OUT OF THE QUAD BOX.

Song by the Editor.

How dear to my heart is the steady subscriber,
Who pays in advance without skipping a year,
Who lays down his dollar and offers it gladly
And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer.
Who never says "stop I cannot afford it,"
Or "getting more papers each day than I read,"
But always says "send it the whole outfit likes it—
In fact we regard it a business need."
—Exchange.

In the enlarging of the News-Letter you will notice that we have changed Mr. Dale Sweetland's ad from the 6th page to the 7th, therefore don't fail to give it your attention, then if in need of anything in his line give him a call, and at the same time don't fail to take home a quart of Thomson and Reid's Ice Cream.

Mrs. Brown who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Roberts, has returned to her home in La Grange, Illinois.

Our Job office is now better equipped to do work than ever.

THE OPTIMIST.

You may seek your heaven in some far sky,—
A city with gates unpeeled,—
To walk its streets you first must die
And to all you've cherished say goodbye,—
Goodbye to your loves and the world.

But I have a heaven that's closer at hand,
It fringes a city street,—
Its walls are of brick and lime and sand
And there's nothing about it very grand,
But O, to me it is sweet!

The saint who watches its gates
Is blest with a woman's face,
There, with two angels—my three good fates!—
To give me welcome she always waits,
And that's why I love the place!

With the light of her love it is always bright,
Its throne is her motherhood,
In truth 'tis a city that knows no night,
All filled with the music of child's delight
And aglow with the gold of good!

It is peopled with spirits of dear gone years,
But the best of its gifts are these,—
The love that shares burdens, the comfort that cheers,
The feeling of oneness that drives away fears
The blessings of quite and ease.

You may seek your heaven in some far sky,
Through fields of faith you roam
To reach its gates, but I have close by
A heaven to reach which I need not die,
I have found it here in my Home.

Mr. Tracy K. Smith, one of the best amateur players of the New York Golf Club, and Midshipman T. McCauley, U. S. Navy, who has been detached from the battleship Louisiana at the New York Navy Yard, have been familiar figures at the Exmoor Club during the last few weeks, where the fine links have attracted many amateur and professional players.

Rapid progress is being made on the buildings and grounds of the South Shore Country Club, south of Highland Park. The club house is being constructed of steel and cement in a very substantial and handsome manner. The location on the shore of the lake commands a superb view. A subway under Sheridan road affords unobstructed communication between the club house and grounds and the links. The dues of the club will be large, making it exclusive, the initiation fee being five hundred dollars.

CHURCH NOTICE.

BAPTIST CHURCH: Services at the Baptist church on Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, E. LeRoy Dakin. The sermon subjects for the day are "The Price of Progress" and "The Meaning of Manhood." These vital themes will be treated in a direct and practical way. These sermons will rest you, inspire you, and give you food for thought. The future is for the man who dares to think on big themes.

Columbus Polk Goodson will preach on Sunday morning on Happiness as Related to the Problem of Life at the Presbyterian Church. The service begins promptly at ten thirty o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Next Sunday will be Worlds Sunday School Day. A special program has been arranged for the Presbyterian school which meets at noon. The entire congregation will be invited to remain through the musical part of the service, Mrs. A. Alexander will sing "His Eye is on the Sparrow" by request, and Mr. Schauflier will have his orchestra to assist in the music.

CONVOCATION ORATOR.

The oratorical ceremonies at the University of Chicago on Tuesday, June 14, will be given by Mr. F. W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute of Technology of Chicago. His selection for this purpose is peculiarly appropriate in view of his close personal association with and friendship for the late President Harper, since his address will be delivered on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the great Harper Memorial Library which will take place.

DEATHS

FRED B. HINER, aged 66 years, residing at present just southwest of Ravinia, on the Green Bay Road, died at his residence Friday afternoon at 2:30. The funeral took place last Monday at the County Line Cemetery.

Mr. H. E. Gagan served with the late Michael Gagan on the section in the North Shore when the North Shore was being brought into shape and for many years thereafter. Later he took up a farm where he has resided for the past 20 years. His death was suddenly of heart trouble. He was respected by all who knew him, and made friends of all who came in contact with.
