PARENTS AND TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The object and purpose of the Parents and Teachers Association has been recently formed in order to bring teachers and parents into closer contact.

The officers of this association at the first meeting were: Mrs. William T. Underwood, President; Mrs. Bowen W. Schmitt, Vice-President; Mrs. H. B. Secretary; Mrs. Ira J. Geer, Treasurer. There are three local divisions: Mrs. Daniel M. Cobb as Chairman of the High School; Mrs. John Chairman of the Elm Street School; Mrs. Curtis N. Kimball, Chairman of the Lincoln School; Ravinia School West school.

The work of the High School differs somewhat from that of the other schools in that it is having more mature material with which to deal, the first aim has been to establish a fellowship abounding with feeling between the parents of grown children and the men and women who daily instruct and educate them. The High School Division has committees, and the work outlined is good that we hereby show to the parents and teachers committees are doing.
