.

Major and Mrs. Chatfield will leave in a few weeks for the South.

The Army Relief Benefit entertainment was undoubtedly one of the most successful events ever given at the post. The entertainment, which took place at the gymnasium, was very unique. The hall was decorated with flags. Miss Essie Harding gave several humorous readings in several different dialects. One of her best readings is "The Man without a Country." Miss Dorothy Clark danced several fancy dances which were gracefully executed. The "Reveries of a Maid and Bachelor" was very clever. Among those taking part were: Mrs. O'Brien, Patton, Barton K. Hunt, Stanley Rumbough, Mrs. Seigle, Misses Clark, Dorothy Fessenden, Betty Rose, Marjory Page, Mrs. L. C. Stevens, Mrs. Brown, Capt. A. J. McNab, Kenneth Morse, Lieuts. Abrahams, Reed, Mr. O. D. Goodey, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Saville, Mrs. B. A. Fessenden, Mrs. Gilbreth and Mrs. Howe.

At the Baptist Church

Services on Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, E. LeRoy Dakin. Morning subject, "The Life of a Friend." Evening subject, "My Relation to Christ." Helpful and inspiring music under the leadership of Mr. Lyman Prior. The public is invited to avail itself of the inspiration and blessing of these services. This is "The Church for all the People." The church where everybody feels at home and from which they go home fitter for life's tasks. Be there on Sunday.