County Court of Lake County.

Docket No. 156

Notice is hereby given to all parties interested that on January 9, 1909, the County of Highland Park filed a petition in the County Court of Lake County, Illinois, praying for the ascertainment of the just compensation to be paid for private property to be taken for the construction of a purification plant for a sanitary sewer system, No. 1, in the City of Highland Park, County of Lake and State of Illinois. That thereafter commissioners were appointed by said court to investigate and report the just compensation to be paid for private property to be taken or damaged for the sewer and what property would be benefited by such improvement. They filed their due and proper report in the said court, and the same was read and the court thereupon appointed a commission to assess the benefits and damages to be taken or damaged for the sewer and what property would be benefited by such improvement. The said commission filed their report in the said court, and the same was read and the court thereupon appointed a commission to assess the benefits and damages to be taken or damaged for the sewer and what property would be benefited by such improvement. The said commission filed their report in the said court, and the same was read and the court thereupon appointed a commission to assess the benefits and damages to be taken or damaged for the sewer and what property would be benefited by such improvement.

A Dog's Life

"And what do feed it out?" "Anything. He's not at all particular. He eats whatever the servants have."

Judge—It seems to me I've seen before.

Prisoner—You have indeed. I used to give your daughter singing lessons.

Judge—Seven years.

The Food Topic

The lady from Boston, to be led by the hostess noticed the fact with anxiety.

"My dear Mrs. Farnell," she said, "I want the Hon. Mr. B. to meet me. He's such a gifted conversationalist."

The lady from Boston, failed to interested.

"I have not seen a gifted conversationalist this evening," she said, "their only topic was the financial attitude of the edible animal tissues."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
